INSURGENTS OPEN ATTACK NEAR BRIDGE TO MADRID

Offensive Against Loyalist Lines Underway in Vicinity of San Fernando Span on Western Side of Capital.

FASCIST PLANES IN ANOTHER RAID

Shells Put Six Elevators in Telephone Building Out of Commission — One Flyer Crashes.

MADRID, Dec. 22.—Fascist insurgents shelled Pozuelo today and began a fresh attack on Government lines near the San Fernando bridge on the western side of the city. Government concentrations were shelled near Boadilla del Monte and Moncloa, but little damage was reported.

Fascist gunners dropped six-inch shells on the capital today, concentrating most of their fire on the telephone building, Spain's tallest commercial structure. One shell ripped through the top floor, putting six elevators out of commission. Another plunged through the twelfth floor, tearing down through two more and exploded on the tenth. A third blasted a great hole in the sixth floor, just above the headquarters for newspaper correspondents. Several persons in the streets around the building were injured by falling bricks and masonry. Fascist airplanes bombed the Rosales district in the northwestern part of Madrid in the first air raid for many days. One plane, thought to be an insurgent ship, crashed during the attack. Government pilots took off at the first signal of the attack and succeeded in driving away the Fascist ships after the raid.

Air exchanges continued in the Guadalupe region northeast of Madrid and in the Somo Sierra section north of the city.

Fighting in the North. Several clashes in the northern provinces in which Government forces were generally successful were reported in dispatches reaching Madrid yesterday.

Troops loyal to the Government had captured Cetate Hill and repulsed a Fascist attack on Alzindem, inflicting 15 casualties.

An arms factory and the telephone building at Oviedo, which the insurgents held, were on fire following a bombardment by Government artillery, said a dispatch from Gijon. This source added that the insurgents had been driven from Homieda Pass.

Insurgent planes bombed several towns in Leon Province, it was reported. In regional Government aircraft bombed the enemy airport at Virgen del Camino, also in Leon Province. A company of Government militia made a dash into Matallana, southeast of Leon City, dynamited a railroad and derailed a coal train.

Belgian Missing at Madrid. Disappearance of Baron Jacques de Borchgrave, acting first secretary of the Belgian Embassy here, who failed to return from a visit to the war front near Madrid Sunday, is causing much anxiety in diplomatic circles.

The Baron, whose wife is the former Dorothy Moore, Mistress of San Francisco, left the Embassy at noon by automobile, expecting to make a brief tour of the Tetuan district to see results of the recent bombing by insurgent airplanes. When he failed to return by late afternoon, the Director-General of Security sent out a general alarm. It was feared he might have driven by mistake into the insurgent lines.

Franco Creates High Junta to Supervise Reorganized Armies. VALLA, Spain, Dec. 22.—Gen. Francisco Franco, supreme leader of the Spanish insurgents, created today a high junta to supervise his reorganized armies.

The military council is to meet periodically in Salamanca. Members will be Gen. Queipo de Llano; Gen. Gola, Secretary of State for War; Gen. Yuste; the Morocco commander Orgaz; and the chief of the general staff, Arrendo.

GRUPP TO FURNISH GERMANS ONIONS AS WELL AS ARMS

Take Food From Egypt in Part Payment for Nile Bridge.

BERLIN, Dec. 22.—The Krupp Works is going to help Germany solve the food shortage. It will build a bridge across the Nile in the Egyptian Government. In payment, the concern will take Egyptian onions, and bring them to Germany.

Archbishop of York Implies Edward Chose Course of Dishonor

Declares He Should Have Seen His Duty When He Began to Fall in Love With Another Man's Wife.

By the Associated Press.

YORK, England, Dec. 22.—The Most Rev. William Temple, Archbishop of York, broke silence yesterday on the abdication of King Edward VIII. He said Edward's course of conduct had not been such as has often been followed by men of honor.

"The harm was not done in December, nor even in October when the intention of marriage was announced to the Prime Minister," the Archbishop declared in his January letter to his diocese, "but much earlier."

"It has happened that many a man before now has found himself beginning to fall in love with another man's wife. That's the moment of the critical decision and the right decision is that they should cease to meet before passion is so developed as to create an agonizing conflict between love and duty."

"That decision has often been taken by men of honor."

The Archbishop of York, who ranks second to the Archbishop of Canterbury in the Church of England, declared any kind of love which conflicts with duty is "not the love of which the Gospel speaks."

He referred to the approaching coronation of King George VI as a "rededication of our whole national life and ourselves as citizens."

The prelate said the British Constitution was strengthened by the crisis, which grew out of King Edward's love for Mrs. Wallis Warfield Simpson, and added: "We are more deeply than ever, are committed to the democratic principle of the supremacy of Parliament exercised through Ministers who have the confidence of the House of Commons."

Hailing the new King and Queen, the Archbishop said the country should start the new year by turning away "from the sad and humiliating story to what we are confident will be a happier future."

The Archbishop of Canterbury, in a radio address on Dec. 13, criticized the "social circle" in which the former King moved, and said it was "strange and sad that for such a motive, however strongly it was pressed on his heart, he should have abandoned a trust so high and abandoned a trust so great." The Archbishop of Canterbury's remarks were severely criticized in some sections of the press and in the House of Commons.

POPE HAS RESTLESS NIGHT; BREATH SHORT, PAIN IN LEGS

Doctors Alarmed at His Intention to Go Through With Broadcast of Christmas Message.

By the Associated Press.

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 22.—Vatican sources said today that physicians to Pope Pius XI were dismayed at his intention to broadcast his Christmas message to the cardinals. They fear he will be unable to withstand the exertion. The Pope spent another restless night with his sleep troubled by shortness of breath and pain in his swollen legs.

The doctors went to the papal apartments for an attempt to persuade him to confine his enthusiasm for the message to a minimum. They insisted on absolute rest, with as little daily work as possible in preparing the allocation if he is to be strong enough to recite it even over a bedside microphone.

The Pope has ordered the worldwide broadcast for 12:30 p. m., Rome time, Thursday (4:30 a. m., St. Louis time), and plans to speak from an armchair in the study next to his bedroom.

STORMS DELAY LINERS NEARING U. S. WITH CHRISTMAS MAIL

10 Boats Carrying 3500 Passengers to Be 18 to 24 Hours Late.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Storms at sea delayed 10 Trans-Atlantic liners today, bound for New York with 3500 passengers and thousands of sacks of Christmas mail.

The ships will arrive in New York harbor from 18 to 24 hours late. Much of the mail will arrive too late to be distributed by Christmas.

The Europa, which was due today, will dock tomorrow morning. The Normandie, the Aquitania, the Deutschland and the Potsdam are among the other ships delayed a day.

CHERBOURG, France, Dec. 22.—The liner Queen Mary arrived here today late yesterday with a dozen passengers suffering cuts and bruises suffered when the ship was buffeted in a week-end storm.

GOV. PARK TOLD HE CAN CONTINUE PRISON INQUIRY

Attorney-General Writes Him That Records at Penitentiary and Alcoa Are Open to Him.

RECALLS PLEDGE OF CO-OPERATION

Outlines Case Against Bryant Which Penal Board Dropped, Holding Itself Without Authority.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Dec. 22.—Attorney-General McKittick today sent a letter to Gov. Park stating that, if the Governor desired to inquire into conditions at the state penitentiary here and the state intermediate reformatory at Alcoa, which have been under investigation by McKittick for several weeks, the records of the institutions showing the alleged irregularities were available and were open to inspection by the Governor, under the law.

Hearings in the investigation before the State Penal Board, in progress since last Dec. 7, ended abruptly yesterday when the board took the position it did not have legal power to investigate the official acts of one of the board members, State Parole Commissioner George D. Bryant.

Hearings Halted.

The board's decision prevented a hearing scheduled for yesterday, which McKittick had announced would be devoted to testimony concerning alleged illegal requisitions of substance supplies from the penitentiary and reformatory commissaries by Bryant, for his personal use. Bryant has said the requisitions were made under a substance allowance of $30 a month, authorized by the Penal Board. McKittick has declared this was not authorized by law.

After the hearings were terminated the two other board members, Director Stephen B. Hunter, board chairman, and Farm Commissioner Paul Renz, called on the Governor and informed him of their action. The two board members indicated that in the circumstances, any inquiry probably would have to be made by the Governor, who appointed the board.

"Glad to Co-operate."

Gov. Park said after the conference that he told Hunter and Renz that if McKittick had any information to submit, he would be glad to co-operate with him.

McKittick and Park engaged in a sharp clash recently when the Attorney-General asked the Governor "his purpose and his reason" for causing Guy W. McLain to withdraw his resignation as Superintendent of the intermediate reformatory, but the end of the inquiry, McKittick asked if it was "an attempt to hinder and interfere with the investigation."

McLain, who has been under fire in the investigation, for withdrawal of reformatory substance supplies for his own use and for alleged mismanagement of the institution, resigned just before the hearings started then withdrew his resignation after a conference with the Governor. McLain has said the substance withdrawals were authorized by the Penal Board.

The Governor denied there had been any attempt to interfere with the investigation and said he did not influence McLain in his decision to withdraw his resignation.

What Records Show.

McKittick, in his letter to the Governor today, referred to the Governor's statement, as quoted in newspapers, that he would be glad to co-operate with the Attorney-General if any information was submitted to him.

"The records are available at the intermediate reformatory that food and supplies were charged to Col. Bryant," McKittick said, "and were obtained by drivers of Col. Bryant's official car."

"The books and documents at the penitentiary show that Col. Bryant received building materials and had paid for part of same; that he also received food supplies since March, 1935. He used convicts and employees of the penitentiary in the repairing and construction of private buildings."

No more hearings will be held by the Penal Board, it was said, since the board abruptly dropped out of the investigation yesterday. McKittick said he likely would continue with an independent investigation, but said he had not completed his plans as to this inquiry.

SUNDAY CLOSERS BEHIND DRIVE ON SUNDAY SELLERS

Prosecutor Finnegan Tells of Widespread Complaint Received Against 'Unfair Competition.'

ADMITS STATE LAW REQUIRES CLARIFYING

Says Some Merchants Are Using Exemptions as Screen to Sell Every Day in Week.

The recent revival of enforcement of the State anti-Sunday selling laws in St. Louis resulted from complaints by representatives of a large number of merchants that they were faced with unfair competition from certain rivals, who operated seven days a week, Prosecutor James P. Finnegan said to a Post-Dispatch reporter today.

Finnegan said the anti-Sunday selling drive was directed against "chiselers, who hide behind some screen to sell on seven days a week in competition with other merchants who are satisfied to do business six days a week."

He mentioned no names, but the Police Department did in making 37 arrests last Sunday for alleged violations of sections 4381 and 4382 of the Revised Missouri Statutes of 1929.

Offenders were clothing merchants, grocers, dry goods dealers and chain drug stores. The latter included the new Katz Drug Co., Seventh and Locust streets, dealing in a wide variety of goods, which included luggage, hostess, toys, cooking utensils, electrical appliances, jewelry and many articles usually found in a department store. Katz employees have been arrested on three successive Sundays, and Finnegan's office has issued warrants against the firm and its salesmen.

Associations Complain.

"Chiseling" complaints were made to Finnegan, he said, by representatives of the Retail Druggists' Association, the Retail Furniture Dealers' Association, Wholesale Clothing Dealers, Retail Hardware Association, Retail Corporation Association, Independent Stores, Inc., grocers, fruit and vegetable dealers and others. The complaints in general were that certain merchants, using the exemptions to the State law as a screen, were selling almost every variety of merchandise on Sunday.

The Prosecuting Attorney refreshed his memory on sections 4381 and 4382, and then conferred with police officials, who went into action. The anti-Sunday selling laws read as follows:

Section 4381: Every person who shall expose to sale any goods, wares or merchandise, or shall keep open any ale or porter house, grocery, or tipping shop or shall sell or retail any fermented or distilled liquor on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, shall on conviction be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not exceeding $50.

Section 4382: "The last section shall not be construed to prevent the sale of any drugs or medicine, provisions, or other articles of immediate necessity."

Interpretation of Law.

Finnegan, admitting the ambiguity of "articles of immediate necessity," had fixed no hard and fast rule as to what may or may not be sold. "In general needs which could have been anticipated are not immediate necessities, but there are exceptions to all rules, and we are viewing each reported violation individually," Finnegan said. "In most cases it will remain with the courts to construe the phrase as it applies to the case at hand."

In explaining the difficulty in setting up a rule on Sunday selling, Finnegan cited as an example a hot-water bottle. "That is an article found in most well-regulated medicine cabinets, and its need may easily be anticipated. However, it is not unlikely that a person seized with sudden pain on a Sunday would discover no hot-water bottle in the house, and a druggist would be justified in making a sale under those circumstances."

Police, in making arrests on recent Sundays, decided that radios, toys and electric toasters, sold by chain drug stores, were not immediate necessities.

Need of Clarification. Finnegan expressed the opinion the law could be clarified through legislation, which would be specific as to "immediate necessities." Another seeming ambiguity in the term "provisions" as defined by Webster's International Dictionary,

Cuban President Facing Ouster

$80,000 HOME TO BE RAZED TO SAVE TAXES

Former Residence of Charles W. Nugent Has Been Vacant Several Years.

The imposing three-story brick mansion at 3 Kingsbury place, erected 30 years ago at a cost of $80,000, will be razed to save payment of taxes of $415 a year on the building, for which there no longer is any market.

Erected in a day of low material and labor costs, when many large residences were being built in that section of the West End, the house has 20 rooms, including 12 bedrooms and a large third-floor ballroom characteristic of the more spacious houses of the time. There are six bathrooms.

The house was built by Charles W. Nugent, a vice-president of the B. Nugent & Brothers Dry Goods Co. Later it was the residence of James C. Jones, attorney, but it has been vacant for several years. J. H. Farish, real estate dealer and agent for the present owner, said today to a Post-Dispatch reporter that the size of the house precluded the possibility of its sale for residence purposes, while the stringent restrictions of Kingsbury place prevent its use for any other purpose. Title to the property is held in the name of an employee of Farish's company.

On the first floor of the house are a large reception entrance, living-room, library music-room, dining-room, sunroom, breakfast room and kitchen. The second floor is given over to bedrooms and the third floor has more bedrooms and the ballroom. On the rear of the lot is a large garage with servants' quarters in the upper floor. According to Farish, the heating plant and plumbing of the residence are still in good condition. The cost of redecorating and refitting the residence for occupancy would be prohibitive, it was stated.

They boarded the royal train, used for the first time since the death of King George V. Crowds cheered the family party.

CHIANG'S WIFE ON WAY TO CAPTIVE HUSBAND

Ignores Protests That She Will Weaken Resistance to Chang's Demands.

By the Associated Press. NANKING, Dec. 22.—The wife of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek today is flying to her husband's prison in Sianfu, despite the urgent protests of high officials.

Adding to the feeling that China was faced with a long-drawn fight for the release of the Generalissimo was the fact that Mme. Chiang and her brother, Dr. T. V. Soong, who accompanied her, took quantities of luggage, indicating immediate return to Nanking was unlikely.

Until the last moment before the departure, important leaders attempted to dissuade them from making the trip. It was feared their presence at Sianfu, capital of the revolting province, would weaken the strong resistance the central Government had made to demands of Marshal Chang Hsueh-liang.

Little fear was felt for their safety since the rebellious Marshal seemed to have control of the situation there and had treated Chiang with every respect during the 14 days he had been held prisoner. Rumors of a huge ransom demanded by Chang to release the Generalissimo circulated through the capital, but were emphatically denied. Some of the reports set the sum at $10,000,000 to $15,000,000.

Government officials insisted, however, the situation was not one of money, but was entirely political. Should a ransom be paid by the Chiang and Soong families, Government officials declared, and the Generalissimo released, there still would remain the rebellion against the central authority which would have to be dealt with.

While Mme. Chiang, a graduate of Wellesley College, and Dr. Soong, flew through the heavy fog over the Yangtze River valley, troops of China's central army pressed on against Sianfu.

KANSAS CITY INQUIRY GOES INTO 'UNANIMOUS' VOTE

Calls for Ballots in Two Precincts Where Republican Candidate for Congress Got Nothing.

By the Associated Press. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 22.—The Federal grand jury investigating charges of fraud in the Nov. 3 election here called today for the ballots in two precincts in which a Democratic candidate for Congress received all the votes.

In one of the precincts C. Jasper Bell, Democrat, was credited with 636 votes and Paul Byrum, Republican, 0. The other gave Bell 485 and Byrum 0.

These were the first of 39 precincts from which the jury has asked the ballots.

U. S. District Attorney Milligan said he did not know to what extent the jury would desire to go into the ballots and records but if the jury decided to look into all 39 precincts it might require 10 days or two weeks.

When that work is completed, he said, subpoenas will be issued for persons the jury may desire to question.

CUBAN HOUSE IMPEACHES GOMEZ; TRIAL BY SENATE

Upper Chamber to Hear Charges Against President Thursday — Overrides His Veto of Sugar Tax Bill, 26 to 6.

VOTE IN LOWER BRANCH 111-45

Secret Night Session Accuses Executive of Threatening Advocates of Army's Proposal to Take Over Rural Schools.

By the Associated Press.

HAVANA, Dec. 22.—The House of Representatives voted today to impeach President Miguel Mariano Gomez for vetoing the $1,500,000 sugar tax bill, providing funds for army-taught rural schools.

The vote was 111 to 45, three more than the necessary two-thirds majority.

The Senate, after constituting itself a court of justice, named Senator Jose Ambrosio Casabuenas, a supporter of Gomez, to escort Supreme Court Justice Juan F. Edelman to the chamber. The Chief Justice took an oath to defend the Constitution during his presidency of the senatorial court. The court approved a motion to send a copy of the charges to Gomez and another copy to the three special prosecutors from the House—Carlos Palma, Felipe Jay and Antonio Martinez Vag.

The Senate then adjourned for 24 hours. The recess was declared officially for one day from the time a copy of the charges was delivered to the chief executive. Leaders had said there would be an adjournment until Thursday. During the interim Gomez will prepare his defense.

The House voted at the close of a session which lasted nearly all night. By its action, it showed its support of Col. Fulgencio Batista, army commander and sponsor of the bill.

Gomez, in fighting the bill, asserted he had become convinced its passage might result in education of Cuban children in the "Fascist manner." Batista denied this. Senate Overrides Veto. The impeachment charges, which alleged specifically that Gomez had threatened political reprisals on those who voted against him, were reported immediately to the Senate, which earlier in the night overrode Gomez's veto of the bill, 26 to 6. The House has not yet overridden the veto. A one-vote majority in the Senate is sufficient to oust Gomez.

The impeachment was voted in a secret session of the House, to which none but members was admitted. Even clerks were barred, and the members recorded the proceedings themselves.

In the Senate the fight between the factions of Gomez and his former political ally, Batista, became as bitter as the several members drew pistols during a heated debate between Santiago Verdeja, a Gomez opponent, and two Gomez supporters, Arturo Illas, Senate president, drew his pistol and threatened to kill anyone who fired a shot.

Text of Impeachment.

Following is the text of the impeachment bill:

"Article 1.—Having impeded approval of laws, he not only called some Representatives to demand they vote against such laws, but in some cases threatened them with expulsion from parliamentary committees which he controls, as has happened in cases of Republican Action (Gomez's party) and Liberal parties, producing as the consequence of his disturbance disagreeable occurrences which happened in the session of the House the tenth of this month and which are now public knowledge."

"(It has been charged Gomez told certain members of the Republican Action and Liberal parties to refrain from voting in the Dec. 10 session because he did not want them to participate in certain legislation. "This action of the President not only constitutes violation of the Constitution, but also constitutes a direct offense of constitutional nature by impeding the free function of legislative power."

"Article 2.—Direct coercion against Congress by threatening to veto laws Congress might pass in exercise of its proper prerogatives."

Took Office Last May. When Gomez went into office last May 20 it was understood he had the backing of Batista—the man behind the presidency since Batista's overthrow.

U. S. ACTS TO BAR UPSET OF CREDIT BY GOLD IMPORTS

Treasury to Buy Foreign and Domestic Offerings, Deposit Them in an 'Inactive' Account.

TO USE RECEIPTS OF DISCOUNT BILLS

Plan Is to Remove Lendable Funds When Gold Flows In, Return Them
When It Goes Out.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The Treasury began action today to "freeze" gold inflows on the theory too much foreign capital might upset domestic credit.

The program, announced last night by the Treasury and said to be similar in some respects to that of the British equalization fund, provides for:

1. The purchase of all imported and domestic gold with Treasury receipts from the sale of discount bills.
2. Deposit of future gold acquisitions in an "inactive" Treasury account.
3. The purchase or redemption of outstanding bills by the Treasury when gold flows out.

The plan is intended to remove lendable funds from the money market when gold flows in and returning them back when foreign capital is withdrawn.

Gold imports formerly were paid for by issuance of gold certificates to Federal Reserve banks. This operation had the effect of putting new funds from an outside source into the money market, swelling the reservoir of credit and laying the basis for potential inflation. Conversely, under the old system, gold exports drained away lendable funds, tending to tighten credit. The new system is designed to eliminate both dangers.

With Chairman Marriner S. Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board at his side, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau today announced that President Roosevelt had approved the plan.

By nullifying effects of further gold imports, Eccles said, the Treasury would make it possible for the Reserve Board to deal with credit problems raised by already high excess reserves. These reserves are funds over and above those required to be held against deposits.

Requirements Cut in August.
It was to prevent a "possible injurious credit expansion" that the Reserve Board increased reserve requirements by 50 per cent last August. This action tied up about $1,500,000,000 of lendable funds by requiring that they be held as reserves behind deposits.

By increasing reserve requirements again or by disposing of Government securities, Eccles said, the Reserve Board can handle the present excess reserves. These now aggregate $2,050,000,000 and are expected to increase to about $2,300,000,000 when funds flow back to the banks after the holidays.

"The Treasury action means that further gold imports and acquisitions of newly mined domestic gold no longer will cause excess reserves and that gold movements will cause no repercussions on the domestic credit situation," Eccles said.

In Operation in Few Days.
The plan for creation of machinery within the Treasury aimed at credit control was advanced jointly by Reserve Board and Treasury officials.

Morgenthau said the new scheme would be placed in operation in the next few days. The public will be informed from day to day of the amount of gold in the "inactive accounts" which will reflect total Treasury acquisition of the metal.

Since Jan. 1, 1934, the inflow of foreign capital as measured by gold imports has aggregated $3,321,000,000.

Explanation of Plan.
Here is how the new plan is designed to work, according to Morgenthau and Eccles:

The nation now has a pool of "lendable" funds—more than $2,000,000,000—known as excess bank reserves. When foreign gold at present enters the country, it is, broadly speaking, poured into this pool, because it flows through banking channels into excess reserves.

The administration seeks to keep the pool at a level that will supply ample credit for the nation's business and industrial needs at moderate interest rates and yet not run over into speculative channels. To accomplish this, the new program provides that when foreign money is poured into the credit reservoir through gold imports, the Treasury will dip out an equal amount of other funds.

This will keep the credit supply at a stable level, unaffected by the movement of foreign capital. These movements themselves cannot be directly controlled.

able funds when they are redeemed by the Treasury.
Thus, the new machinery will act as both a drain pipe and a supply channel to the pool of national credit, withdrawing funds when foreign capital is added and pumping them back when foreign capital is withdrawn.

CUBAN HOUSE VOTES TO IMPEACH GOMEZ; SENATE TO TRY HIM

tista's 1933 coup by which he, a sergeant, gained control of the army.
If Gomez is ousted, as seems certain, he would be the first Cuban President to meet such a political fate. His father before him, Gen. Jose Miguel Gomez, held the presidency from 1908 to 1913.

With Gomez removed and barred from Cuban office forever, the presidency would fall on Dr. Federico Laredo Bru, now Vice-President.

Gomez, working most of the night in his office six blocks from the Capitol, made no comment when the impeachment news was reported to him. The House, after the vote, adjourned until 3 p. m. today, when it will consider his veto of the sugar tax bill.

Gomez in his veto message said he opposed the Army's proposal for opening rural schools because the duty belonged to the civil powers. He said the effort to finance the schools through the sugar tax bill was not constitutional.

The bill, he said, "takes away from me and denies to me faculties which the Constitution confers on the President of the Republic and I feel required in defense of the jurisdiction that belongs to me not to give the bill my approbation, which would be equivalent to sanctioning the cutting off of powers delegated to me and not transferable."

He said that he, "as chief of the state, must see that there should not be continued reduction of the orbit of civil administration whose rights and prestige I must maintain."

Gomez said it was "the duty of the education, and not the military institutions" to teach children.

Morgenthau said the new scheme would be placed in operation in the next few days. The public will be informed from day to day of the amount of gold in the "inactive accounts" which will reflect total Treasury acquisition of the metal.

ARMY FLYERS JOIN SEARCH FOR AIRLINER

They Patrol Near Salt Lake City as Other Pilots Move Southward.

By the Associated Press.
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Dec. 22.—Search for a missing Western Air Express plane and its seven occupants, which vanished a week ago today, was shifted 180 miles to the south by private and commercial ships today as army reserve flyers took over aerial patrols here.

Two reserve lieutenants were assigned to a month's active duty at Salt Lake City airport today when Allen Barrie, Western Air's vice-president, said his men were "closing down the Salt Lake end of the hunt."

Since the big transport disappeared on a night flight from Los Angeles, Barrie said, aerial searches had exhausted every clue.

"We have run down every lead in this area without success and we are moving our intensive search to the area between Milford and Delta, 180 miles south of here."

Blizzard Delays Ground Crew on Way to Wrecked Plane.
SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 22.—A blizzard in Mullan Canyon today held up a rescue party seeking the wreckage of a Northwest Airlines plane on yesterday's ridge, south of Kellogg, Idaho. There was fear for the safety of the party.

Reports from Kellogg, base point of the party which started yesterday on snowshoes to the summit of the ridge, where the wreckage of the plane was sighted from the air, said a driving rain had turned into snow and the blizzard was roaring around elevations much lower than 6000-foot Cemetery Ridge.

No hope was held that Pilots Joe Livermore and Arthur M. Hald were alive.

The plane fell Friday. It lay hidden until yesterday when National Guard Lieutenant Byron Cooper of Spokane sighted the wreckage.

INVALID PLUNGES FROM 28TH FLOOR OF DETROIT HOTEL

By the Associated Press.
DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 22.—William S. Sayres, 53 years old, Federal Master in Chancery, was killed when he jumped or fell from the twenty-eighth floor of a downtown hotel shortly after 2 p. m. today.

Sayres, an invalid for several years, left his office in the Federal Building this afternoon in a wheelchair, accompanied by an attendant. He was taken to the hotel where he was assigned to a room assigned to him.

The attendant left him for a few minutes, and returned to find the room empty.

Sayres, a former dean of the Detroit College of Law, was appointed master in chancery for the Federal Court here April 1, 1917. He sat in on cases involving more than $50,000,000, including the sale of the Lincoln Motor Car Co. to Henry Ford for $8,000,000. He was born in Shanghai, China, May 22, 1883, the son of an Episcopal missionary. Sayres suffered from infantile paralysis. He was a bachelor.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—An unidentified woman about 21 years old crawled into a sixth-floor ledge on the Marshall Field & Co. store yesterday and plunged to her death. Her purse contained $12 but no clue to her identity.

PLANE CRASHES; 3 MEN HURT
Only One Badly Injured in Accident on Long Island.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Three army flyers were injured today when their twin-motored Martin bomber crashed near Mitchell Field, Long Island, as they were on the way from Langley Field, Va., to Boston.

The plane cut through high-voltage wires, crippling light and power service for 40,000 residents in the nearby villages of Hempstead and Garden City. The names of the injured men were given by Lieut. Glenn C. Thompson, Corp. Moore and Private Lowmyer. Mitchell Field hospital attaches said Moore apparently was injured internally, but the others suffered only superficial cuts and bruises.

The ship crashed into a glass green house. The owner, August Gebhardt, was eating lunch with his wife, Hedwig, and his brother, George. The three dragged the injured men from the demolished plane.

ARCHITECTS OBJECT TO RAZING OF TOWER

City Hall Cupola Unsafe and There Is No Fund to Rebuild It, Official Replies.

Taking cognizance of citizens' objections to removal of the 80-foot tower over the Twelfth street entrance of City Hall and the cupolas of two smaller adjoining towers, President Baxter L. Brown of the Board of Public Service said today to a Post-Dispatch reporter that razing of these distinctive features of the building was imperative in the interest of public safety. He added that it was found, in the course of reroofing City Hall, that the structural steel frames of the tower and cupolas had corroded.

The corrosion, in the opinion of William C. E. Becker, engineer of bridges and buildings for the city, made these portions of the structure unsafe.

In view of this condition, the officials did not consider repairs feasible, and ordered the contractor now completing a new tile roof for the building to remove the tower and cupolas at a cost of about $500. Wrecking of the tower has been begun.

Brown estimated that cost of rebuilding the tower and cupolas would be $10,000, but he said he had no fund to rebuild the tower and cupolas at a cost of about $500.

Mayor Dickmann said to a Post-Dispatch reporter that he favored rebuilding the tower and cupolas. If the city could find money to devote to the work. However, he was unable to state definitely when the rebuilding would be carried out, saying the question would have to wait determination of the city's means.

It would cost $1,000,000 to put all the city's buildings in the downtown civic center in desirable condition, he asserted, saying proper maintenance of City Hall and the other structures had been neglected for years. He advocated a separate maintenance department for public buildings.

Among those who objected that the removal would spoil the architectural beauty of City Hall and who advocated repair or replacement of the three units were: E. J. Russell, chairman of the City Plan Commission and former president of the American Institute of Architects; P. J. Hoener, president of the St. Louis chapter of the Institute; Benedict Farnar, secretary of the chapter, and Guy Study, chairman of the chapter's Civic Development Committee.

Praise for Design.
They praised the design of City Hall, modeled after the Hotel de Ville of Paris and completed as to exterior in 1898, and called its silhouette, made notable by the three towers, one of its most distinctive elements. Hoener, declaring the entire appearance of the building was influenced strongly by the towers, said the community should insist on preservation of such a civic asset.

Engineer Becker, minimizing the architectural effect of the loss of the tower and cupolas, said the dominating facade of the building now was that on Market street.

FRANCE REDUCES LEGATION AT ADDIS ABABA TO CONSULATE

No Longer a Government There for Minister to Present Credentials To.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Dec. 22.—The Foreign Office announced last night the French legation at Addis Ababa would be reduced to a consulate-general. In reply to reports the decision meant France recognized Ethiopia as an Italian colony, officials declared France merely recognized the fact there no longer was a Government at Addis Ababa to which the French Minister could present his credentials.

London sources said Britain had decided to take the same action as France in relation to its legation at Addis Ababa and that such action had no bearing on formal recognition.

POLISH PARLIAMENT RATIFIES AGREEMENT FOR FRENCH LOANS

Warsaw Government to Take $48,016,000 in Bonds, $46,011,000 in Goods.

By the Associated Press.
WARSAW, Dec. 22.—The Polish Parliament today ratified the French loan agreement under which Poland will receive two loans, one for 1,000,550,000 francs (about $46,016,000) and the other for 1,000,250,000 francs (about $46,011,000).

The first will be delivered in bonds of the French Government and the Gdynia-Silesia Railway. Of the total amount, 850,000,000 francs will be used for armament and the rest for improvement of the railroad. The second loan, to be delivered in goods, will be used entirely by the War Ministry. Both issues bear interest at 6 per cent.

SOVIET WORKERS WANT SHIPS SENT TO SPAIN

Hold Meetings After Reported Sinking of Russian Vessel.

By the Associated Press.
MOSCOW, Dec. 22.—Russian workers in meetings throughout the Soviet Union today demanded that the Government send a squadron of warships to Spanish waters at once to protect shipping, following the reported sinking of the Russian motorship Komsomol.

The Government, however, gave no indication punitive action would be taken.

The workers also suggested that the Soviet navy be reinforced strongly. Several groups pledged one day's salary as a contribution to construct new ships and workers of the Ukraine resolved: "We should construct 10 motorships to increase our assistance to the proletariat of Spain. Sacrifice is our duty now."

The Tass News Agency denied warships had been sent to the region near Gibraltar where the Soviet Government contends the Komsomol was fired and sunk by Fascists a week ago.

Observers said Russia was unlikely to make any overt move but probably would increase its assistance to the Spanish Government.

W. J. BRENNAN GROCERY CO. PLACED IN HANDS OF TRUSTEE

United States District Judge Moore Names L. F. Padberg to Manage Firm.

Lawrence F. Padberg, insurance agent, 3642 Maramec street, was appointed trustee for the William J. Brennan Grocery Co. by United States District Judge George H. Moore today. Directors of the company filed a debtors' petition Nov. 15 for reorganization under the amended bankruptcy law.

At hearings since that time, creditors complained the firm's affairs were in such condition that they were unable to get information about assets and liabilities and asked that a trustee be appointed.

Padberg is a cousin of Circuit Judge Eugene L. Padberg and Corner L. R. Padberg. He was secretary for 12 years of the Missouri Merchants' Association.

The grocery company and two of its officers were named in warrants issued Nov. 10, charging failure to file Missouri sales tax returns. Officers named in the warrants are James H. Brennan, vice-president, and Clarence E. Brennan, secretary. The firm operates stores at 618 Delmar boulevard, 354 Goodfellow boulevard and 200 West Lockwood avenue, Webster Groves.

MEETING URGES
JUDGE PADBERG TO OUST GRAND JURY

Committees to Call on Him and Others on Bench to Press Riverfront Election Inquiry.

'ENOUGH EVIDENCE
IN THREE DAYS'

Paul O. Peters Says in This Time Result Would Be Upset — Dr. Caskey Assails 'Good Thing.'

Committees to call on Circuit Judge Eugene L. Padberg, whose December term grand jury has refused to investigate the riverfront bond issue election of September, 1935, in which wholesale fraud has been shown, and on the Circuit Court Judges in general term were appointed last night at a public protest meeting in the Municipal Auditorium.

Judge Padberg will be asked to discharge the present grand jury and the Circuit Judges will be asked to provide "relief," possibly in the form of a special grand jury specifically charged to investigate the fraud.

A committee will present the matter also to United States District Attorney Harry C. Blanton because Federal funds are to be spent for the riverfront memorial.

The meeting, attended by about 200 men and women, was called by the Citizens' Non-Partisan Committee, whose chairman, Paul O.
Peters, presided.

Enough Evidence in Three Days.
Peters said that a diligent grand jury would, within three days, obtain enough evidence of fraud to upset the result of the bond election. He mentioned 17 precincts with exceptionally lopsided returns recorded as voting 9487 to 200 in favor of the bonds, a ratio of 47
to 1.

In its exposure of fraud in that election the Post-Dispatch showed, last September, that there had been fraud in every one of the 19 wards which gave the bonds the necessary two-thirds majority.

"The only decent thing the members of this grand jury can do," Peters said, "is to resign, and if they don't resign, the only thing left for us to do is to put the heat on them."

So Many Connections.

Peters thought it strange, he said, that among the 600 names on the panel of prospective grand jurors there should be so many of persons directly or indirectly connected with the riverfront memorial proposal. And it was stranger, he said, that among the 12 finally selected for service on the present grand jury there should be so many "who have the connections you have been reading about." As the Post-Dispatch has told, three members of the grand jury have relatives on the city payroll and a fourth member was a Democratic member of the old House of Delegates.

It will be recalled that Mayor Dickmann called a meeting of city employees just before the election and virtually ordered them to carry the election for the bond issue. Gov.
Park personally telephoned to Jimmy Miller, the Fourth Ward boss, and President Igoe of the Police Board, his appointee, and urged them to throw all of their strength behind the bond issue.

Confusion About Issue.

The Rev. Dr. John F. Caskey, pastor of University Methodist Church, said there seemed to be confusion in certain quarters as to just what was the issue before the grand jury. It has been established that the jury refused to undertake the investigation because eight of its members thought the riverfront memorial would be a "good thing" for St. Louis.

"We are not gathered here to discuss the wisdom or folly of a memorial project," Dr. Caskey said.
"It may be wise, or it may be foolish. The thing we are to discuss is whether or not it is ever justified to employ fraud in promoting a project, however meritorious it may be, and whether a grand jury has any right to refuse to investigate violations of the law on the ground that a project would be a 'good thing'."

"Grand juries are not created to determine whether it would be a good thing to build memorials, or open streets, or make civic improvements," Dr. Caskey added.
"The function of a grand jury is to determine whether there has been fraud, whether the law has been violated."

In delivering the invocation, the Rev. John M. Dunlavy, pastor of Hyde Park Congregational Church, said: "We want to be righteous among cities, to have a name above reproach, but we cannot do that as long as men's votes are not counted as they are cast."

persons on registration and election

Dr. A. H. Doellefeld, representing the Carl Schurz unit of the Steuben

Enforcement officers have applied the law in markets generally, with some exceptions. Delicatessen shops are permitted to sell cooked foods and bread as immediate necessaries. Canned goods may not be sold, even though certain canned articles may be eaten without additional preparation. Under a city ordinance, bakers may remain open until 9 o'clock Sunday morning, but many bakers, preferring a holiday to the extra business, do not open their shops. Wholesale bakeries are permitted to make Sunday deliveries, but may not bake. Stores dealing in Kosher foods may remain open, because of the Orthodox Jewish observance of the Sabbath on Saturday.

Taking up a more modern phase, enforcement officers permit filling stations to sell gasoline and oil, but no accessories; automobile repair shops may make emergency repairs, and automobile dealers can display their wares to prospects, but may not fill in a Sunday or order blank.

Candy and flower shops, being more or less exclusive industries, are allowed to do business Sunday.
Drug stores, in addition to dispensing drugs under the specific provisions of the law, may operate soda fountains and sell cosmetics and candy.

ORDER ON KERCKHOFF
CHILDREN MODIFIED

Dairy Head's Second Wife Gets Them Nine Months a Year,
He for Summers.

The protracted litigation between Daniel C. Kerckhoff, president of Pevely Dairy Co., and his divorced wife, Mrs. J. Leslie Flegle of New York, over custody of their two children, was settled by stipulation yesterday after all-day negotiations in the court of Circuit Judge Fred E. Mueller at Clayton.
The agreement modifies that contained in the original decree of divorce, granted last March 13, by permitting Mrs. Flegle to keep the children in New York nine months each year, with Kerckhoff having custody during the summer.

The negotiations, suggested by Judge Mueller, took the place of a hearing which had been set for yesterday on a motion by Mrs.
Flegle to set aside the Court's order, made Nov. 17, requiring her to return the children from New York to jurisdiction of the court at Clayton. Both Kerckhoff and Mrs. Flegle were in court, as was Flegle's chain store executive, who participated actively in the discussion.
The stipulation provides Kerckhoff is to pay Mrs. Flegle $225 a month from Sept. 12 to June 12 and to pay expenses of transportation of the children, Jeanne, 10 years old, and Robert, 8, between New York and St. Louis, monthly, except in the summer months when the children are to be in the custody of the original decree. Payments totaling $900, which Kerckhoff paid into court the last several months, stating he did not know his wife's whereabouts, are to be restored to him.

Kerckhoff also will have custody of the children during the Christmas holidays, beginning this year, from Dec. 26 to Jan. 2. Each parent will have the privilege of visiting them at reasonable times while they are in custody of the other.

The children are to be educated in the schools of the city of New York, or such other institution of similar standing. The school is non-sectarian, supervised by Quakers.
In depositions filed before the hearing yesterday, Alexander Blackburn, principal of the school, and Mrs. Flegle testified that the school was strict and that the school was attended by children of good family. Girls are not permitted, "as far as we can prevent it," to use finger nail polish, lipstick or rouge, they testified.

Mrs. Flegle has resided in New York since her remarriage last July. She received a cash settlement of $130,000 at the time of her divorce. She is the former Alma Menza, and gave up a career as a concert singer when she married Kerckhoff in 1925.

DR. MUENCH DENIED RETRIAL
IN PROCESS SERVER'S SUIT

Circuit Judge Rejects Petition
Based on 1926 Judgment for William F. Pfeiffer.

A motion for a new trial filed by Dr. Ludwig O. Muench in a civil suit in which William F. Pfeiffer, Webster Groves process server, had obtained a judgment against him for $261, was overruled yesterday by Circuit Judge Frank Landwehr.

The judgment was for services performed by Pfeiffer in summoning witnesses to testify in support of the successful plea of Mrs. Nellie Tipton Muench, wife of Dr. Muench, for a change of venue from St.
Louis County for her trial in the Kelley kidnapping case. The case was transferred to Mexico, Mo., where she was acquitted in October, 1935.

The Muenches, Attorney Wilfred
Jones and Mrs. Helen Berroyer, who were convicted last Sunday morning of mail fraud in the Muench baby hoax, are scheduled to be sentenced Saturday morning
by Federal Judge George H. Moore, who presided at their 22-day trial.

DOG LEADS OWNER TO SAFETY
WHEN HOUSE BURNS AT NIGHT

Awakens Master and Guides Him to Stairs in Smoke-Filled Building.

The alertness of his trained 4-year-old shepherd dog, yesterday saved the life of R. F. Haskell of East Alton when the dog awakened his master in a smoke-filled second-floor bedroom and led him down a staircase to safety. Shortly afterwards the entire home was in flames.

"Babkas" awakened his owner
at 8:30 p. m. by barking and striking him with his paws. Choked and blinded by smoke, Haskell, groping for his bedroom door, was led downstairs by the dog after he felt the dog brush against him, and grabbed the dog's ear.

The tenant of the house, G. D.
Mokundro, with whom Haskell resided, managed to lead his wife and children, who were on the first floor, outside, but was unable to warn Haskell because of the thick smoke.

CLOSES EYES IN SLEEP
FIRST TIME IN 16 YEARS

Arkansas Girl After Series of Operations Has New Face; Burned When Baby.

For 16 years Ruth Williams, Eldorado (Ark.) farm girl, was unable to sleep with her eyes closed, as the result of a fall in a pile of hot cinders when she was an infant. Today, after a series of nine operations at Barnes Hospital, she can close her eyes without great effort, and she has a new face.

The burns suffered when she fell in the hot cinders caused the skin on her forehead to contract and prevented her from closing her eyes. In addition, her eyebrows and one lid were destroyed, her forehead and cheeks were badly burned and her nose was pulled out of position.

Now all that has been corrected.
Skin was grafted from her thighs to her cheeks and forehead; her eyebrows and eyelid have been restored with her own hair, and the nose has been moved to its proper position. Miss Williams is pleased with her new face and spends a good deal of time in front of mirrors at her home.

She had never heard of plastic surgery until a science teacher described to her class how surgeons were able to restore noses and ears and repair damaged tissue. Miss Williams asked many questions after the class period was over and then began writing letters to physicians. They referred her to several nationally prominent St. Louis surgeons, who agreed to help her without fee, since her father could not pay.

But there were still hospital and transportation bills to worry about.
An Arkansas utility president and friends solved that problem by advancing the money. In July, 1935, Miss Williams underwent her first operation. The others followed at intervals and the last one took place last September. Oct. 15 the girl went home with a restored face and the ability to look the world in the face, as her chief surgeon put it.

Her mother wrote: "Nobody knows what it means to me to see you making my daughter Ruth into a human being. Every time she has been home we have marveled at what you have done. For 16 years I have watched and grieved over Ruth. Her father and I didn't mind the face, for it was our own child we loved, but it hurt us to the core to see her grow up to hate to look in a mirror and to stay away from people for fear of being stared at."

Miss Williams wrote: "The eyebrows are the pride and joy of my life. The scar seems to be healing nicely. I feel just like spending every hour of my life peeping into a mirror, but it's not vanity, it's just pride and gratitude over the new face you doctors have given me."

The new skin grafted to her forehead raised its height and permitted her to close her eyes, which had formerly been pulled upward and held tight. Only with great effort could she close her eyes before. She slept, but always with her eyes open.

Before she began coming to St.
Louis for treatment, she had been on a train only once in her life.

OLD BREWERY TO BE TORN DOWN TO SAVE TAXES

Property at 1714-16 Cass Avenue
Has Appraised Value of $45,000.

The brick brewery buildings at 1714-16 Cass avenue, built in 1881, will be razed by the present owner,
the Hyde Park Breweries Association, to save taxes and upkeep. This year Hyde Park paid $1184 taxes on an appraised value of $43,000.

First occupied by the old Brink-wirth-Nolken Brewery, the structure later housed the old Lafayette Brewery and interests affiliated with the St. Louis Brewing Association. During prohibition, until 1923, it was used as a bottling plant for near-beer.

The structure, consisting of buildings ranging in height from one to seven stories, contains about 35,000 square feet of floor space, having a frontage of 195 feet on Cass and a depth of 130 feet. It has not been used since 1923.

DETECTIVE KILLS MAN WHO REFUSES TO HALT

Says He Was One of Pair Attempting to Rob Waiter on Sidewalk.

James Williams, 21-year-old Negro, 2321 Carr street, was shot and killed early today by Detective Edward Bolden, a Negro. The detective said Williams was one of two Negroes attempting to rob J. D.
Walton, Negro waiter, 4042 Cote Brilliant avenue, in front of his home.

Bolden, riding in a squad machine with two other Negro detectives, Philip Eldridge and John Griggs, saw the men scuffling on the sidewalk. He reported they heard Walton call for help, saying he was being robbed. Bolden related that he leaped from the machine and fired one shot at Williams as he and his companion fled, ignoring commands to halt. The bullet struck Williams in the back.

Later, another Negro, Leroy Vaughn, 2801 Delmar boulevard, who had served three Workhouse terms for larceny, according to police records, surrendered at the Deer Street Station, saying he was Williams' companion. He denied the charge of attempting to rob Walton, and brought two Negro women with him to support his story that he and Williams had interceded when Walton and the women quarreled. Police said the women, under questioning, said the story was false and that they had not been present.

ONE WOMAN AND 13 MEN ENROLLED AS LAWYERS

Group Formally Presented to Presiding Judge McAfee in Circuit Court.

Fourteen new attorneys were enrolled in Circuit Court yesterday to practice law. They were formally presented to Presiding Judge J. Wesley McAfee, who ordered their enrollment after addresses had been made by Lawrence Mc-Daniel, representing the Lawyers' Association, and George L. Stemmer, for the Bar Association of St.
Louis.

The new lawyers include one woman and 13 men, as follows:
Miss Mildred R. Margulis, Rudolph
F. Lhotak, George A. Woodruff,
Charles Ellis Thompson, Vincent J.
Correnti, Frank J. Obermeier,
Frank W. Swann Jr., Harold A.
Sigmam, Walter Herman Rohlfing,
Arthur E. McLeod, Burney I.
Thompson, Arthur J. J. Bohn, Edward O'Neill Jr., and William H.
Phipps Jr.

PACIFIC SAILORS DELAY VOTE ON PEACE TERMS

Union Head Says He May Visit Various Ports to Explain Proposals.

By the Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—Harry Lundberg, head of the Sailors' Union of the Pacific, today said a membership vote on a tentative peace terms with ship owners may be deferred indefinitely. It had been expected last night. Lundberg came from a membership meeting here to announce the voting would be coastwise on printed ballots at a date to be announced instead of at meetings of port locals. The sailors' leader, who has endorsed the proposed settlement, said he may visit the various ports and explain its terms.

The tentative agreement between sailors and offshore shippers provides for a $10 monthly wage increase for able seamen who formerly received $62.50; union recognition; preferential hiring; and establishment of port committees to handle disputes. Employers would have the right to reject men they consider unsatisfactory. If any resultant dispute could not be settled by the port committee of three employer and three union representatives, the matter would be referred to a referee appointed by a board of four independent parties. Two of the four would be union choices, two employers'.

Harry Bridges, coast president of the longshoremen, resumed his place on the Policy Committee representing seven striking unions after visiting Eastern ports. A statement issued at Seattle by the Northwest Joint Strike Committee, said:

"The Strike Committee is not being fooled by the sudden willingness of the ship owners to negotiate while Harry Bridges is in the East

First Perishable Food in Weeks Received at Anchorage, Alaska.

By the Associated Press.
ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Dec. 22.—The first shipment of perishable foods received here in almost two months went on sale today—turkey, celery and other holiday delicacies among them.

Airplanes carried the food to this strike-bound city, along with Christmas packages, from Cordova, where an emergency-chartered ship unloaded them. The maritime strike cut off the normal trade.

COWBOYS TO USE AIRPLANE IN WILD HORSE ROUNDUP

Animals Will Be Driven Until Tired and Then Trapped in Corrals.

By the Associated Press.
TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Dec. 22.—Flying cowboys will conduct an aerial roundup of one of the largest remaining herds of wild horses. The animals will be harried by plane until they are so tired they can be trapped in corrals.

Government estimates place their number at between 3000 and 3500. They roam the canyons south of Twin Falls, through the Goose Creek Mountains into the remote Gollier Mountain district west of Ely, Nev.

The pilot, with cowboys as observers, will fly over the bands and herd them toward corrals. Men on horseback will undertake to steer the wild animals into captivity.

Many of them, when caught, refuse to eat. Some of the better horses will be sold for $40 or more each, but the majority, selling at about 1 1/2 cents a pound, will be converted into chicken and dog food.

Descendants of Indian ponies and strays from pioneer-day wagon trains, the wild herds each year draw recruits from domestic stock.

He'll like Schick because it's easy to use. He runs it over his face and he's shaved. He likes it because it makes his skin smooth as velvet. He likes it because it requires no bother with blades, shaving soap, or brush. And no matter how much of a rush he's in he cannot cut himself. Whiskers are okay for Santa Claus... but today's smart, well-groomed man wants none of them. So choose a Schick.

LEAD AND ZINC MINERS GET SECOND PAY RISE

Advance Affects Workers in Miami-Joplin Area—Other Increases, Bonuses.

By the Associated Press.
MIAMI, Ok., Dec. 22.—The second wage increase during the last five weeks was announced yesterday by the large lead and zinc mining companies operating in the tri-state field. The increase will affect 4000 workers of the Commerce Mining and Royalty Co., Miami; the Eagle-Picher Mining and Smelting Co., Joplin; and other major concerns.
All laborers except shovelers will receive an increase of 24 cents a day, the same as the November increase. Shovelers, who are piece workers, were advanced a half-cent per car of ore loaded, to 11 cents a car.
The scale now ranges from $4.30 a day for machine men to $8.55 a day for common labor.

SANDUSKY, O., Dec. 22.—Sidney Frohman, president of the Hinde & Dauch Paper Co., has announced payment of $50,000 in "employees' service dividends" to 2700 workers in the concern's plants. The bonus was based, he said, on length of service, with checks ranging from $5 to $30.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 22.—C.
O. Wanvig, president, has announced that Globe-Union, Inc., will pay a bonus to its 1800 employees in eight factories. The concern manufactures batteries, spark plugs, radio parts and roller skates.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Loose-Wiles Biscuit Co. will pay employees who have been in service one year or longer a bonus equal to one week's pay, while those in the service for six months or more will receive $10. About 10,000 workers are affected.

Seagram-Distillers Corporation has paid a bonus to members of the sales staff ranging from one week's pay to 10 per cent of the annual salary, according to length of service.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Dec.
22.—The Interwoven Stocking Co. announced today the payment of "additional compensation" to 2000 factory workers and office employees. The extra payment, amounting to two weeks' pay for employees with the company Feb. 1 and before and a less amount for those employed since that date, was made yesterday.

TAUNTON, Mass., Dec. 22.—The Reed & Barton Silvers Co. announced a 7 1/2 per cent wage increase today for its 600 employees, effective Jan. 4. The company also announced establishment of a 40-hour work week and time and one-half pay for overtime.

DALTON, Mass., Dec. 22.—More than 1000 employees of paper mills here will benefit by 5 per cent wage increases, officials said today. Crane & Co. announced a wage boost, effective Dec. 20. The Byron Weston Co. announced hourly wage rate increases of 5 per cent, effective Dec.
21. The Crane payroll will be increased $35,000 and the Byron Weston $12,000.

UNDER LIFE SENTENCE, INDICTED ON 24 COUNTS

Harry Brunette Accused in Cases Involving Possible Penalty of 240 Years.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Brought here under heavy guard from the Lewisburg (Pa.) penitentiary, where he was starting to serve a life sentence for kidnaping, on his plea of guilty, Harry Brunette, 34 years old, was indicted by the Federal grand jury today on 24 additional counts carrying a possible penalty
of 240 years.

Brunette was captured in New York last Tuesday after a pistol and machine gun fight with Federal agents led by J. Edgar Hoover. Under Federal law he would have been eligible for parole after 15 years on the life sentence.

The new indictment, Federal agents said, means that Brunette will, if convicted, have to serve at least an additional 25 years—making a total of 40 years—even if he should be paroled on the life sentence.

The grand jury indicted Brunette on 12 new counts—using a Federal officer for each count—unlawful assault with an illegal weapon, and on 12 more charges for "opposing, impeding and intimidating Federal officers in pursuit of their duties." Brunette pleaded not guilty to the additional crimes charged.
He was ordered held in jail here for a further hearing tomorrow.

UTILITY SUES AGAIN TO BLOCK CITY LIGHT PLANT AT TRENTON

Missouri Public Service Commission Seeks Work Against PWA Financing.

By the Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 22.—
The Missouri Public Service Commission today filed in Federal Court against the City of Trenton, Mo., and Fairbanks Morse & Co. of Chicago, to prevent construction of a municipal electric plant at Trenton with $15,000 of PWA funds.

The petition asks that the defendants be enjoined from proceeding with the construction contract and that the city be enjoined from selling bonds to the Public Works Administration.

In March, 1935, Federal Judge Merrill E. Otis ruled against the company in a previous attempt to block the municipal plant. Judge Otis held the PWA loan and grant were constitutional.

ARGUMENTS MADE IN SUIT AGAINST GROVE ESTATES

J. A. Reed, Counsel for David E.
Kahn, in First Address to Jury.

Arguments in the $1,840,000 suit of David E. Kahn against the estates of Edwin W. Grove and E. W.
Grove Jr. were made to the jury in Federal Judge Charles E. Davis court today, eighth day of the hearing. Kahn's attorney, former United States Senator James A. Reed, made the first argument. Defense counsel active in the case are E. C.
Hartman and Everett Paul Griffin, representing the St. Louis Union Trust Co. in its capacity of trustee for the estates of the younger and the elder Grove, respectively.

Reed yesterday cross-examined the trust company's chairman of the trust, regarding his verbal commitments with Kahn, as to the compensation Kahn was to receive for negotiating sale of the Paris Medicine Co. of St. Louis, owned by the Grove interests, to Zonite Products Corporation of New York for $22,000,000. The sale was not finally effected.
Orr's version of the matter dif-

ferred materially from the testimony of Kahn, who alleged a commitment of E. W. Grove Jr. and Orr to a 4 per cent commission, amounting to $840,000, and a $1,000,
000 contingent expense allowance.
Orr said he insisted that Kahn's compensation should be paid by Grove from the proceeds of the sale of royalties, and that it should come out of the $1,000,000 fund.
Kahn's claim has been assigned to his wife, Mrs. Lucille P. Kahn of Scarsdale, N. Y., but Mrs. Kahn, nominal plaintiff, has not been present at the trial.

BLIND BUT DETECTS FAKE COIN

Street Peddler Turns Over Counterfeit to Federal Agent.

A counterfeit 25-cent piece was turned over to Raymond A. Horton, chief of the local secret service bureau, by a blind street peddler yesterday.

The peddler, Leonard Bittner, 319 Market street, said that while counting his money he readily detected the spurious coin through his sense of touch. Coins molded from base metals give an impression of "sickness," he said, in contrast to the well-defined impression made on silver coins by stamping. Bittner said he thought he had received the coin while selling notions in a North St. Louis tavern.

1000 CAROLERS TO SING DOWNTOWN TOMORROW

Beginning of Five-Day Festival
Sponsored by Christmas Association.

Christmas carols will be sung in downtown department stores, hotels and restaurants at noon tomorrow and Thursday by more than 1000 persons. The observance is part of a five-day festival of Christmas singing sponsored by the St. Louis Christmas Carols Association.

The program began Sunday and will be brought to a close Christmas eve when 20,000 carolers are expected to sing in the residential sections of the city and county.

Most of the downtown singers will appear in costumes, the traditional red and green capes and smocks. Many will have musical accompaniment and will give programs of other music in addition to the carols. The singing program is directed by Mrs. J. Archer O'Reilly.

Each group will be accompanied by hostesses who will collect voluntary offerings for the benefit of needy children. The association has appealed for general support of the program. Mrs. Ralph L. Thompson and Mrs. Eugene S. Klein are in charge of hostesses and collectors.

Carolers from Sacred Heart Academy will sing at Union Station at noon tomorrow, and Cleveland High School singers will be there between 4 and 6 p. m. Thursday. Blewett and St. Alphonsus High Schools will send carolers from the station. Bus travelers at Union Market will hear carolers from Soldan High School on Thursday.

A program of Christmas carols, sponsored by the Federal Music Project, will be given Thursday, Christmas eve, from 2:30 to 4 p. m. on the Memorial Plaza across from City Hall. Mayor Dickmann will preside at the concert in which members of the St. Louis Christmas Carols Association and local WPA orchestra will participate.

NOLTE GIVES HIS SIDE OF ROW WITH UNION

Motion Picture Operators Object to City Engineer Running Machine.

Comptroller Nolte issued a statement yesterday, defending his policy of employing Charles Spencer, an engineer in his office, as operator of a city-owned motion picture projector machine at city institutions, which has been criticised by Motion Picture Operators' Local No. 145.

The matter has been in controversy between the operators' union for several years, the union contending that union operators should be employed to operate the projector, and pointing out that, prior to the employment of Spencer in this capacity, the union furnished operators for entertainments at city institutions without cost to the city.

Nolte declared that the employment of Spencer had been arranged with full knowledge of the union, and that the union had declined to permit Spencer to join the organization, chiefly because Spencer's salary of $230 a month was $110 less than the union scale for full-time operators. He also said that last year the union insisted on Spencer's removal as operator and asked that he be replaced by two union operators. This arrangement, Nolte pointed out, would have increased the cost to the city of operating the projector, since the two union operators would have received higher salaries than Spencer and it would have been necessary to hire a chauffeur to drive the truck containing the machine, now driven by Spencer.

"HOMESICK" FOR PRISON

Man Seeks to Spend Christmas in Old Cell; Tries to Break In.

By the Associated Press.
JOLIET, Ill., Dec. 22.—When Warden Joseph Ragen wouldn't let 80-year-old Mike Murphy back in his old cell yesterday to spend Christmas, the former convict threatened to break a window and break into prison again, whereupon Ragen called the Sheriff and gave Murphy a ride out of town as an undesirable character. Murphy, paroled in September after serving 17 years for burglary, said he was homesick.

Inmates of the State prisons here will dine on chicken Christmas day and top off the holiday repast with cigars. Warden Ragen said each prisoner will get a quarter of a chicken, potatoes, gravy, peas or corn, coffee, ginger bread, an apple and a cigar. The men will spend Christmas day at their leisure when not at dinner or chapel services.

GLASS WORKERS ON STRIKE

Work of United Automobile Employes Stopped at Anderson, Ind.

By the Associated Press.
ANDERSON, Ind., Dec. 22.—A strike called by a local unit of the United Automobile Workers of America resulted today in suspension of operations at the plant of the Lynch Glass Corporation, manufacturer of glass making machinery. The plant normally employs about 200 men.

Spokesmen for the strikers said union recognition and wage increases had been demanded of the corporation. The Delco-Remy plant and the Guide Lamp Co. factory, both General Motors subsidiaries, were operating today.

EIGHT CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH IN TWO HOMES

Five Perish in Fire at Ottawa, Ont., Others Lose Their Lives at Glassboro, N. J.

By the Associated Press.
OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 22.—(Canadian Press).—Five children were burned to death today when fire destroyed their home. Mr. and Mrs. Adelaide Giroux, the parents, and two other children escaped the flames by leaping from a second story window.

The father carried a 2-year-old child in his arms when he jumped to safety. The dead children are, Romeo, 17 years old; Cecile, 11; Therese, 10; Marquerite, 8, and Jeanette, 5.

GLASSBORO, N. J., Dec. 22.—Three small children of Mrs. Ethel Williams burned to death in their farm home yesterday while their mother was at a grocery. The children were Edna, 4 years old; David, 2, and Laura, 7 months. The victims were Negroes.

Miss Hilda Kohn Dies.
Miss Hilda Kohn, who was graduated in June, 1935, from Washington University as an honor student, died of a kidney ailment at Jewish Hospital today. She was 22 years old and resided at 5451 Vernon avenue. She was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, scholastic honorary society. Miss Kohn received the degree of bachelor of arts at Washington. Recently she taught school at Valmeyer, Ill. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kohn, two sisters and three brothers.

STORIES OF LEOPARD CULT TERRIFY LIBERIA

Reports of Frequent Killings Continue to Circulate Despite Government's Denials.

By the Associated Press.

CAPE MOUNT, Liberia, Dec. 22.—Terrifying stories of murder by Liberia's leopard societies are circulating in this part of the country, despite repeated denials by the Government.

It is said here that killings have taken place regularly in the last six months and the campaign is said to be the worst in 50 years.

The "leopard men" are said to have entered houses and carried off children to be murdered, and have stolen or killed cows and other livestock. On several occasions the "leoparders" have been observed to have feet like men and to have left human tracks, although they were dressed in leopard skins and walked on all-fours, so it is said.

A long iron hook, sharpened like a leopard's claw is attached to each hand, and these sharp tools are used in attacking their victims.

The Liberian Patriot, newspaper at Monrovia, recently published a half-page plea to the Government to take action to end the ancient cult, but soldiers sent from Monrovia reported on return that they had found no sign of the "leopard men."

No sooner had they returned to the capital, reports here say, than the campaign was resumed—men, women and children being clawed, carried away and murdered.

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH
ST. LOUIS COAL-WASHING BILL
City Council Says Measure Would Throw 10,000 Men Out of Work.

The Belleville City Council last night adopted a communication, addressed to Mayor Dickmann and the St. Louis Board of Aldermen, requesting modification of the proposed ordinance which provides for the washing of low-grade coal as a smoke reduction measure. The communication was sent to Mayor Dickmann today.

Adoption of the ordinance in its present form, the communication said, would deprive 8,000 miners and 100 truckers of their jobs, would reduce Municipal Bridge revenue, cause small manufacturers to leave St. Louis, would deprive poor people of cheap fuel, and tend to destroy the "good neighbor" spirit in trade which now exists between St. Clair and Madison counties and St. Louis.

Mayor George Remmsmider of Belleville signed the communication with members of the Council.

SHERIFF-ELECT FITZSIMMONS
SAYS CHANGES WILL BE FEW

Asserts There Will Be No Drastic Shifts of Personnel When He Takes Office.

Sheriff-elect James J. Fitzsimmons, who has at his disposal a patronage of about 80 deputies' jobs, told the Post-Dispatch today he would make no drastic shifts in key positions and would have no more than 20 new appointments altogether to submit to Circuit Judges for their approval next Monday.

Now chief deputy sheriff in criminal divisions of Circuit Court, Fitzsimmons said he would name as his successor the sheriff's clerk in criminal divisions, Charles Winters, and would reappoint Alphonse A. Gulon, chief deputy in civil divisions. In the civil divisions, he added, he would retain Anton Klein and Walter Miller, in charge of executions of judgments.

A new appointment, he went on, would be that of Albert J. McGroarty, 3919A Sullivan avenue, as cashier, a position paying a monthly salary of $215. McGroarty will succeed Charles Tully, who will take a similar position in the Public Administrator's office, going along with Sheriff Thomas R. Madison, who was elected Public Administrator.

Fitzsimmons will take office as Sheriff Jan. 1.

NAZIS MODERATING ANTI-CHRISTIAN DRIVE

For First Time, Detectives Stay Away From Protestant Confessional Synod.

By the Associated Press.
BERLIN, Dec. 22.—Adolf Hitler's orders that Nazi authorities stop speaking or writing against Christian symbols, customs and institutions, showed their first positive result last night. Members of the Protestant (opposition) Confessional Synod, returning to Berlin from a four-day session at Breslau, said that for the first time since their movement was founded there were no plainclothes police in attendance. The conference, they said, went forward without interruption by authorities.

Der Fuehrer's order of last week was prompted by the deep concern of church people of all faiths over a number of utterances by leading Nazis, including Julius Streicher, which many interpreted as a denial of Christianity. Churchmen and laymen alike were wondering today whether Streicher and the others would tone down their expressions.

Result of Farmers' Protest.
Farmers in the small State of Oldenburg were credited with obtaining the Fuehrer's order. Their protests against removal of crucifixes from schools and hospitals received the attention of the Rev. William Zoellner, Nazi Protestant church "unifier."

But as early as last October, Streicher, the anti-Jewish Governor of Franconia, openly declared he was anxious for all his "co-fighters" to leave the church.

In an address at the Herkules Saalbau in Nurnberg, he said: "After the salvation of the German people there will come the salvation through Adolf Hitler, of other sick people who cannot save themselves. People don't need the Ten Commandments. To a decent man you needn't say: 'Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not commit adultery,' etc."

One Nazi Leader's Comment.
A little earlier, in one of the new castles erected as training schools for Nazi leaders, "SS" (Schutz Staff) Leader Schulz of Pomerania observed: "I don't want to be guilty of blasphemy, but I ask you who was greater, Christ or Hitler? Christ at the time of His death had 12 disciples, who weren't even completely faithful to Him. Hitler today has a people of 70,000,000 behind him."

"We cannot submit to having differences existing alongside of us which breathe a different spirit from ours. Hence National Socialism claims in all earnestness: 'I am the Lord thy God; thou shalt have no other gods beside Me.'"

At the same meeting another leader named Kremer asserted: "Christianity is the only enemy of National Socialism and of its constructive work among our people."

Teacher Causes Protest.
Even more outspoken was a teacher in a public school of the Berlin suburb of Dahlem, who told his class: "Jesus Christ was a scoundrel of a Jew fellow (Judenheumel) who tried even in Gethsemane to renge."

This utterance aroused such protest among the parents of the district that the teacher was transferred to another district.

Further uneasiness was caused by an order of the Reichminister for Education and Kultur, Dr. Bernhard Rust, who decreed that any theological student having anything to do with the confessional movement or its organizations would be expelled from the university. The confessionals make up the group of evangelical fundamentalists led by the former submarine commander, the Rev. Marin Niemoller, of Berlin.

In Saxony, a district school superintendent not long ago ordered the removal of the Old Testament from all schools under his jurisdiction and urged the teachers to use Streicher's violent anti-Jew newspaper, to convince the children "that the Jews today are just as mean and despicable as they were 2000 and 4000 years ago."

Mud Sweeps Valley Near Copper Mine; 30 Persons Killed or Injured.

By the Associated Press.
TOKIO, Dec. 22.—The newspaper Asahi in a dispatch from Oosarusawa, Akita Prefecture, says more than 30 persons were killed or injured in the collapse of two new dams replacing one destroyed Nov. 20.

The dispatch says the dams collapsed under the pressure of fresh rain and snowfalls. Mud, containing poisonous solutions from a copper mine higher up, swept down the valley.

In the Nov. 20 disaster at Oosarusawa searchers recovered 250 bodies and reported 1000 persons were missing. Five hundred homes were destroyed.

FALLS DEAD OF HEART ATTACK

John Catlin Was Supervisor of Newsboys at Globe-Democrat.

John Catlin, 49 years old, circulation supervisor employed by the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, fell dead at 6 p. m. yesterday, apparently as the result of a heart attack, in a ground-floor office in the Globe-Democrat building. A few minutes before he and another employee had pushed a stalled automobile to start it.

Catlin, a bachelor who lived at 712 Clara avenue, had worked intermittently for the paper for 25 years and for the past 15 years had been supervisor of newsboys in the downtown district.

Action Filed by Major Oil Firms on Trade Practices Inquiry.

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 22.—Counsel for major oil companies asked United States District Court yesterday to deny a grand jury the use of Government records on which a previous grand jury based charges that the companies conspired to fix gasoline prices.

The records were collected in a Federal investigation of the oil industry, in progress since last May. The first grand jury returned two blanket indictments against 25 companies and 60 of their executives.

After counsel for the defendants challenged the validity of the indictments, a new grand jury was summoned. The defense plea was that the original jury was not drawn as required by the criminal code.

CENTURY'S SCIENTISTS ANSWER AMERICA'S APPEAL FOR A TRULY FINE WHISKEY

Even the choicest of grains must pass exacting tests in Century's laboratory, where scientific accuracy has replaced rule of thumb methods.

Quality is measured in CENTURY CLUB

The key to Century Club's kindly disposition is the exclusive Century Degerminating Process that reduces fusel-oils to a minimum. But back of this process are Century's skilled scientists who measure with painstaking accuracy every factor, every step, every material that enters the distilling process. Century Club comes to you a clean, wholesome and fully matured whiskey, as fine as modern skill can produce. Buy it, smell it, taste it - you can KNOW Century Club quality.

ROOSEVELT DEPICTED AS 'GREATER ZIEGFELD'

Gridiron Club Satirizes Four Presidential Candidates at Washington Dinner.

Post-Dispatch Bureau, 201-205 Kellogg Building. WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—With the ranking guests President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Gov. Alf M. Landon, Norman Thomas and Earl Browder, the Gridiron Club, composed of Washington correspondents, at a dinner last night gave its version of recent political history in a series of musical and satirical skits ranging from a triumphal inaugural ceremony in the fashion of ancient Rome to a scene showing life in a luxurious Social Security home in 1938, when President Roosevelt, then serving his ninth term, looks forward with increasing confidence to the blessed day when he will succeed in balancing the budget.

Both President Roosevelt and Gov. Landon spoke briefly in light, ironical vein, but in accordance with gridiron tradition on these speeches were not reported.

In keeping with the Yuletide friendship shown by the four presidential candidates, the 400 guests included such diverse personalities as Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes and Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace; William Green and John L. Lewis; Postmaster-General, Democratic National Chairman James A. Farley and Republican Chairman John D. M. Hamilton; Representative Sam Rayburn of Texas and Representative John J. O'Connor of New York, rivals for the House majority leadership; and E. W. Administrator Harry L. Hopkins and Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia.

St. Louis guests were Tom K. Smith, president of the American Bankers' Association; John G. Lonsdale, Talton T. Francis, Sterling Edmunds, Walter W. Head, Stewart McDonald and Charles G. Ross of the Post-Dispatch, a former president of the Gridiron Club.

Unhindered by the usual limitations of time and space, the political writers transported their guests to the Russian steppes, where To-varish Stalin, seated in his home at Hyde Parksky-on-the-Volga, was discovered receiving the election returns with delight and amazement, surrounded by his friends Ickesovitch, Hopinsky and Morgenthau.

Then, in a quick change, the guests found themselves gazing at a sad spectacle in the Ozark States, where a group of Hill Billies stood dismally before a sunflower draped cabin, discussing the funeral arrangements for the Republican party, only to be saved in the nick of time by arrival of the Separators from Maine and Vermont.

Autopsy on G. O. P. The guests were shown a morgue where an autopsy was being performed on the G. O. P. Somewhat perturbed to discover—after a touch of Lemke had been removed from his J. David Sternum—that there was life in the old boy yet, they moved on to the catacombs where they found the ghosts of the famous blithering prophets seeking to elect a President of the Prophet's Union. Jim Farley, leading applicant for the job, was brusquely rejected on the grounds that he wasn't a prophet. All he did, the legendary prophets agreed, was to count the names on the Federal payroll.

Later the stage at the Willard Hotel, the scene of the dinner, was transformed into the stage of the New York Winter Garden Theater, for the Gridiron Club's version of the Greater Ziegfeld, a glorified revue in which the working class elect the silverites, the Rose Bowl contenders, the lovely ladies of the tournament of roses, the Negro voters and the advocates of world peace paid glowing tribute to the greatest showman of them all, not Florenz Ziegfeld, but Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The musical parodies gave the Gridiron singers an opportunity to recount in verse some of the amusing incidents of the last campaign. In this skit a member impersonating former President Herbert Hoover entered with stately and funeral tread. He wore a top hat, white, tie, tails, white gloves and a boutonniere, and would have been the picture of sartorial perfection had it not been that he had lost his pants somewhere.

"Credit" for the Production. To balance the jibes at the Republicans, the master of ceremonies, in giving credit for production of "The Greater Ziegfeld," said: "Scenery by Edward Bellamy, author of 'Looking Backward'; incidental sound effects by the Chicago Tribune, author of 'Looking Backward'; Varnishing by the United States Chamber of Commerce, author of 'Looking Backward'; and illusions by the New York Stock Exchange, author of 'Don't Look Now'."

The entire expense is borne," he continued, "by the American taxpayer, and the author of the libretto is none other than Franklin D. Roosevelt."

The skit ended with the Marine Corps band swinging into the strain of "My Rambler Rose," which a Follies girl sang: My Rambler Roosevelt, He rambles here and there, He rambles everywhere, My Rambler Roosevelt, He's always passing by, On land, or sea, or sky, And when the news-reels unfurl, His rambling keeps my poor brain in a whirl, We call him Our Rambler Roosevelt.

But where he's rambling to, Nobody knows! The remarks of President Roosevelt, in which he commented on some of the skits, concluded the dinner.

KILLED WHEN AUTO UPSETS IN COUNTY

Frank Polito, 25, Loses Life and Three Companions Are Injured.

Frank Polito, 25 years old, 2621
Hickory street, was killed at 2:45
a. m. today when an automobile in which he was riding left Manchester road just west of Baxter road, overturned and smashed into a tree.

The driver of the car, Edgar Vaughan, an automobile trimmer, 2610 Lafayette avenue, suffered a skull injury and was taken to County Hospital after treatment at County Hospital. He had purchased the car just 10 days ago.

Two other passengers were injured. They were Robert Clark, a bartender, 5813 Hamilton avenue, who suffered a skull injury, and Earl Carter, also a bartender, 200
Missouri avenue, East St. Louis, who was cut and bruised. They were taken to Deaconess Hospital.
Manchester road angles to the north at the point where the accident occurred, but Vaughan, after turning north, failed to straighten the car's wheels, and it went off the road.

A wrecking truck was required to extricate the men from the car.
Vaughan was sentenced to a year in the Workhouse in April, 1934, on charge of larceny of the person growing out of a $298 holdup. He told detectives that he and the others were returning from Jefferson City where they had gone to visit a friend in the penitentiary. The car skidded, he said.

ILLINOIS G. O. P. STATE COMMITTEE HEAD DIES

Perry B. McCullough of Lawrenceville Was Ill Only Three Days.

By the Associated Press.
LAWRENCEVILLE, Ill., Dec. 22.—
Perry B. McCullough, 60 years old, serving his second term as chairman of Illinois Republican State Central Committee, died early today of encephalitis.

Dr. V. M. Bryan, his physician, said the illness, an inflammation of the brain, was "agitated, if not brought on, by the strain of the recent campaign, which lowered his resistance."

McCullough had been ill only three days. His condition became serious Sunday and death occurred at 12:40 a. m. today.

Elected to his first two-year term as head of the party committee in 1928 during the Hoover campaign, McCullough was chosen again last April. He had been a member of the committee since 1922.

WAITERS AND COOKS STRIKE

Hotel Dining Rooms Turned Into Cafeterias at Rochester, N. Y.
ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 22.—
A strike of waiters and cooks in the larger downtown hotels and restaurants converted the dining rooms into self-help cafeterias today. Nonunion waitresses were hired by some hotels.

Operators of 32 of the 60 eating places have signed contracts, union leaders said. Some others, they reported, were willing to pay the union scale but balked at written contracts and closed shop.

SANTA FE DEAL AUTHORIZED

I. C. C. Approves Acquisition of Two Roads for Debt.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The Interstate Commerce Commission authorized the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad today to acquire control of the Pecos & Northern Texas Railway Co. and the Pecos River Railroad Co.

The stock will be purchased from the Eastern Railway Co. of New Mexico in consideration of cancellation of that company's debt of $7,465,000 to the Santa Fe.

RECLUSE'S WILL RULED OUT

Chicago Court Bars Bequest Written on Wrapping Paper.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—One of several purported wills left by James P. Kelly, West Side recluse, was ruled out yesterday by Probate Judge John F. O'Connell. This will, leaving $140,000 to a cousin, Bertha Morgan of Shattuck, Ill., was written on brown wrapping paper. It was filed with the court by a law firm which said it had received it in an anonymous communication.

Kelly died in a lodging house two years ago. Search of his belongings disclosed assets of about $140,000.

Brooklyn Bus Strike Held Up

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Plans for a strike of 600 Brooklyn bus drivers were halted last night pending investigation by the National Labor Relations Board into its juisdiction in a dispute between the drivers and the Brooklyn bus company. John J. Sullivan, representative of the Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railway & Motor Coach Operators of America, said: "As long as the Government is taking action and apparently is trying to do right by the discharged employees, we are not going ahead with any further plans."

Official's Daughter Missing

PINEVILLE, Ky., Dec. 22.—Bell County Auditor J. H. Lee asked police today to assist in a search for his missing daughter, Vivian Lee, 17 years old, former University of Kentucky student. Miss Lee disappeared after attending a party at the Bell County High School last Friday night. A younger sister, Aloah, told of seeing the girl apparently being pulled into a tan roadster.

WOMAN IN JAIL THREE YEARS FOR CONTEMPT

Mrs. Daisy Tegtmeyer Refuses to Tell What She Did With Estate.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—Mrs. Daisy Tegtmeyer, 52 years old, has kept a secret three and a half years, and has been in jail that long for no other reason.

A Circuit Court judge remarked:
"She is her own lookout keeper."
She answered: "If necessary, I'll stay here until death."

She was sentenced in July 1933 for contempt of court because she refused to tell what disposition was made of part of a $30,000 estate.

She had had hearing before nine judges. Each time she has gone back to her cell because of her refusal to talk.

Mrs. Tegtmeyer became involved in litigation when relatives of her husband, Edward, appeared after his death and demanded to know what she had done with $5000 of the estate of her father-in-law,
Henry Tegtmeyer of Des Moines, Ia. They said the money had been entrusted to her husband to be divided among Henry Tegtmeyer's heirs.

Then they discovered Edward Tegtmeyer through investments.

had increased the original $5000 to about $30,000. Attorney George L. Wire, representing the relatives, filed suit for their share of the profits. After several years of litigation Judge Hugo Friend ordered Mrs. Tegtmeyer to make an accounting or go to jail. She went to jail. She contended the money was hers and what she did with it was nobody's business.

Between November, 1933, and July, 1936, six attempts were made to free her.

BOY ADMITS KILLING FATHER
 He Says Shooting of Parent Was in Self-Defense.
 By the Associated Press.
 COUDERSPORT, Pa., Dec. 22.—Lawrence Causier, 17 years old, admitted shooting his father to death in a scuffle for possession of a shot gun, according to Coroner W. R. Shaw.
 The Coroner announced last night Causier pleaded self-defense and told this story: On Saturday night his father came home intoxicated and his mother, himself and 11 other children moved to the house of a neighbor. Returning the next day to milk cows, the youth, carrying a shotgun, met his father, Orin Causier, who attempted to take the gun from him. The boy is being held pending an inquest.

WAREHOUSE WRECKED BY $18,000 FIRE
 175,000 Pounds of Cotton Waste Destroyed in Four-Story Building.
 Fire discovered shortly before 9 o'clock last night in the four-story brick warehouse of the E. R. O'Donnell Mercantile Co., 103 North First street, which contained about 175,000 pounds of cotton waste, wrecked the interior of the building, causing damage estimated at $18,500. It was still smoldering at dawn today.
 As a hose tower was being braced on a fire department truck on the east side of First street opposite the burning building the truck slipped on the icy pavement and settled against the curb, causing the tower to topple against the building of the Helman Bros. Co., 104 North First, and break through a second-floor window. Damage to that building was estimated at $50.
 Fire Chief John J. O'Boyle estimated damage to the O'Donnell building at $3500. Edmund A. O'Donnell, vice-president and secretary, said the warehouse contained between 300 and 400 bales of cotton waste, each weighing approximately 500 pounds and having a total value of $15,000 to $20,000. Smoke and water caused damage to about $100 each of the Standard Chemical Co., 101 North First street, and the Paulian Drug and Chemical Co., 105 North First.
 Four alarms were turned in, summoning 15 pumps and six trucks. Dense smoke poured from the burning building, handicapping the firemen. Part of the roof collapsed after the alarms were sounded and Chief O'Boyle ordered his men not to enter the warehouse.
 The building is owned by O'Donnell and members of his family and leased to the O'Donnell company, which, he said, carried insurance. Offices of the company are at 19 Valentine street.
 Cause of the fire was not determined.

DISABLED MAN, CARRIED BY ANOTHER, KILLED BY AUTO
 Friend Who Was Assisting Him Seriously Hurt in Accident Near Kansas City.
 By the Associated Press.
 KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 22.—A crippled man who was being carried on the shoulders of a companion was injured fatally near here last night when both were struck by a motor car.
 Cleo Sexton, 29 years old, of St. Joseph, died on the way to a hospital shortly after the accident. John Sparks, also of St. Joseph, who was carrying Sexton, was hurt seriously.
 The two, with Joe Hockaday, were on the way here to have an artificial leg made for Sexton. When their motor car developed engine trouble they started to walk. Sparks carrying Sexton on his shoulders.
 Frank Martin, driver of the car that hit the two men, said he was blinded by the lights of an approaching automobile. He took the injured man to a hospital.

CLERK FOR GROCERY FIRM CHARGED WITH $1980 THEFT
 Arrested After Bonding Company Makes Good Loss to Employers.
 A 27-year-old clerk was arrested yesterday on a charge that he had misappropriated $1980 from the General Grocery Co.
 He was taken into custody at the request of Walter Landmann, secretary and general manager of the grocery firm, who said that an audit last month disclosed the shortage in his accounts. After the clerk left the firm, Landmann said, he cashed a $47 check he obtained from a customer, who was unaware he no longer had authority to collect it.
 The defalcation has been made good by a bonding company, Landmann said.

COURT REFUSES TO DISMISS SUIT AGAINST POLICE BOARD
 Action Restrains Officers From Confiscating Vending Machines of Sid O. Martin.
 A motion by the Board of Police Commissioners to dismiss a suit filed by Sid O. Martin, 6310 South Grand boulevard, to enjoin police from interfering with the operation of rotary merchandising machines was overruled yesterday by Circuit Judge John W. Joynt.
 Counsel for the board contended the court was without jurisdiction in the matter, asserting it had no right to restrain police from confiscating machines which they reasonably believed to be gambling devices.
 Martin asserts the machines are amusement devices and not gambling machines. They are placed in stores and restaurants where for a consideration customers manipulate a rotary disc in such a way as to obtain merchandise, he alleges.
 In deciding the motion Judge Joynt urged speedy disposition of the case. One continuance was granted, he said, to enable the Police Board to ask for a writ of prohibition in the Supreme Court. When the suit was filed Dec. 1 he issued a temporary restraining order.

STILL SEIZED IN GARAGE AND FIVE MEN ARRESTED
 Federal Agents Find 200 Gallons of Illicit Whisky and 2000 of Mash.
 Five men were taken into custody yesterday by Alcohol Tax Unit agents at a garage in the rear of 2906 Magnolia avenue, where a still, two trucks, three passenger automobiles, 2000 gallons of moonshine whisky, 2000 gallons of mash, and 80 sacks of corn sugar were used in a raid.
 Those held said they were Elbert and Charles Peal, brothers, Marcel Duncan, Victor Rieken and Frank Renspecher. Agents said the still appeared to have been operated before at the garage and was being set up again to run off the mash when it was seized.
 Robert H. Rauch Dies.
 Robert H. Rauch, manager of the H. G. Rauch Lumber Co., Robertson, St. Louis county, died at his home at St. Charles today following a stroke suffered a week ago. He was 59 years old. Funeral services will be held at 9 a. m. Thursday at the St. Charles Borromeo Church.

ROOSEVELT TO RETAIN HIS STAFF MEMBERS
 Massachusetts State Trooper to Take Place of Late Gus Gennerich.
 By the Associated Press.
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Aside from a new personal bodyguard, President Roosevelt's second term will see little immediate change in the White House staff. Thomas E. Quilley, 22-year-old Massachusetts State Trooper, succeeds the late Gus Gennerich as Mr. Roosevelt's own attendant. Quilley, former Notre Dame football player, probably will go on the Secret Service rolls by executive appointment.
 Some staff veterans who have served since McKinley's administration will be at their accustomed White House desks on Jan. 20, inauguration day.
 Two former Washington newspaper men, Stephen T. Early and Marvin H. McIntyre, will continue as presidential secretaries at least during the next session of Congress. McIntyre is in charge of appointments with the President, and Early is press relations man.
 Report Son Might Be An Aid.
 There has been some talk about James Roosevelt, eldest son of the President, serving in a dual capacity as secretary and aid, as he did on the recent South American tour, but the still lacks confirmation.
 Col. Edmund W. Starling, Kentucky man who joined the White Secret Service staff at the beginning of Woodrow Wilson's first term, will continue as chief of the presidential protective force, assisted by Russell Wood, who has had 11 years' service on the detail.
 Col. Edward M. Watson, the military aid, also will be found at the President's side on his future travels and at social functions, as will Capt. Paul Bastedo, Navy Aid.
 Served Since 1897.
 Rudolph Forster, director of the office staff who joined the White House force in June, 1897, and who hands the President his $3125 semi-monthly pay check, is the senior on the staff. Clarence E. Ingling, head file clerk, has been preserving important records at the executive offices since 1898. Thirty-eight years of service also are behind Capt. G. L. Dalrymple, executive office guard; Edward W. Smithers, chief communications officer and former press telegrapher, and Jules A. Rodier, telegraph operator.
 Next comes Maurice Latta, executive clerk, who joined the staff in 1900. One of his jobs is to deliver in person to the Senate presidential messages and nominations, announcing quietly and with a deep bow: "A message from the President of the United States, in writing."
 Other veterans who have served under seven Presidents are Lieut. Ernest M. Seeman, who with Capt. Dalrymple is the first to give the "pass" signal to presidential callers; Pat McKenna, doorkeeper, and W. H. Hospital guard at the entrance to the living quarters of the mansion. Several employees remaining at the mansion and executive offices worked for Mr. Roosevelt at Albany while he was Governor of New York.

6-CENT VERDICT IN LIBEL SUIT

Hollywood Actor Sought $1,000,000 From Publishing Firm.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—A United States District Court jury awarded George Webb, Hollywood actor and former husband of Esther Ralston, a verdict of 6 cents yesterday in his $1,000,000 libel suit against the Dell Publishing Co. Webb charged an article published in 1934 in a motion picture magazine (Modern Screen) portrayed him as a "Simon Legree" who permitted his wife to spend only $15 a week out of her earnings as a movie actress.

Gladys P. Hall, author of the article, testified it was based on an interview with Miss Ralston about the time the actress and Webb were being divorced.

19 POLL BOOK PADDING CASES AGAIN CONTINUED

Judge Griffin Grants Defense Request on Misdemeanor Charges—Third Time for Most.

ATTORNEY ENGAGED IN ANOTHER COURT

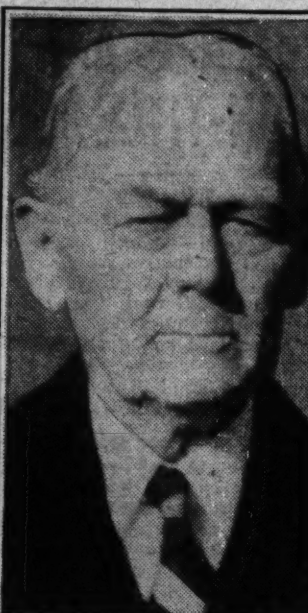

Among Those Who Obtain Delay Are Alderman Israel and Ben Greenberg, Saloon Owner.

The misdemeanor cases against 19 of the 23 persons indicted by the June term grand jury as a result of its investigation of registration padding before the August primary, were continued again yesterday at the request of the defendants by Judge James W. Griffin in the Court of Criminal Correction.

For most it was the third continuance. Judge Griffin entered peremptory settings for Jan. 12, Jan. 25 and Feb. 1, instructing the defendants that they must be ready for trial on the dates assigned. In fixing the dates the Judge grouped the cases with the idea that trial of cases set for each of the days would continue from day to day until all cases set for any one day have been tried.

Prosecution in "Ready." Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Frank E. Matthews announced ready when the cases were called yesterday, but an associate of Paul Dillon, attorney for most of the defendants, requested continuances, stating that Dillon was engaged on another matter in Circuit Court. Among the 19 whose cases were on yesterday's docket were Alderman Harry Israel of the Fifth Ward, charged with failure to file with the Board of Election Commissioners a list of residents at the Laclede and La Salle hotels, which he operates, and Ben Greenberg, saloonkeeper and boxing promoter, charged with making a false affidavit that he was registered voter "Emil Smith." Alderman Israel's case was set for trial Jan. 25, and Greenberg's was continued to Feb. 1.

The offense with which Alderman Israel is charged is punishable by a jail sentence of six months and a fine of $1000. Greenberg is charged with an offense punishable by a year in the Workhouse and a fine of $1000.

Others Precinct Clerks.

The others are precinct election clerks, charged with willful neglect to canvass the precincts to which they were assigned. This offense is punishable by a jail or Workhouse sentence of 30 to 60 days.

The indictments resulted from the Post-Dispatch exposure, last summer, of wholesale padding of registration books in many precincts. Reporters found downtown lodging houses, vacant lots, rooming houses and other establishments peopled with thousands of phantom registered voters. The names of voters who had died, or moved from the addresses from which they had registered, were permitted to remain on the lists.

When details of the Post-Dispatch investigation of registration padding were first published, the grand jury had recessed for the summer, but it reconvened, heard witnesses, and voted the indictments. Just before the August primary the Waechter Election Board, later ousted by Gov. Park, ordered an official recanvass of the registration with the result that 46,000 of those registered were reported "not found" by special deputy election commissioners who made the recanvass.

Urged Extensive Inquiry. In its final report the grand jury recommended that the September grand jury "and later grand juries" devote their efforts to investigation of fraud in the August primary, the primary of 1934, and the riverfront bond issue election of September, 1935.

The recommendation of the June grand jury was that investigation of registration padding be left to Prosecuting Attorney James P. Finnegan, who prosecutes misdemeanors or offenses in the Court of Criminal Correction. Finnegan said today to a Post-Dispatch reporter that he had not carried on the investigation, preferring to wait "to see what the juries are going to do" in the cases already pending.

One grand jury, that for the September term, accepted the advice of the June term jury and investigated the August primary, returning 68 felony indictments based on election fraud.

The present December term jury, however, has refused to investigate the riverfront bond issue election. Circuit Attorney Franklin Miller urged the jury to undertake the inquiry, but eight of the jury's members voted against it.

MAYOR APPEALS TO DRIVERS
Urges New Year Celebrations to Leave Automobiles at Home.
Mayor Dickmann last night renewed his appeal to motorists for safe and careful driving. He urged New Year's Eve celebrations to leave automobiles at home.

About 30 reports of hazardous street conditions due to ice, snow or slush were received following issuance of instructions by Chief of Police John J. McCarthy to patrolmen to observe conditions. The information was relayed to City Street Department or Public Service Co. and gravel was scattered at the places indicated, including a number of busy intersections where some of last week's snow yet remained.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Fordham University seismograph yesterday recorded what may have been two overlapping earth shocks. Two distinct shocks, the first at 2:10 p. m. and the second at 2:17. It was estimated they centered about 2700 miles away in a general southerly direction.

ELOPER HELD AFTER HIS AUTO KNOCKS DOWN GIRL'S MOTHER

Father-in-law Signs Complaint After Newlywed Returns to Joliet, Ill.

By the Associated Press.
JOLIET, Ill., Dec. 22.—Linus Rahberg, 23 years old, is held in the county jail today on a charge of assault with intent to kill his mother-in-law last Sunday when she tried to prevent his elopement with her daughter, Lorraine, 18.

The bride said she intended to "stick to my husband and my mother, too." The latter, Mrs. Victoria Hossbach, 42, is in a hospital with injuries suffered when she was knocked down by Rahberg's automobile.

Fred Hossbach signed a complaint against his son-in-law after the newly-married pair returned from their wedding in Crown Point, Ind. The bridegroom said he didn't stop because he was afraid of Hossbach, who had forbidden his daughter to see him. He said Mrs. Hossbach "ran directly into the path of the auto. It was her fault."

BEAUHULD DROPS FELDMAN THREE TIMES AND GAINS DRAW

EASTERN BOXER PUTS ON STRONG FINISH; MEN TO BE REMATCHED

Veteran on Floor Twice for No Count in Second and Again in Third Round of Fight.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Billy Beauhuld, St. Louis lightweight, was in the big time today. He fought the veteran Lou Feldman in an eight-round draw last night, and for four rounds was headed for a clear victory.

After losing the first to the bobbing, well conditioned veteran, Beauhuld landed two magnificent right crosses to the jaw in the second round. Feldman went down both times, but he took no counts.

Bounding back into the fray, Feldman carried the fight to his opponent and mixed furiously but the youngster more than held his own.

Feldman Down Again.
Beauhuld weighed 135, a little more than four pounds heavier than Feldman and landed that same right cross again in the third and once more Feldman went to the floor and as before arose with no count.

Fighting his first battle in New York, Beauhuld was impressive as well as calm and unhurried in trying to hold his advantage but Feldman fought his heart out from the third on and called on his reserves to rally and stage a great finish to earn the draw.

The fourth round was furiously fought, Beauhuld forced the fight and dominated this frame, but Feldman rallied and earned the fifth going away.

The Brooklyn veteran repeatedly landed with his left in the next round and opened a wicked cut above the youngster's right eye.

Feldman Finishes Strong.
Again in the seventh that stabbing Feldman left drew blood from below Beauhuld's left eye and for the first time in the battle the fair-haired boy seemed tired. Feldman finished the round with the most impressive boxing of the night when he landed six consecutive punches on Beauhuld's head while the astonished youngster failed to lay a glove on the bobbing veteran.

Just when it seemed as if Feldman had gained a slight edge in the middle of the last round, Beauhuld connected with a terrific right which caused Feldman's knees to buckle.

The decision was popular with the crowd, and Beauhuld received a great ovation as he left the ring. It was announced after the fight that the two would probably be rematched.

AMERICA'S LEADING TENNIS PLAYERS IN NEW ORLEANS EVENT

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 22.—Several top-ranking tennis players of the country have entered the third annual Sugar Bowl invitational tournament here starting next Monday, but indications are that they will not have an easy time.

In the first place, the four-day matches will be staged on the New Orleans Country Club patented top courts, and these touring amateurs have mostly campaigned on clay, grass or concrete surfaces. This should make the local talent a distinct obstacle, as such up-and-coming netters as Ernie and Eddie Slick, Joe Abrams and others will be playing on a familiar surface and are better acclimated.

At least five in the field of 16 are included in the select 1935 "first 10" of American tennismen.

Facing title-holder Hendrix across the net will be Bryan ("Bitty") Grant, the "giant killer" of the courts of Atlanta; Frankie Parker; California, trio of "kid" stars, Riggs, Wayne Sabie and Walter, Senior; John McDermid, J. Gilbert, Hall, Martin Buxy, Vernon Marcum, Edwood Cooke, Russell Bobbitt and M. J. McNamee.

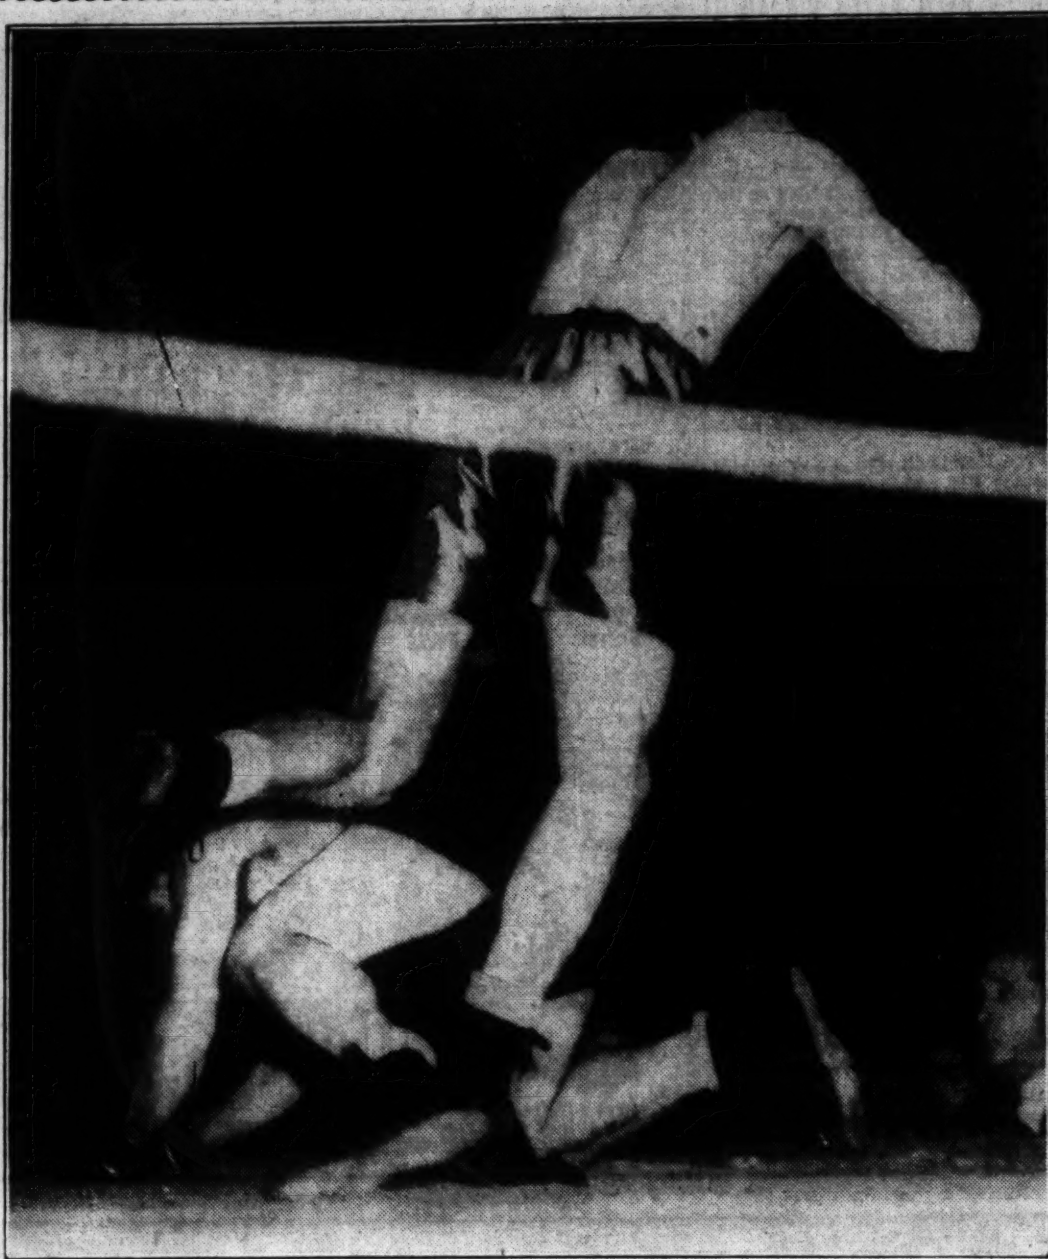

Hockey Player in Serious Condition AFTER A COLLISION
DETROIT, Dec. 22.—Tom Reid, 22-year-old Melville (Sask.) hockey player, was in a serious condition in Harper Hospital here today after suffering a brain concussion and possible hemorrhage in a hockey game here last night.

He was hurt as he collided with two opposing players after taking the puck the full length of the ice. He was rushed to the hospital an hour later when he lapsed into unconsciousness. X-rays were to be taken today.

Reid had played with the Pittsburgh Yellowjackets earlier this season and was making his first appearance as a member of the Pontiac team of the Michigan-Ontario League. Pontiac lost to Holibaugh, 7 to 3, in the game.

Dubinsky Quits Ring.
By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—Harry Dubinsky, veteran Chicago boxer, knocked out or stopped in his last three bouts, decided today to hang up his gloves after fighting 200 battles in the last 10 years. He started as a bantamweight and grew into a welterweight. He is 26 years old.

Beauhuld Scores Knockdown

Billy Beauhuld of St. Louis is shown almost tripping over Lou Feldman after knocking him down in their fight in New York last night. Feldman rallied, however, and the bout ended in a draw.

Tindall, Local Player, Is Ranked No. 1 Among Juniors In Missouri Valley Tennis

By Davison Ober

Richard Tindall, St. Louis player, was awarded the No. 1 position in the junior singles ranking of the Missouri Valley Tennis Association for 1936, according to the official list announced today by Karl Hodge, chairman of the Ranking Committee. The top honors in the juniors' doubles went to Tindall and Robert Sandler, one-armed player from Des Moines.

The committee ranked 21 players in the singles and five teams in the doubles. Of the total there were 12 named in the first group of singles while nine players were placed in alphabetical order.

The junior singles list contains the names of players from 15 cities in the Missouri Valley territory. Oklahoma leads with 11 players. Kansas is second with four and Missouri next with three players. Nebraska has two and Iowa one. Arkansas is not represented. Seven cities are represented in the doubles list.

Tindall gained first place by winning the Middle West and St. Louis District title and reaching the final of both the Missouri Valley and Iowa State events. He carried Robert Riggs, Los Angeles player, to four hard sets, in the Valley final at Kansas City last June.

George Counts, Oklahoma City junior, ranked second, won the Oklahoma State and Arkansas Valley events and reached the quarterfinals of the Kansas State championship. Warren Christner, Topeka, placed No. 3 by the committee, captured the Kansas State and Capper Invitational titles.

Tindall and Sandler gained the No. 1 place in the doubles by winning the Missouri Valley and Iowa State championships. Vance McSpadden and Robert Patterson, Oklahoma team, captured the Arkansas Valley and Arkansas City, Kan., invitational junior doubles titles. The Christner brothers, Warren and

Minneapolis Ace Will Compete in Skates Carnival

Marvin Swanson of Minneapolis, national outdoor skating champion for the past two years, today left his entry with President Henry Kemper of the Missouri Skating Association to compete in the annual Silver Skates ice carnival at the Arena Sunday afternoon.

Swanson is one of the greatest allround skaters ever developed in this country.

In the local event, Swanson will oppose the principal contenders who stand in his path to a third successive title. In the Silver Skates division for senior men and in the men's southwestern open class, he will meet such competitors as Lamar Olsen, defending Silver Skates champion from St. Louis; Truman Connell, defending southwestern open champion and 1935's national 220 and 440 yard titlist; Weber Ley, St. Louis city champion; Bob Peterson of Milwaukee, member of the 1935 U. S. Olympic team; Johnny Bretz, national half-mile champion of 1935 and alternate member of the U. S. Olympic squad; and Delbert Lamb, champion Tulsa Skater.

KANSAS CITY QUINTET TO MEET SHAW TEAM

A new club has been added to the Shaw-Stephens American Legion basketball team's schedule for next Sunday afternoon at the Maplewood Senior High School Gymnasium. This club, the Kansas City Quintet, made such an impressive record last season that the management of the local team decided to book it.

In 30 games, the upstate five won 27 and lost but three, losing to Topeka, 17-16, in the finals of the Missouri Valley A. A. U. tournament; bowing to the Wichita Thurons, 23-19, and then being eliminated from the National A. A. U. tournament by the National Champion Tulsa Skater.

No. 7 for Loyola.
CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—Loyola University's basketball team won its seventh consecutive victory of the season last night, trouncing Ripon College of Wisconsin, 45 to 37. Wilb Kautz scored 10 points to give Loyola a 22-0 lead at the first half.

Jersey City Club In Debt $172,517, Assets Only $2285

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
UTICA, N. Y., Dec. 22.—The Jersey City baseball club, recently a member of the International League, filed its bankruptcy schedules in Federal court yesterday showing a total debt of $172,517 to 50 creditors. The Jersey City assets, it was revealed, are only $2285.

John J. Corbett, president of the defunct club, is the biggest creditor. Corbett holds $1,127 in notes and has $37,150 due him in back salary.

The city of Syracuse claims $3000 on a lease for Municipal Stadium, which is secured by a 10-year franchise.

Other creditors include: New York Yankees, $31,367 for loans and players; Baltimore baseball club, $1500; Boston National League baseball club, $2000; Dallas baseball club, $2500; International League, $13,244 for loans; Montreal baseball club, $2000; Toronto baseball club and Rochester baseball club, $15,315.

Most of the money due these clubs is for players.

TITLE CONTEST FOR WINNER OF WRESTLING GO

Tuffy Cleet of Detroit, one of the leading "bad men" of wrestling, and George Sauer, Lincoln, Neb., will meet tonight in a return match to decide which will oppose Midget Flacher for the world's light-heavyweight wrestling title.

The match is the feature event of Promoter Bill Schwabe's show to night at the Coliseum.

In a match two weeks ago Cleet won from Sauer.

Sauer thought the referee, Fred Vopel, played too prominent a part in their previous bout and demanded a rematch.

The semirundup brings together Joe Miller, another light-heavyweight and a great favorite here several years ago, and Mico Occhi, who won the Ozark A. A. U. 165-pound championship for seven years in succession and then decided to turn pro. This, like the feature, is a finish match.

One of the three 30-minute preliminaries is a light-heavyweight bout between Walter McMillan of Pine Lawn and Dick Heibel of Overland. The other two preliminaries are heavyweight matches with the pride of the Fire Department, Ed "Pest" Pistorius, meeting Leo Newman, and Edmond Thierault of France and Manny Margulie of Greece meeting in the other.

Activities begin at 8:30 o'clock.

No. 7 for Loyola.
CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—Loyola University's basketball team won its seventh consecutive victory of the season last night, trouncing Ripon College of Wisconsin, 45 to 37. Wilb Kautz scored 10 points to give Loyola a 22-0 lead at the first half.

STEELE-JONES GO SANCTIONED BY N. B. A. AS NON-TITLE BOUT

By the Associated Press.
PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 22.—The National Boxing Association, through its executive secretary, Edward C. Foster of Providence, today announced that the Freddie Steele-Jones fight scheduled for Milwaukee on Jan. 1 has been given N. B. A. sanction—but not as a world's championship fight for the middleweight crown held by Steele.

The N. B. A. action came after the Ohio State Association of Boxing Commissioners had announced it would lift, for the time being, a suspension meted out to Jones in 1933 for a questionable bout with Ben Juby.

Because the N. B. A. demands that world middleweight championship fights under its jurisdiction be scheduled for 15 rounds, the Steele-Jones fracas, listed for 10 rounds—the maximum under the Wisconsin State boxing code—cannot be regarded as a world's championship test, Foster said.

TELEGRAPH OFFICE AT TROPICAL PARK TRACK CLOSED BY COMMISSION

By the Associated Press.
MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 22.—The Western Union's bureau at Tropical Park was closed during racing hours for the second time yesterday as a result of the company's refusal to submit to the Florida Racing Commission's rule providing for inspection of all messages.

The company's wires at the park were closed Saturday after it refused to submit to the rule, which the commission said is intended to prevent transmission of certain prohibited messages.

City Manager J. Earl Watkins of the Western Union said "on both occasions when our track office was closed we were engaged in transmitting inter-state messages. The company is under the supervision of the Federal Communications Commission."

The commission claimed it is acting to end the practice of individuals wiring money from the track to bookmakers. Wagering in this manner does not affect pari-mutuel odds but costs the State its percentage.

The commission also claimed "louts" are using the wires, finding messages sent direct from the racing plant and during running hours seem to have a desirable psychological effect on their clients.

The organized force of Postal Telegraph operators shouldered the heavy press files and general business from the track. That company agreed to abide by the Racing Commission's rule.

Company Fails to Open Its Office at Track.

By the Associated Press.
TROPICAL PARK, Fla., Dec. 22.—The Western Union Telegraph Co.'s track office, twice closed in the past two days for refusal to comply with censorship, did not attempt to reopen its wires at the regular 8:30 a. m. time this morning.

Facilities were furnished by Western Union for transference of press copy to branches outside the track at the Miami-Biltmore Hotel and Coral Gables.

AURIE, DETROIT ACE, TOPS HOCKEY SCORERS

MONTREAL, Dec. 22.—While they're having a tough time competing against such experienced players as Larry Aurie of Detroit, Sweeney Schirmer of the New York Americans and Johnny Gagnon of the Montreal Canadiens, the National Hockey League's rookies are doing pretty well, according to the latest set of scoring figures.

The weekly tabulation, including Sunday's games, reveals that Bill Colville of the New York Rangers, and Johnny Gagnon of the Montreal Canadiens, and Sylvanus Apps of Toronto, are right up among the leading goal-getters.

Ebbie Goffellow of Detroit became the leading "bad man" when he piled up 31 minutes in penalties, going one minute above Earl Seibert of Chicago.

Records of the leading scorers:

	G.	A.	Pts.
Aurie, Detroit	10	7	17
Shirmer, N. Y. Americans	9	7	17
Gagnon, M. Canadiens	10	4	14

ACTUAL WORK BEGUN ON CUP DEFENDER

BATH, Me., Dec. 22.—A stream of molten lead which will harden into the keel of Harold S. Vanderbilt's 2000-ton America Cup defender, trickled slowly into a sand mold beside the Kennebec River today.

Workers melted down nearly 90 tons of pig lead for the "fin" of the big class A sloop Vanderbilt hopes to race against the British challenger, Endeavour II, next summer.

Keeping a watchful eye on the scene was W. Sterling Burgess, designer, who considered the pouring the most important step in the yacht's construction.

Burgess and William S. Newell, Bath Iron Works president, directed the 15-hour job, which started at daylight.

The mould was set up on the stocks from which the yacht, unnamed as yet, is scheduled to slide into the river next April.

MAX SCHMELING'S COLUMN

On the Toboggan?

HAD anyone told you two years ago that Max Schmeling and James J. Braddock would one day fight for the world's heavyweight championship, they probably would have had to call in the doctor to end your laughing fit.

Max Schmeling had been knocked out by Max Baer and beaten by a nobody, Steve Hamas. Braddock was at that time a discredited lightweight.

The German was on his way out. Braddock had never been in. He wasn't even good enough to win the 175-pound title when at his best.

A couple of second-rate has-beens would have been the universal estimate of these boxers, in 1933.

But, dumfounding as it seems, here they are today, two or three years after both had hit the toboggan, matched to battle for the world's title and they'll probably draw close to that fabled million-dollar gate next June 8, when they meet at Long Island Bowl.

Reversing All Precedents.
WHAT happened to bring this about? Did the fighters really develop late in their careers into men of unusual ability. Has pugilistic history been reversed in these two cases? Did fighters of secondary merit pass their prime and then suddenly blossom into world's championship form?

We'll leave that for you to guess. The facts are these: At a time when Schmeling was already classified as a heavyweight title failure and Braddock not even considered a first-class light heavyweight although a veteran, along came Joe Louis.

He captured the imagination of the fight world with his string of knockout victories over men of small consequence, although the best available. He was built up in headlines to heroic proportions. He was the "Black Jack Dempsey."

Before he had beaten an opponent of real merit he was hailed a super fighter. When he pounded to sleep two former champions, Carnera and Baer, he was acclaimed the greatest fighter of the age.

And then Schmeling pushed over the Louis myth. Max knocked him out because, as the fight showed, Louis was a "wreck" for a right-hand punch" and

$12 DIVIDEND FOR CARDINAL STOCKHOLDERS

Dividend checks are in the mail today for stockholders in the Cardinals amounting to $12 for each share they own. Last year the team paid $10 a share.

Sam Breadon, president of the club, is owner of nearly 76 per cent of the stock of the organization and all told there are 138 shareholders.

Breadon said the payment represented a dividend of about 6 per cent on the value of the stock although the percentage is much higher when figured on the par value of $25 per share.

The higher dividend would indicate that the Cardinals earned more in 1936 than in 1935 but Breadon said that was not necessarily the case but that due to the new undivided surplus fund, the club wanted to pay out to its stockholders as much as possible.

The Cardinal attendance at home was better in 1936 than in 1935, Breadon said.

GRINNELL WILL CLOSE 1937 FOOTBALL SEASON AGAINST ST. LOUIS U.

By the Associated Press.
GRINNELL, Ia., Dec. 22.—John C. Truesdale, director of athletics, announced yesterday a tentative eight-game 1937 football schedule for Grinnell College.

The Pioneers, Truesdale said, may fill one open date by scheduling Central College of Pella.

The tentative schedule: Sept. 25—Cornell at Grinnell. Oct. 1—Iowa State Teachers at Grinnell. Oct. 8—Grinnell at Creighton. Oct. 16—Open. Oct. 23—Grinnell at Washburn. Oct. 30—Grinnell at Drake. Nov. 6—Grinnell at Carleton. Nov. 12—Coe at Grinnell. Nov. 20—St. Louis U. at Grinnell.

ENGLAND CRICKET TEAM WINS AGAIN FROM AUSTRALIANS

By the Associated Press.
SYDNEY, Australia, Dec. 22.—England made it two straight over Australia today, winning the second cricket test match by an innings and 22 runs.

The touring players won the first of the five tests to be played this season by 322 runs.

Veterans Are Missing.
UNIVERSITY, Ala., Dec. 22.—Five lettermen are missing from the 1936-37 cage team at Alabama.

Gone are Jim Whaley, center; Ben McLeod, guard and forward; Chick Boucka, forward; Al Nogi, guard, and Rudy Rhordanz, guard.

HUNK ANDERSON FIRED; ALUMNI MAY TAKE CASE TO THE COURTS

By the Associated Press.
RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 22.—Hunk Anderson, head football coach at North Carolina State College for the past three years, was out of a job today, but one of his staunchest alumni supporters threatened a court fight over the dismissal.

Soon after Dr. Frank P. Graham, president of the Greater University of North Carolina—a which State is a unit—announced a reorganization of the athletic set-up which eliminated Anderson, Dave Clark, alumni representative on the athletic council, said:

"We believe (Dr. Graham) has acted in an illegal manner and shall test his authority in the courts."

The "we" used in Clark's formal statement was not explained.

Clark said he understood "President Graham claims that he acted under a remnant of the discredited Anderson plan, which was accidentally left in the Southern Conference rules and which states that the athletic director and coaches shall be chosen by the president."

"The athletic council was legally created by the trustees who have authority under the laws of North Carolina, whereas the Southern Conference is simply an association of colleges and without legal authority."

Contract Expires Dec. 31.
The contract of Anderson, former Notre Dame coach, expires on Dec. 31. His teams have had up and down seasons, and this year's record was three wins and seven losses.

The athletic reorganization was announced in a joint statement by Dr. Graham and Col. John W. Harrison, dean of administration, who said they would recommend it to the board of trustees.

Johnny Miller, head of the physical education department, would become athletic director, succeeding Dr. R. L. Sermon, who would become a trainer in basketball and track coach, C. G. Doak would remain as head baseball coach, Dr. Robert (Bob) Warren would be freshman football coach and J. L. von Glahn, business manager of collegiate athletics.

It was understood the refusal to give Anderson a new contract costed his assistants, Ed Kosky and Mike Koken.

Anderson said last month he had had two coaching offers, but he remarked last night he did not know if they were still open.

"I haven't been dickering with them at all," he said.

BALL PLAYER'S TITLE GOLF TOURNEY TO BE MATCH PLAY AFFAIR

By the Associated Press.
SARASOTA, Fla., Dec. 22.—The second annual National Baseball Players' golf tournament to be played here Jan. 22, 23 and 24, will be a match play event.

Last year Pitcher Wes Ferrell of the Boston Red Sox won the tournament, then a medal play competition.

George R. Jacobus, president of the Professional Golfers' Association and pro at the Bobby Jones course, will supervise the tournament for the Sarasota Municipal Golf Committee.

Both major and minor league players will compete for the Power Crosby trophy.

Collinsville and Alton Five Play In League Game

Collinsville High School's basketball team, favorite for the East Side league title, opens its 1937-38 campaign in Madison-St. Clair conference competition tomorrow night when it entertains Alton in the feature of this week's six-game schedule. East St. Louis opposes Livingston tonight at the Lansdowne Gymnasium, in East St. Louis, is an important non-league game.

Other non-league games tonight find Granite City at Venice and Central Catholic High meeting Marist at the Clark Gymnasium, East St. Louis. Clinton is at Edwardsville and Soldan at Wood River tomorrow night for non-league games.

Alton defeated Granite City, 34-26, in its initial league game and has not met defeat in non-league play. Collinsville has met stronger opposition, however, and is favored to win. Last week's schedule saw Collinsville lose to Springfield, 20-19, Friday night, and come back Saturday to win over a highly regarded Vandalla team, 24-23.

East St. Louis will attempt to stop Livingston's winning streak and also make up for the lone defeat suffered in its initial game of the year against Livingston. Livingston holds decisions over other East Side league teams, including Collinsville, Wood River, Granite City and Madison.

Bigger Crowds Most Significant Development in '36 Sport Year

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Continuation of the "new boom" in nearly every branch of sports, accompanied by more open and widespread commercialization of amateur talent, furnished the loudest keynote detected this year by our sports-writing associates.

Expressing their assorted views in the sixth annual Associated Press sports poll, 22 press-box observers cited bigger crowds and "gates" as the most conspicuous trends of 1936.

They called attention to such all-time attendance marks as 62,000 for the Kentucky Derby and 168,000 for the Indianapolis auto race. The South and East counted their biggest football turnouts in history, 48,000 at Baton Rouge for Louisiana State-Tulane, and 105,000 at Philadelphia for Army-Navy.

Flyers' Schedule Calls for 14 Contests During January

After a day of rest, the Flyers today will resume practice for their next American Hockey Association engagement, Christmas night, against the Minneapolis club.

Yesterday was the first day virtually since the season began that the players had nothing to do, and they took advantage of it to take things easy in preparation for the hard days to come.

The Hockey Club announced that children will be admitted free to Friday's game if accompanied by an adult.

The Flyers have won 15 league victories in addition to their triumph in the exhibition game with the Chicago Blackhawks. They have not been defeated and have been tied twice. Thus they will be after their sixteenth victory when they oppose the Millers again.

SALE OF BROWNS COMPLETED WITH FINAL PAYMENT OF $225,000

Completion of the deal transferring the Browns from the estate of the late Phil de Catey Ball to the new owners, a company headed by Donald S. Barnes and William O. DeWitt, was made this afternoon with the payment of $225,000 by Barnes and his associates to representatives of the Ball estate.

The transaction took place in the office of former Senator George H. Williams, one of the attorneys for the new owners.

Barnes handed the check to Miss Ella Jacoby, one of the executors of the Ball estate, in the presence of Williams and David Lichtenstein, attorneys for the new owners; Abraham Lowenhaupt, attorney for the Ball estate; Walter Fritsch and William Cady, former vice-presidents of the Browns, and DeWitt, who is new general manager of the organization.

The new owners also closed a deal with the Ball estate to rent Sportsman's Park from the Dodier Real Estate Co., a Ball property, on the same terms as those extended to the Cardinals, who are said to be paying a rental of $35,000 yearly.

BRADDOCK-McCARTHY BOUT IS POSTPONED

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 22.—Jimmy Braddock's four-round bout here with Jack McCarthy of Boston, which had been scheduled for next Monday night, has been postponed until some time in January, Promoter Charley Murray announced today.

The engagement has been listed as the first of a number of tuneup exhibitions for Braddock before he meets Max Schmeling to defend his heavyweight championship June 3.

The reason for the postponement, Murray said, was a hand injury McCarthy recently suffered in a Boston workout.

HARLOW ANNOUNCES A $3000 TOURNEY

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Dec. 22.—Robert E. Harlow, dismissed as manager of the tournament bureau of the P. G. A., announced today he had scheduled a $3000 open match play ball golf tournament here Feb. 26-27-28, to be sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

Harlow said he would leave for California next week to attend the Los Angeles open and to "wage my campaign for a showdown in the P. G. A. tournament situation."

RICKEY SHOUTS DENIAL OF ANY PART IN SCHEME FOR PUBLICITY

By W. J. McGoogan.

"That's a pure fabrication," shouted Branch Rickey over the telephone today when his attention was called to the statement of Dizzy Dean, reported from Sarasota, Fla., as saying that his popping off and arguments over contracts with the Cardinals ball club were the result of a pre-arranged publicity stunt between Dizzy and the Cardinals.

"I have never at any time discussed with Dizzy such a scheme, nor would I do so," continued Rickey, "and I don't think he believes it happened. Something or somebody has suggested this to him and he has fallen in line with their ideas."

"That, you must understand, is predicated on the theory that Dizzy said what he is reported to have said."

"Anybody who knows me and knows Dizzy would understand that nothing of the kind could happen."

It has been the theory of some people for a long time that the continual bickerings between Dizzy and Rickey have been for the purpose of keeping the names of Dizzy and the Cardinals before the fans.

Club Not Helped by Remarks.

Such a scheme may have worked to Dizzy's advantage, but certainly the publicity which the Cardinals have got out of it has not been helpful. In fact, it has been pretty strongly intimated that the reason the Cardinals were so anxious to dispose of Dizzy was that his verbal shafts had gone home very deeply in at least one Cardinal official and he determined to get rid of the pitched if at all possible.

It has been said that it was Dizzy's popping off which has created the impression around the country that the Cardinals are the cheapest organization in baseball that they treat their players like slaves and have held down their salaries.

The Cardinals have always been in the first division of the National League in paying salaries, according to those who should know, and in one season at least the club's salary list was the highest in the league.

What Players Say.

One of the prominent players on the club, when asked about his treatment from the team's officials, said:

"Why, my salary has been more than doubled since I came here, and I have never had any serious difficulty over money matters at all. I really can't see what any player should find to yelp about with the way he's treated with the Cardinals."

In addition, after your playing days are over, if you have been all right with them, they nearly always are able to find a spot for you, if you want to continue in the game. All their farms are dotted with ex-Cardinal players who have regular jobs."

However, Dizzy likely will continue to pop off along the lines he

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—RED PERRY nominates Baron Gottfried von Cramm of Germany as his successor to the world amateur tennis throne.

The black-haired Briton, who will make his debut as a professional against Ellsworth Vines, Jan. 6, in Madison Square Garden, rated the Teuton one notch higher than California's red head, Don Budge. ## BIG TEN BASKET FIVES WIN FOUR, LOSE IN THREE PRACTICE GAMES

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—Northwestern's Wildcats ranked today as a "dark horse" of the approaching Big Ten basketball championship race — if comparative scores mean much.

The Wildcats recently had little trouble in defeating the Pittsburgh Panthers, who last night handed Wisconsin's Badgers their first defeat of the conference warm-up campaign, 41 to 30. The Panthers tripled the score on the touring Mid West club in the opening period, which ended, 33 to 11.

Purdue's powerful Boilermakers continued their victory march, defeating Toledo, 41 to 32, in a rough game marked by 25 personal fouls. Toledo took an early lead but Ward Lambert's team turned in another of its come-from-behind performances to score at half, 17-12. Pat Malaska led the points for the victors.

Iowa won its sixth straight game, downing Millikin College, 37 to 30, after trailing during the early stages. Whenever Millikin threatened the Hawks appeared to have enough in reserve to stay in front.

Indiana, which shared the 1935 Big Ten title with Purdue, continued its successful Eastern tour by trouncing Villanova, 43 to 28. Ken Gunning, with two field goals and five charity points, was high scorer. The Hoosiers showed an almost impregnable defense.

Minnesota lost its third game of the season, bowing to Nebraska, 29 to 24. The Cornhuskers grabbed a lead soon after the second half opened and held it to the final gun. The Gophers previously lost to North Dakota State and Kansas State.

Ohio State defeated Creighton, 35 to 28, with Thomas, a center, getting 12 points to pace the Buckeye attack.

Opening a three-game series at Seattle against the University of Washington, Michigan's Wolverines took a 40 to 23 whipping from the Huskies, who built up a 23 to 6 lead at half time. It was Michigan's first defeat in three starts. Coach Franklin Cappon's squad previously won impressive victories over Michigan Normal and Michigan State.

Basket Game Postponed.

Brother Richard Brand, S. M., coach of Chamade's basketball team, said last night that today's Catholic League tussle with St. Peter's would be postponed, since the Red Devils are now enjoying their Christmas holiday. He stated that he would attempt to arrange with Father A. S. Behrman, athletic director of St. Peter's, to play the game Feb. 28.

M'NAB JOINS WATSON ON THE SHAMROCKS' HOSPITAL LIST

HALFBACK OUT FOR MONTH AND WING POSSIBLY FOR TWO WEEKS

Manager of Heidelberg Club, Which Plays Here Christmas, Reports His Team Stronger.

By Dent McSkimming.

Father Time is playing a strong hand in trying to smash the winning streak of the Shamrock soccer club, which has reached nine straight games. Two veteran players, Center Halfback Bill Watson and Outside Right Alec McNab, are nursing injuries which may keep them out of the game for several weeks.

Watson, unable to play last Sunday against Cleveland's Graphite Bronze club, may be out of action for a month. An X-ray examination of his injured knee disclosed a chipped bone, and he has been advised by his doctor not to play for a month.

McNab, who started playing first-class football over 20 years ago, pulled a thigh muscle in last Sunday's game and, in the ordinary course of events, such an injury needs a couple of weeks' rest. Complete rest for the limb may result in a quicker recovery.

Bill Lehman, another of the more experienced members of the Shamrocks, quit last Sunday's game at half time to rest his injured right ankle. He said today he hoped to be fit for duty against Heidelberg, Friday and Sunday. The Shamrocks scored their winning goals last Sunday in the second half with McNab, Watson and Lehman off the team, but they wouldn't want to try to get along without them for any great length of time.

Disaster might overtake the Shamrocks if they had to go up against Heidelberg with a patched-up team. The rough, hustling team from Pittsburgh is reported stronger than last season, when it beat the Shamrocks once in an exhibition game and gained a tie in the first game of the Western cup final series.

Manager Walter McCabe names specifically the addition of Felix Mitchell, a forward, and Chuck Delmontague, left halfback, as among the reasons why his team is better this season than last.

"Kochosky, our new goaltender, has been doing a fine job," wrote McCabe. "And our outside left, Pete Cherokee, is as fine a winger as there is in this section. He was with Avella last season. The balance of the team is the same as last season, with Donelli at center forward, 'Red' Gordon Hart at center halfback, Mike Kuten at right fullback and John Bobich at left; Andy Urbanic and Dave Matthews, other defensive stars; Johnny McCoskey, clever little inside left; Dolinar, Pavlik and others. We have fine reserve material this season, something we lacked in the past, and we believe we are a much stronger club."

That's about all the Shamrocks need know.

Buff Donelli, after playing here Christmas day and Sunday, goes on to Miami, Fla., where the Duquesne University football team plays in the Orange Bowl game, New Year's day. Donelli is Duquesne's assistant coach.

Blewett Swimmers Win.
The fancy diving event, last in the program, decided a closely-contested swimming meet between Ben Blewett, High and McKinley High teams at the Y. M. H. A. pool yesterday afternoon. Connell of Blewett won the event and provided enough points for Blewett to win the meet by a score of 38 to 37.

They'll Try to Tread on the Shamrocks

Aldo "Buff" Donelli, on the left, center forward, captain and field general of the Heidelberg soccer club of Pittsburgh, and Johnny McCoskey, clever inside left forward, whose maneuvering of the ball creates scoring opportunities for the powerfully built Donelli. Heidelberg plays the Shamrocks (victors in nine straight games) Christmas day and next Sunday at Public Schools Stadium, north field.

Christmas Carol.

CHRISTMAS comes but once a year

And with it comes the Christmas rope.

As it will very soon be here, Of smoke abatement there's no hope.

But Santa Claus must have his joke Regardless of the soot and smoke.

"Rose Bowl Teams Want to Be Alone."

Not a chance. The house was sold out weeks ago.

Dizzy Dean is still talking about $100,000 a year in round numbers.

Is he trying to show up Uncle Sam, who pays Franklin D. Roosevelt, his No. 1 boy, only $75,000?

But Dix seems to be overlooking a bet. Does he know that the President gets $25,000 a year expense money? Raise the ante, Dix.

The rabbit ball has one more year to live but we doubt that Babe Ruth's home run record will ever be equalled due to certain restrictions and game laws in Babe's former happy hunting grounds. Remember how the Babe used to pump them into the right field seats at Sportsman's Park before the screens went up?

Jimmy Fox, a right-hand batter and consequently a left field hitter, nearly caught up with him at that. Jimmy wasn't shooting at any short right field fences when he made a mark of 58.

Not taking anything away from Babe, however. When the Bam socked 'em they stayed socked.

See where the A. P. voted the Yankees the outstanding ball club of 1936. Guess there is no argument there.

Lefty Grove, who topped the American League pitchers, is only a shell of his former self. But he is pitching a mean shell game.

Dizzy Dean says the reason he wanted to train in Bradenton was because he built his home there and the reason he built his home there was because the Cardinals trained there. Another example of the uncertainties of real estate investments.

Nerts to You.

One hundred and twenty golf balls were found in the hollow of a tree. They were gathered by squirrels—Believe it or not.

That's why they call 'em squirrels.

Win, lose or draw you can depend on it that Empty Bottle will run a corking good race.

The Browns have formed a working agreement with Terre Haute. From a Three-Point point of view it looks like first division.

near San Bernardino, many miles from here.

"Washington will have no push-over in this team," remarked Sutherland. "And I'm not worried about a passing attack. Our competition didn't throw many passes against us."

UNIVERSITY CITY TO PLAY CLEVELAND FIVE.

University City High School basketball team will line up against Cleveland High in the feature match of a three-game program at University City High tomorrow evening.

It will be "Alumni Night" and two games will be played between former U. City students.

In the first, starting at 7 p. m., the 1935-36 and at 9:30 the 1936-37 players oppose those of '35-'36.

MUNY ELEVEN TO PLAY GAME CHRISTMAS DAY

A departure from custom in the Municipal Soccer League is promised for Christmas day, when a league match will be played at Sherman Park between the Briemeyer club and the Pledge Ken-L-Ration team, both of the Sherman-Fairground group.

In past seasons, no Christmas or New Year's day games have been scheduled by the Muny, but the Briemeyer club was accepted as a late entry this year; and it is faced with the necessity of making up lost ground. Another game is contemplated for them New Year's day. They have tied two and won one of their league games thus far, and are tied for fifth place with Irish Village, three full games behind the leading St. Edward's club.

In winning the Carondelet group title in the Intermediate League, the Nebco team justified the predictions of many observers who followed the team progress as a junior club. As the players, almost all of them of Spanish descent, advance in years they will step up into the senior division, according to the plan of Manager Chic Fernandez, who wants to keep the team intact.

Y. M. H. A. FIVE PLAYS NORTH SIDE Y QUINT

The Young Men's Hebrew Association five, unbeaten in league play this season, meets the North Side Y team in the feature game of the Municipal Basketball League doubleheader at Sherman Park Community Center tonight.

Play begins at 8 o'clock. In the other game, the Bill Binigs play Our Redeemer.

In tomorrow night's feature, the Food Centers and United Service, unbeaten for the campaign, battle.

The Polish Falcons and Royal Hearts meet in the other contest.

1127 BROTHER TEAMS ENTER BOWLING MEET

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PEORIA, Ill., Dec. 22.—With an entry of 1127 teams, 2254 brothers, for the fourteenth annual brothers bowling tournament, all previous records were shattered. This year's total exceeds the record set a year ago by 275 teams.

The tourney opens next Saturday night on 16 new alleys and will continue through Sunday, Jan. 10. The tourney is the largest of its kind held in the world.

Castleman Says He'll Win 15 Games for Giants Next Season

By the Associated Press.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 22.—

Clyde Castleman, whose brief major league career resembles a roller-coaster ride, is looking forward to an important part in the New York Giants' drive for their second straight National League pennant.

The quiet hurler, known as "Slick" to his mates, has set his 1937 minimum victory goal at 15.

"I don't guarantee that," explained the farm boy who joined the Giants two years ago. "I don't believe in popping off, but if I get a halfway decent start I'll bet I can turn in 15 wins. Not until the season was almost over last year did my arm feel as good as it did in 1935."

During his debut campaign in 1935 young Castleman, then 19 years old, looked like a prize package. He won 15 games and lost six, but the past season he got away to a pathetic start and wound up with four victories and seven defeats.

Now he weighs 205 pounds and says he never felt better.

"This year I'm going to / Hot Springs for a week or so and take the baths," he said. "Then we report to Havana on Feb. 19 and they tell me it's great weather for conditioning in Cuba."

He's been spending the off-months on his father's farm, chopping wood, doing odd jobs, hunting and fishing.

Usually non-committal, Castleman praised Manager Bill Terry's acquisition of Lou Chiozza from the Phils, predicted the Giants would be stronger next year and that the Yanks again would top the junior circuit.

TWO WORKOUTS DAILY FOR MARQUETTE TEAM

DURANT, Ok., Dec. 22.—Adopted as its own by this town of 8000, the Marquette University football squad began training today for its New Year's day Cotton Bowl football game with Texas Christian University at Dallas.

Almost the entire populace, augmented by a military band and a committee of Cotton Bowl officials from Dallas, was on hand to greet the Milwaukee team on its arrival late yesterday.

Coches Frank Murray said he would hold a light workout each morning and would put the hilltoppers through their paces in long afternoon sessions.

Basket League Meets.

Managers of teams entered in the Girls' Municipal Basketball Association will hold their final organization meeting tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at the Sherman Park Community Center, Kingshighway boulevard and Easton avenue. Officers will be elected, rules adopted and schedule drawn for the opening round of games scheduled for Monday, Jan. 4, at the Sherman Park courts.

One vacancy still remains to round out two four-team divisions.

SANTA ANITA EXPECTS 50,000 TO SEE CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

NOMINEES FOR $100,000 RACE TO COMPETE IN FRIDAY STAKE

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 22.—Santa Anita Park buzzed with activity today in preparation for the opening of the 1938 season Friday at the Christmas Stakes. A crowd of 50,000 is expected.

Top weight of 120 pounds may be handed to Acacade of the one horse stable of Donaldson Christmas and Stand Pat of the E. F. Seagram stable.

Nominations for the Christmas day mile closed last Saturday night with 23.

A. A. Baran's Top Row, which won the race last year, is rounding into shape after a serious stomach disorder 10 days ago but is out of consideration.

The event will be in the nature of a preview of the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap of Feb. 27. Most of the entries in next Friday's race have been nominated for the later feature.

Giant Killer, crack three-year-old entered by the Milldale Stable and A. Pelletier, looks as a favorite for the Christmas affair. Giant Killer scored a convincing victory in the final handicap last Saturday at Bay Meadows.

A last minute entry was Sea Biscuit, winner of the $100,000 World's Fair Handicap at Bay Meadows and favorite for the Santa Anita Handicap.

The formidable entry of the A. C. I. Stock Farm, Special Agent, has been training well and will be heavily backed.

Friday's program will open the third racing season at Santa Anita, large and well-appointed plant at the foot of Sierra Madre Mountains.

GULDAHL AILING, GOLF EXHIBITION MATCH OFF

By the Associated Press.
BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 22.—The golf match that was to have been played here tomorrow between Denny Shute, P. G. A. champion, and Ralph Gulda, St. Louis pro, and Fred Haas and Paul Leslie, crack L. S. U. students, was postponed today because Gulda was ill.

Shute was expected to play with the students, however. Special arrangements had been made to protect the amateur status of Haas and Leslie.

LONGDEN TO RIDE FOR WHEATLEY STABLE

By the Associated Press.
MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 22.—Johnny Longden, who stands second in the American jockey race, has agreed to do the riding for the Wheatley Stable in 1937. Jim Fitzsimmons, veteran trainer, says Longden will report to him at Aqueduct March 1. Longden is pushing Basil James hard for the leadership in the national standing. Longden is due to arrive in Miami some time in February and may accept some mounts in the Wheatley Stable colors.

FOURTH VICTORY FOR SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
HOUSTON, Tex., Dec. 22.—The University of Southern California basketball team, on Christmas tour, today had at its belt four scalps of Southwest Conference opponents, with the defeat here last night of the Rice Institute, 40-31.

The Trojans took the lead at the start and were never headed. The game was played under the new Pacific Coast rules, with the ball thrown in after a goal instead of being set in play from a tip-off.

Willis Orr, with 15 points, and Wayne Garrison, with 11, were high scorers for Rice and U. S. C. respectively.

The invaders will leave for home tonight after a return game with Rice, this one to be played under Southwest Conference rules.

Here's First Official Holdout; He's Red Lucas of the Pirates

By the Associated Press.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 22.—The 1937 holdout season was open ahead of schedule today because Charles "Red" Lucas figured the Pittsburgh Pirates didn't play Santa Claus.

To hear the big right-hander tell it, his baseball employers took a great deal of joy out of his Christmas season when they made out his new contract. There was a raise but Lucas argued it wasn't enough.

"I certainly expect to get more than they have offered," said the husky tosser who is wintering here. He declined to name the salary he wanted.

During the early 1936 season Red practically was on vacation. But he swung into action later and

BENTON TO TAKE OVER WATER SYSTEM JAN. 1

WPA Work Planned to Improve Service—Reduction in Rates Expected.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
BENTON, Ill., Dec. 22.—The Benton deal completed by which Benton will take over the water system here Jan. 1, new proposals for works projects will be submitted to the Works Progress Administration that are calculated to put the entire system in first-class shape and provide better service.

One of the proposed jobs is the laying of about four miles of new mains and replacing certain sections. This extension is expected to increase the number of patrons about 50 per cent and result in rate reductions.

Another plan to be submitted will be for raising the water level of Lake Hamilton, the chief source of supply, to insure sufficient water in any reasonable dry period. The Central Illinois Public Service Co., which has owned and operated the water system for the last several years, has maintained facilities for pumping water from Lake Moses, and the city is expected to contract with the owners of Lake Moses for additional water in case unexpected dry seasons render Lake Hamilton insufficient. However, with a raised water level in the lake, which also is being taken over by the city, it is not believed this situation will arise.

The minimum water rate has been $1.50 a month, but the city officials believe it will be possible to reduce this to $1.25 or $1 within a few months.

The system is being purchased for $150,000, the financing to be accomplished through water revenue bonds issued over a term of years. Property tax to cover any part of the cost is forbidden.

FINE AS CARELESS DRIVER

Earl Edmonds' Car Hit Auto of Street Commissioner McMahon.
Earl Edmonds, laborer, 5505 Bartmer avenue, was fined $60 for careless driving and passing a major stop sign by Police Judge Edward M. Ruddy today. The charges grew out of an accident Dec. 3 in which Edmonds' car struck one driven by Street Commissioner E. J. McMahon at Newstead avenue and Page boulevard. Edmonds admitted he drove through the stop sign. Col. McMahon testified he swerved to avoid the collision but was too late. Edmonds, who pleaded not guilty, was fined $50 for careless driving and $10 for driving through the stop sign.

E. G. Clarke of Sousa's Band Dies.

WOMAN DECLARES MAN TOLD HER HE KILLED HER HUSBAND

California Ranch Hand She Names Has Been Shot to Death by Police.
By the Associated Press.
EL CENTRO, Cal., Dec. 22.—Mrs. Grace Whitten has made a signed statement, according to Sheriff R. W. Ware, declaring John Tillery, 45 years old, a ranch hand, told her he killed her husband, William Whitten, so she would be free to marry him.

Tillery was shot to death by police at Imperial Sunday when they attempted to arrest him and he fled. "I can marry you now, as Bill is under ground," Mrs. Whitten quoted Tillery as saying. Mrs. Whitten, 21, is held for investigation. Her husband disappeared last August. Shortly thereafter she went to her old home in Texarkana, Ark. She returned to California about a month later. When officers sought to arrest Tillery, he was in a hotel room with Mrs. Whitten and the latter's 3-year-old child.

CLARENCE DARROW SAYS CHRISTMAS IS "A HUMBUG"

"Source of Profound Sorrow for Those Who Can't Afford to Fill Up Children's Stockings."
By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—Clarence Darrow, 79-year-old lawyer, observed today that as a holiday the Fourth of July had Christmas "beat a mile." He thought Christmas was a "humbug." "When I was a boy in Kinsman, O., I didn't like to see Christmas come," he said. "My father was a poor man. I couldn't spend money like the others. On the Fourth I used to get up right after midnight to shoot off anvils. It was a lot of fun." "Nobody knows why we celebrate Christmas—to keep up the old bunk, I suppose. Some religious people think it is the day Christ was born. They don't know any more about it than a woodchuck. Christmas is a source of profound sorrow for fathers and mothers who cannot afford to fill up their children's stockings with gifts. People would be better off if they paid no attention to it." Mrs. Darrow said: "But we have always seen to it that the youngsters enjoyed the holiday."

LONDON CALLS ON ROOSEVELT; THEY SWAP FISHING STORIES

Two Avoid Politics in Talk of Almost an Hour; President's Recent Trip Discussed.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—President Roosevelt and Gov. Alf M. Landon swapped fishing stories in a chat over a White House desk yesterday, but they avoided politics. Landon, here to attend the Gridiron Club dinner last night, called on the President before the dinner. They talked for almost an hour. Landon said they chatted of the President's recent South American trip and of the Governor's fishing vacation in Florida. At the Republican national headquarters, where he was shown about by John D. M. Hamilton, national chairman, Landon was asked if he had any plans for raising funds to wipe out a campaign deficit of about $4,000,000. "Talk to John, there," he said, pointing to Hamilton. "That's his problem."

Closing Time for Foreign Mail.

WOMAN MENTAL PATIENT ESCAPES, IS FOUND DEAD

Body in Gas-Filled Kitchen of Golf Club Near Hospital in Baltimore.
BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 22.—The unclothed body of Mrs. Edith B. Galtier, 33 years old, patient at Spring Grove State Hospital for Mental Diseases, was found today in the gas-filled kitchen of the Rolling Road Golf Club, near the hospital. Gas was pouring from the range in the building, which had been closed for the winter. The woman had wandered away from the hospital last Thursday and had walked through woods and briars, as her legs and feet bore many scratches. Herbert Schaub, bartender at the club lockerhouse, said he had gone to the locked building, which is inspected daily by club attendants, to get some flower vases. He smelled gas and reported to W. C. Bauer, manager of the club. Bauer ordered him to turn off the gas. Schaub found the body, which was identified later by hospital attaches.

Estimate of Depression Cost.

OUTLINE OF CASE OF THREE REGENTS AGAINST DR. FRANK

Wisconsin U. Board Head Says Conduct of Presidency Is Sole Question
as to Reappointment.

MISMANAGEMENT OF FUNDS ALLEGED

Other Charges Are That He Is 'Weak Executive' and Devotes Insufficient
Time to Office.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 22.—Outlines of the controversy between Glenn Frank, president of the University of Wisconsin, and members of the board of regents who are opposing his reappointment, and who are supported in their position by Gov. Philip LaFollette, were given in the statement made to the regents by Harold M. Wilkie of Madison, president of the board.
By vote of the regents, an open hearing of the charges against President Frank will be held at the next meeting of the board, to be called by President Wilkie.

"The question is not one of removal," Wilkie said. "The question is whether or not he should be reappointed for the year 1937-38, which begins July 1."
"Over a long period," he continued, "there has developed an increasing dissatisfaction with Dr.
Frank's administration of the university. It is unfair and untrue to attribute this dissatisfaction to anything remotely connected with partisan politics. It arises solely and entirely out of Dr. Frank's conduct of the presidency."

Snell's Dismissal Recalled.
Wilkie went on to say that when he became a regent of the university five years ago, he found criticism of President Frank, which since has increased greatly. He named, among those who thought
"Dr. Frank was not the kind of executive that we need," two present members of the board of regents, John Callahan, Superintendent of Public Instruction, the oldest regent in the service, and Daniel Grady.

Wilkie said that after the Snell matter—the dismissal of Dean Chester D. Snell of the university extension department in 1935—he told Gov. LaFollette of his conviction that a change would have to be made in the presidency. He told the Governor that Callahan and Grady were in agreement with him, and arranged a conference at which the three regents went over matters with the Governor.

At this conference, Wilkie said,
"It was agreed that Callahan should be Frank of the criticism of his administration, and that the president must meet this criticism, rather than to wait until 'the regents might be compelled to act.'"
After the Callahan interview, Frank called on Wilkie, and at the next meeting of the regents, made "a long statement charging there was a political attack on him, and implied it was the Governor who was making it."

Wilkie, at the time, replied to Frank's statement, saying that "the Governor had not only the right, but the duty, to be consulted" in the matter.

"Campaign to Belittle Opponents."
"Since the talk in the Board of Regents last spring," Wilkie said,
"there has been conducted a campaign in the press, on the radio, and through other agencies,
the burden of this campaign has been to belittle any regent who does not endorse Dr. Frank's administration to charge anyone and everyone who questions Dr.
Frank's qualifications with base and selfish motives; and to claim that there is a partisan political plot against the president of the university. The nature and methods of this campaign make it clear that the president (Frank) himself, has been actively engaged in it."
Wilkie said he had made efforts to prevent a "public airing" of the matter, and that these had failed.
Dr. Frank not having kept an appointment for a conference as to a possible adjustment, Wilkie therefore made his public statement last Wednesday.

Specific Charges.
Wilkie, conceding President Frank's "admirable qualities and great abilities," made his specific charges, which were:
(1) Mismanagement of university finances. "The university expends more than $7,000,000 a year, which comes from taxpayers and students. The evidence is unmistakable that Dr. Frank lacks the qualities of either a business or an educational administrator."
(2) Dr. Frank "has lost the confidence of those with whom he must deal. This has gone so far that it involves lack of confidence even in accuracy and dependability of statements. In the recent ath-

Nazi Christmas Party For 3,000,000 Children

Minister Goebbels Talks on Radio to Groups at 230,000 Trees—Toy and Propaganda for Each Youngster.

By the Associated Press.

BERLIN, Dec. 22.—Three million needy children gathered around 230,000 Christmas trees throughout the country last night and sang the old German Christmas song, "O Tannenbaum."

The children, each of whom received a toy from Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels, heard him tell in a radio speech of the advantages of Nazi-ism.
He told the youngsters they belonged "to the Fatherland, which not only demands sacrifice in an emergency, but gives happiness on festive occasions." He made no mention of the food shortage which has raised the price of fresh string beans to 88 cents a pound and sugar to 14½ cents.

"You children must know," he declared, "that we are again a proud, fortunate and free people.
You must appreciate this more when you look around the world and find only hatred, disorder and rioting while Germany is a quiet, fortunate island of peace."

A new regulation bars housewives from shopping around for the best prices for fats—butter, lard and the like—and tells them to confine their purchases to one store.
Some housewives, fearing a shortage of Christmas baking and cooking butter, have been buying all they could get, thus aggravating the scarcity.

Bread made of a mixture of potatoes and bran has appeared, in an effort to save wheat and rye.
Potatoes are needed for hog feed.
If potatoes are used on a large scale in bread-making, experts say, a further cut in hog-fat production must result, and fat is what is most needed.

The Frankfurter Zeitung reported there was an oats shortage because
"the army commissaries are taking all available supplies." This was the newspaper which recently predicted a million-ton wheat shortage.

It also was learned there will not be enough Christmas geese in Germany for every family, although, it was estimated, three million will be consumed.

A German trade agreement with Ireland was renewed for two years, assuring a supply of butter, eggs,
wool and hides.

It is understood that Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, Minister of Economics, hopes to get wheat from Argentina in a barter deal. Part of the country's wheat needs already have been filled in negotiations with Canada and Yugoslavia. Efforts to obtain rye from Poland are reported to have been unsuccessful.

JAPAN SAYS IT WILL KEEP 15 OVER-AGE SUBMARINES

This Is Reply to British Decision to Not Destroy Five Old Cruisers.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—Japan, replying to a British decision to retain five over-age cruisers, said in a note today it would invoke the escalator clause of the 1930 London Naval Treaty to retain a corresponding tonnage of over-age submarines (about 15 submarines).

The tonnage of British cruisers which would ordinarily have been scrapped Dec. 31 is approximately 19,000. A Japanese Embassy spokesman said Tokyo would retain this amount of submarines because its supply of over-age destroyers is insufficient to balance the British retention.

The note did not reply to the British request for extension of Article 19 of the expiring Washington Naval Treaty for maintaining the status quo of Pacific fortifications. This answer must be given before Jan. 1.

AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT TO HANDLE RESETTLEMENT

President Roosevelt to Make Change by Executive Order
About Jan. 1.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—President Roosevelt decided yesterday to make the Resettlement Administration a part of the Agriculture Department.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace said after a White House conference that the change would be made by presidential order about Jan. 1. Rexford G. Tugwell, who recently resigned as Resettlement Administrator to become an executive for a large molasses company, and Dr. W. W. Alexander, whom Tugwell picked as his successor, joined in discussing the change with Mr. Roosevelt.

The Resettlement Administration was established as an emergency agency April 30, 1935, by order of the President. The agency's personnel has been reduced to about 14, 000 from a peak of 20,000. Many of its proposed projects have been held up with the explanation that all funds were needed for relief of drought-stricken farmers.

UNION FAVORS IMPEACHING JUDGE WHO ENJOINED TVA

Nashville Labor Organization Charges Gore Defied Decision of U. S. Supreme Court.

By the Associated Press.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 22.—
The Central Labor Union of Knoxville adopted a resolution last night asking for the impeachment of Federal Judge John J. Gore "for defying a decision of the United States Supreme Court" in granting 19 power companies a temporary injunction against the Tennessee Valley Authority. It declared that "an inferior Federal Judge has seen fit for no apparent reason to decide the Supreme Court was wrong."

A hearing on the power companies' request for a permanent injunction is to be held in March.
Judge Gore accepted 35 major projects in issuing his restraining order
last week.

The resolution said the Supreme Court "could find no possible grounds to stop the Tennessee Valley Authority, and so decided this year in the Ashwander case that the TVA not only had the right and authority to build dams and power plants, but therefore must have the right and authority to build transmission lines anywhere for distribution of current so produced."

NAVAL YEARBOOK SAYS BRITAIN, U.S. LEAD ARMS RACE

States England Has 99 Ships Under Construction or Planned and Washington Has 83.

ITALY RANKS THIRD AND GERMANY FIFTH

Book Asserts There Is Little Evidence of Vast Amount of Building Reported in Russia.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—Great Britain is leading a huge world-wide naval armament race with 99 warships under construction or planned, according to the new annual edition of "Jane's Fighting Ships," foremost authority on warships, which was published today. The annual said the United States with 83 ships on the ways or planned, was second. It drew a picture of an unrestrained race for naval supremacy ready to be thrown into the open on Jan. 1, when the old Washington and London naval treaties expire.

The United States will lay down
two new battleships by 1937, Jane's stated, carrying 16-inch guns, the largest on any ship. They also will have a speed of 30 knots. The fastest United States battleship now has only 23 knots.

If Jane's is correct, it is taken here to mean that Washington has determined Japan would not consent to the 14-inch limitation imposed by the 1936 London treaty between the United States, France and Great Britain.

It generally has been expected the United States would not choose between 16 and 14-inch guns until after April 1, 1937, when Japanese consent or disapproval to the treaty limitation must be given.

Italy Ranks Third.
The year book said Italy ranked third with 66 warships being built or planned, and cited 43 for France, 39 for Germany and 38 for Japan.
Japan plans four new 35,000-ton battleships, Jane's stated, with a probable speed of 30 knots.

Pointing out that all the present construction would be completed by 1940, Jane's added: "There is little doubt but that in that year the number of new capital ships placed in commission will be greater than at any time since 1916."

Two of Japan's big warships will be started in 1937, Jane's said, but the armament was not learned.
The Russian program was not available, but the book was skeptical of recent claims to vast construction, saying: "Despite the Soviet naval commander-in-chief's assertion that the 1933 Russian Navy has been increased 715 per cent in the submarine fleet; 300 per cent in sea-going surface vessels and 175 per cent in coast defense vessels, there is little evidence of any considerable amount of new construction. Even as regards submarines, on which efforts have been chiefly concentrated, there is ground for suspecting some exaggeration."

Jane's said Great Britain also would lay down two big ships immediately after treaty expiration,
following the barring of new construction since 1922. France and Germany each have already virtually completed two 26,000-ton battleships, have started one of 35,000 tons and will go ahead with another of the same in 1937.

Installing Smaller Guns.
Italy already is building two ships of 35,000 tons, Jane's added.
It went on: "With definite abandonment of the principle of quantitative limitation by the (1936) treaty, the high tide of naval construction, so clearly foreshadowed by last year's 'fighting ships,' was set in strongly.
Not since the great war ended has such a quantity of new tonnage been authorized."

Although Great Britain and France, under the 1936 treaty, would have equal right with the United States to use 16-inch guns if that armament is placed on the American craft, Jane's said the other countries were installing guns of smaller caliber.

Jane's also noted the British were designing a special anti-aircraft defense.
It said the armor accounted for nearly half the weight of the two French 26,000-tonners and added that Germany, accordingly, had decided on heavier armament for its battleships.

Britain to Use Old Cruisers as Anti-Aircraft Ships.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—Great Britain announced today it would convert five over-age cruisers, into anti-aircraft ships. The cruisers, which will be saved from the scrapheap
by the invocation of the escalator clause of the expiring London naval treaty, thus will become the first such craft in history.

Great Britain's decision was communicated to the United States and Japanese Embassies a short time after Japan had served notice it would keep submarines of a tonnage corresponding to Britain's over age cruisers. In giving formal notice of the retention, the British note pledged the vessels would be kept in service for only five years "of peace."

Authorities said the present six-inch guns would be replaced with lighter and more suitable anti-aircraft armament.

U. S. Navy Ordnance Experts Say Size of Guns Is Undetermined.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Navy ordnance experts characterized today as "purely speculative" a statement by a British warship yearbook that the United States had decided to place 16-inch guns on two proposed new battleships.

Department had plans for either

Dec. 22.—Rescuers searched the ruins of San Vicente for bodies today. The official death toll in Saturday's earthquake remained at 250.

There were 800 injured, it was reported, in the series of shocks which leveled most of the city Saturday and Sunday.
Relief and rescue work was directed in person by Minister of the Interior Calderon, with a staff of Red Cross doctors and nurses ministering to the wounded and ill.

The volcano Santa Rita was said to have subsided and villages straggled back to the ruins of their homes.

One witness said bodies were being loaded into trucks and taken to a rural cemetery a few miles from San Vicente.

U. S. TREATY MEASURE PASSED ON FIRST READING IN PANAMA

Three Weeks' Debate on Ratification Bill Ended in Assembly.

By the Associated Press.

PANAMA CITY, Panama, Dec.
22.—The National Assembly passed on first reading last night the bill for ratification of the new treaty between Panama and the United States regulating the relations between the two countries. The vote was 18 to 2.

The vote on the measure, which must pass two more readings, came at the end of a three-weeks' debate.

The pact, sent to the United States Senate by President Roosevelt last spring, consists of four documents—a general treaty and three conventions. Each must be ratified separately to become effective.

Under the terms the United States would surrender its rights to intervene in Panama for the maintenance of order and would agree to a new arrangement for paying the canal rental.

An arrangement for the movement and training of American military and naval forces in Panama territory also is included, but the details have not been disclosed.

You Should Know This Man

THERE is a man who sometime must come into your home to attend to a burial.

Because you may have shunned thoughts of the inevitable, you may have regarded him lightly, perhaps not at all.

Yet to him you commit as much as you do to your physician.

This man is a Funeral Director.

It therefore seems only reasonable that you should make his acquaintance, at least to the extent of feeling his trustworthiness.

The accepted Funeral Director of today is college trained in his profession. He is well read and conversant with the arts. He is a gentleman in manners, utterance and deportment. His civic interests are broad; his social contacts correct.

It is quite natural to find him a business man of capacity and integrity.

Basal to all is his inborn humanitarianism. He is instinctively compassionate and sympathetic. He regards his life's work as fine duty, as service in which assistance to the living is also of vital moment. He is essentially religious and respects every one's right to his own creed or philosophy.

There are a number of such Funeral Directors in the Community of St. Louis. Men of high ideals; men who place helpfulness before aught else; men you will gladly call friend.

Inquire and search out a Funeral Director you feel worthy of your confidence. He will not fail in time of need.
His merchandise is honest; his prices just.

John L. Lewis 'Going to Town' for Automobile Workers—Recovery Strikes—La Follette Economy and University Administration Clash in Wisconsin.

By PAUL Y. ANDERSON,
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

THIS country is in for a period of industrial warfare such as it has never undergone. Make no mistake about that. A lot of strikes are in progress and there will be more of them. The two companies which make 90 per cent of the flat glass have been closed by strikes. That isn't the half of it. That is the first of a series of strikes in the automobile industry. The strike actually is aimed at Henry Ford and General Motors.

The men in the automotive industry have decided that they wish to organize, and they have asked John L. Lewis to organize them. Lewis has consented. It would seem that he already had enough on his hands in organizing the steel industry. A great many people wonder why he took on steel in the first place. It was the toughest proposition. When I asked him the question, he replied: "That's why I took it on."

Apparently, however, he has changed his mind. This change probably has resulted from the realization of the overwhelming demand of the automotive workers for organization.

Lewis will go to town. Make no mistake about that, either. And if anything happens to him, he has a lieutenant named Philip Murray in Pittsburgh who is equally determined. Phil is a lean, lithe, rosy-faced Scot. And he will go to town, too. He is six years younger than Lewis. He came to this country in 1902. He was then 16 years of age. He immediately entered the coal mines. Eight years later he was a member of the National Board of United Mine Workers. His rise may indicate why Lewis chose him as his second man.

Striking Aspect of Business Recovery.

"RECOVERY" strikes are natural phenomena. An upturn in business, yielding rising profits, usually brings industrial disturbances. At those times labor "makes its move," as they say on the race track, to maintain living standards, and to increase genuine earnings, if that is possible.

The "recovery" strikes now in progress involve all the usual causes that impel workers to "go on strike," as a means of compelling concessions from employers. These are: Grievances concerning wages and hours, demand for recognition of organization rights, and strikes in sympathy with other workmen in the same or related industries.

A striking aspect of the present situation is that a large proportion of the workers affected are members of unions which, in turn, are members of Lewis' Committee for Industrial Organization.

The unions are young and are not, as yet, hampered by labor bureaucracy. The American Federation of Labor is overrun by jobholders, with men like "Big Bill" Hatcher as the carpenter.

The young men believe that Roosevelt is for them. That probably is the chief reason they voted for him.

La Follette-Frank Fight in Wisconsin.

It has generally been supposed that the fight between Dr. Glenn Frank, president of the University of Wisconsin, and Gov. Philip La Follette, has been a political fight. It has been believed, and with reason, that these two men are candidates for the Republican nomination for President in 1940. It is a plausible and pleasing story, but it isn't true. The truth is this: Efficiency and economy are among the major objectives of the La Follette administration in Wisconsin.

In economy, La Follette set a precedent by reducing his salary as Governor. It is obvious, then, that Dr. Frank's method of administration, with constantly increasing administration expenditures, was contrary to La Follette's conception of efficiency and economy.

Cochran Enlightens New Congressman.

ANY members of the new Congress are here. Most of them have been elected as Democrats. Some have strange ideas. Day before yesterday this reporter heard Cochran of Missouri talking to one of them and he said, "Fiddle that stuff back in your district. You and the rest of us could have been in China and the only votes Roosevelt would have lost would have been ours. Get it in your head that this was a Roosevelt landslide, not a Democratic landslide."

THERE has been an immoderate amount of gossip concerning the physical condition of Justice Stone of the Supreme Court. His physical condition is as follows: He has amebic dysentery. It is a form of the malady which occurred at Chicago's Century of Progress. It is extremely weakening and debilitating and causes considerable pain.

Mr. Justice Stone's age is 64. He now is definitely recovering and if his present rate of progress continues, he will be back on the bench in a month.

Federal Spokesman for Tenant Farmers.

MARVIN JONES is the chairman of the House Committee on Agriculture. John Bankhead is its influential member of the Senate committee. Jones and Bankhead introduced a bill in both houses at the last session of Congress to lend the tenant farmers $500,000,000, to enable them to buy the farms on which they were working. The bill failed. The bill was modified and the appropriation was reduced to $50,000,000, cutting it 90 per cent of the original bill. That bill also failed.

Following this, Rex Tugwell got options on about 1000 farms in the deep South and bought them with Resettlement funds. Tugwell then set out to learn which of his rehabilitation clients were capable of farming.

Roosevelt named a commission of 40 persons to work this matter out. He called it the Farm Tenancy Commission. It included editors, educators, social workers and a great many general social uplifters. It even boasted of a secretary of the Methodist board of home missions.

The Southern Tenant Farmers' Union, which is an organization of share croppers in Arkansas, wired President Roosevelt and suggested that, since the commission was an organization for the tenant farmers, and intended for their benefit, it would perhaps be a good idea to have a tenant farmer as a member. Roosevelt accepted the idea and a new member was appointed. He was W. L. Blackstone, the Arkansas organizer for the tenant farmers on week days and a preacher on Sundays.

JULIANA ANNOUNCES HER BRIDAL PARTY

Princess Names 10 as Maids—Bridegroom Will Have 12 Attendants.

By the Associated Press.

THE HAGUE, Dec. 22.—Princess Juliana announced the bridesmaids yesterday for her marriage to Prince Bernhard Zu Lippe-Biesterfeld, which will take place Jan. 7.

It was also announced that Queen Wilhelmina would give two dinners for guests attending the wedding. They will be at the royal palace Jan. 5 and 6. Three balls are being arranged for officers of the garrison.

Juliana and her betrothed will leave the palace at 11 a. m. on their wedding day and, after the civil ceremony at City Hall, will go to a church at 11:10. The religious ceremony will be conducted by the former court preacher, Dr. W. L. Welter, and directed by the present court preacher, Dr. Obbink.

After a state drive through the streets, the pair will lunch at the palace and leave shortly afterwards on their honeymoon.

Juliana's bridesmaids will be: The Duchess Wolszka of Mecklenburg, the Duchess Thyra of Mecklenburg, the Grand Duchess Kira-Kirilovna of Russia, Princess Elisabeth Zu Lippe, Princess Sophie Zu Caxe-Weimar-Eisenach, Jonkvrouw M. J. Baroness Van Heemstra, Jonkvrouw C. E. B. Roell, Miss M. Roseboom, Miss M. Michelen Moreau, Miss M. Del Court Van Krimpen.

The bridegroom will have 12 attendants, including the Barons A. and B. von Cramm.

It is understood Queen Elizabeth of Great Britain will be unable to attend the wedding. The Duke of Kent, brother of King George VI, will attend, along with the Earl of Athlone, brother of Queen Mother Mary, and his Countess. It was understood they will not represent the British royal family officially, however, as Queen Wilhelmina regards the wedding as a family affair and is not sending invitations to foreign royalty.

GOYA WAR HORRORS PAINTING BOUGHT BY CHICAGO INSTITUTE

Scene in Madrid Uprising of 1808 Shown on Wood Panel.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—A painting in which the Spanish artist Goya depicted the horrors of war, as he observed them in the uprising in Madrid in 1808, has been sold to the Art Institute of Chicago, the Knoedler Galleries announced yesterday.

The picture reached the New York galleries from the Spanish Government, which confiscated it from the collection of Baron Adolf Kohner of Budapest in 1918.

This painting, done on a wood panel, shows a man hanged in a cave, surrounded by a soldier, a monk and four other figures.

Other purchases included the 17th century Italian painter's cross bought from E. A. Silberman Galleries, and a painting by El Greco entitled "St. Francis and the skull," obtained from Durlacher Brothers.

Vice-Consul Weds Under New Law.

By the Associated Press.

MANCHESTER, England, Dec. 22.—With President Roosevelt's approval, Myles Standish, 27-year-old United States Vice-Consul here, was married yesterday to Betty Walls, 23, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Walls. It was the first wedding approved under a new ruling which provides that United States foreign service employees must ask permission of the President to marry a foreigner.

Chinese Stone Relic Comes to City

—By a Post-Dispatch Staff Photographer.

CITY ART MUSEUM BUYS MONUMENT TO BUDDHA

Wei Dynasty Piece, Dated 505 A. D. Added to Exhibits.

The City Art Museum has acquired a rare Chinese stone, or stone monument to Buddha, a relic of the northern Wei dynasty, and dated 505 A. D., it was announced today. Such monuments were erected, as far as is known, in Chinese monasteries and similar buildings, in token of gratitude to Buddha for some blessing or averted disaster.

Of limestone and about 6 feet high, the stone is embellished with Chinese figures, the central figure being a tall standing Buddha, flanked by two smaller figures standing on lotus pedestals carried by lions, all carved in high relief against a halo, the pointed top of which is missing. The figure on the right of the Buddha carries a bottle of a type often seen in pottery among relics found on Chinese graves.

The halo of the Buddha is engraved with seven Buddha's figures and seated on lotus flowers. Outside the halo is a twisting and soaring flame pattern.

Figures carved on the front of the dais represent a squatting genie with two lions and two strange demonical figures on either side, the faces of the lions resembling those of dragons.

Depicted on the back of the stone are five Buddhist figures, one seated, and flanked by two standing figures and two others seated in a pose of meditation on a bundle of reeds. Above these figures are three rows of Buddha's seated under a canopy. Covering the rest of the back of the monument are the names of seven rows of donors, each with his name carved beside his portrait, assuring him, according to Buddhist belief, of a prepay passage to the Buddhist heaven.

A long eulogy of the virtues of Buddhism, an account of the erection of the monument by Buddhists of the Province of Chi, and the date of erection, are included in the inscription.

Purchased from Dr. C. T. Loo, a New York dealer, for $30,000, the stone is now on exhibition at the Museum in Forest Park.

Dr. Samuel H. Wilcox Dies.
Dr. Samuel H. Wilcox, a physician for many years at Carlisle, Ill., died early yesterday of high blood pressure at his home in Carlisle. He was 70 years old and had engaged in a general practice of medicine before his retirement about 12 years ago. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Lulu Wilcox; a daughter, Miss Beale Wilcox; and two sons, Howard Wilcox, Prairie du Rocher, Ill., and Dr. Claud W. Wilcox, a physician, of 7022 Tholman avenue, St. Louis. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. at Carlisle.

Former Army Chaplain Dies.
PALO ALTO, Cal., Dec. 22.—Lieutenant-Colonel George D. Riker, retired Chaplain of the United States Army, who served in the Spanish-American War, Mexican border campaign and World War, died yesterday. He was 75 years old. He held the Distinguished Service Cross for heroism in the Spanish War. He cared for wounded under fire after he had been injured by a bolo.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIPS TO TWO ST. LOUISANS

Edwin L. Skinner Jr. and Leslie Epstein Receive Awards for Oxford Study.

Rhodes scholarships for study at Oxford University in England were awarded yesterday to Edwin L. Skinner Jr., 100 Orchard avenue, Webster Groves, and Leslie Epstein, 4605 Lindell boulevard, by a committee which interviewed candidates from six states at Des Moines, Ia.

Skinner and Epstein were high in an examination of Missouri candidates held here last Thursday and went to Des Moines yesterday to appear before the regional examining committee, which had four scholarships to award. They and two other young men were selected from among the 12 who were interviewed.

The scholarships provide stipends of about $2000 a year for three years. No restrictions are placed on the subjects for study.

Skinner, 22 years old, is an instructor in Latin and public speaking at Country Day School, of which he is a graduate. He was graduated last June from Princeton University, where his major studies were Latin and Greek. He expects to continue those studies at Oxford.

Epstein, who is 21, was graduated in 1935 from the University of Illinois and since then has been a student in the Washington University Medical School. He will continue the study of medicine at the English university.

Other states represented in the regional examinations were Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota, and South Dakota. The other two young men who received scholarships are residents of St. Paul, Minn. and Manhattan, Kan.

MRS. MARY H. BOWE FUNERAL

83-Year-Old East St. Louis Woman to Be Buried Tomorrow.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Hennessey Bove, 83 years old, who died of infirmities of age Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edmund M. Beckette, 1811 Ohio avenue, East St. Louis, will be held at 9 a. m. tomorrow at St. Joseph's Church, 400 Columbia place. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery.

She had lived in East St. Louis for 50 years. Her father was first superintendent of jails in East St. Louis and her brother the first town marshal. Besides Mrs. Beckette, she is survived by another daughter, Miss Catherine Hennessey, and a son, Leo.

MRS. MARY F. MUELLER DIES

Succumbs at 96; 16 Great Grandchildren Among Survivors.

Mrs. Mary Fink Mueller, 96 years old, died yesterday of infirmities of age at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emil Eisebraun, 1010A Bittner street. She had lived all her life in Black Jack, St. Louis County, and in North St. Louis.

Besides Mrs. Eisebraun, she is survived by three daughters, four sons, 18 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. The funeral will be at 1:30 p. m. Thursday at St. Stephen's Evangelical Church, 1114 Perry road and Gimlin street. Burial will be in St. John's Cemetery.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

THE wedding of Miss Mary Emily Rieckey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Branch Rieckey, Country Life Acres, and John Eckler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eckler, Elvira, O., took place last night at 8 o'clock, at the Rieckey home, in an elaborate holiday setting. The Rev. Dr. Loren M. Edwards, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church officiated.

The ceremony was held in a marquee, built off the living room into the garden, where growing evergreen trees were inclosed. To the natural greenery was added many white Christmas trees which were also used as a background for an improvised altar of standing baskets of white snapdragon and tall candelabra filled with lighted white tapers.

An aisle from the living room to the altar was marked by standards of the white blossoms and cathedral candles in holders. Smilax garlanded the walls and ceiling of the marquee, and decorated the rooms of the lower floor of the house in which many frosted trees were again used. A touch of color was introduced in the decorations of the sunroom, where red poinsettias were used with holly wreaths.

Miss Jane Rieckey was maid of honor for her sister. The bridesmaids were Miss Alice Rieckey, a younger sister; Miss Julia Rieckey, Portsmouth, O., a cousin; Miss Anjanee Pendexter, Chicago; Mrs. Branch Rieckey Jr., Ann Arbor, Mich., and Miss Madeline Pape, Branch Rieckey Jr., was best man for Mr. Eckler. Hubert Wittee and Ritchie Davis, both of Chicago; William Russell, Delaware, O., Frank Proctor and James Taylor were groomsmen.

Mr. Rieckey gave his daughter in marriage. She wore her mother's wedding gown of ivory French chiffon and handmade lace over deep tints of satin. The gown was fashioned with a lace yoke and long leg o' mutton sleeves, and a full skirt, composed of alternate bands of lace and chiffon fell into a train. Her veil, also of real lace, was arranged from a shallow cap of lace trimmed at the back with lilies of the valley. The bridal bouquet was of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

The bride's attendants were dressed alike in costumes of green slipper satin. The maid of honor wore Nile green and the bridesmaids were in a lettuce tone. Their frocks were made on princess lines with yokes of matching chiffon. The high necklines were finished with ruching of the chiffon and the butterfly sleeves of satin were elbow length. The skirts, close fitting, flared into a short train. They carried bouquets of white roses and stevia. Mrs. Rieckey was gowned in French blue lace and Mrs. Eckler wore a gown of coronation blue lace.

The bridal march was played on the organ in the Rieckey home by Miss Katherine Carmichael. A reception was held immediately after the ceremony. The table was centered by a silver bowl of white roses and other white flowers. More of the flowers decorated the dining room which was lighted by peach-toned tapers.

Mr. Eckler and his bride will take a short trip, returning to spend Christmas with her parents, after which they will make their home in Chicago.

Among the out-of-town guests were the bride's grandfather, J. Frank Rieckey, Portsmouth, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Veach, Columbus, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Moulton, Portsmouth, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eckler, parents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Pendexter, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burkham, who traveled around the world on their honeymoon, arrived in St. Louis yesterday and will occupy an apartment at 4681 McPherson avenue. Mrs. Burkham was Miss Sally Wright of Reading, Pa.

Christmas decorations in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Burns, 30 Lenox place, will form a background for a cocktail party this evening from 6 to 8 o'clock. About 75 guests are invited in honor of Miss Blanche and Miss Virginia Fischel, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Fischel, 14 Lenox place. Miss Blanche, a student at Smith College, is home for the holidays.

Mrs. Clarence H. Fielder, 7029 Kingsbury boulevard, entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon today at the Glen Echo Country Club in honor of Miss Adele Baur, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Baur, 15 Ridgemoor drive. Red and white carnations supplied the Christmas motif at a large table seating the guests, while smilax trailed from the center bouquet. Favors were imported cut glass perfume bottles in pastel hues. A corsage of violets was at Miss Baur's place.

Guests were: Miss Baur, Miss Marjorie and Miss Carol McCarthy, Miss Muriel Gross, Miss McCarthy's guest from Elizabeth, N. J.; Miss Susan Thompson and her two guests, Miss Kathryn Crowe and Miss Elizabeth Moore, (her third guest, Miss Martha O'Brien, returned Sunday to Louisville, Ky.); Miss Mary Louise Nolker, Miss Effie Virginia Zeitig and her house guest, Miss Dorothy Drummond of Chicago; Miss Nancy Bascom, Miss Ruth Donnell, Miss Florence Fleishel, Miss Mary Alice Collins, Miss Adhen Knight, Miss Betty Hulburd, Miss Elaine Meyer, Miss Jean Hopkins, Miss Betty Wing of Mamaroneck, N. Y., Miss Baur's guest, Miss Dorothy Ann Mummert, and Miss Grizelda Polk.

At a smaller table, decorated like the larger one, Mrs. Fielder was seated with Mrs. Baur, Mrs. Fred Hume and Mrs. J. Arden Mummert. Silver candlesticks with red candles were on both tables. Mrs. Sydney A. Weber, 7141 Washington boulevard, will entertain this evening from 4 to 6 o'clock at a tea at her home in honor of Mrs. Frank Brooman, 7150 Stanford avenue. A Santa Claus and his sleigh will be on a reflection on the tea table, while tall, red, lighted candles in the tops of red cellophane trees will be placed at each corner of the mirror. Ice cream will be served from a white snow mound on which white figures are represented as skating and sliding.

Those who will serve are Mrs. Robert Arthur, Mrs. Russell Foster, Mrs. Clarence Howard Jr., Mrs. Ellis Crawford, Mrs. Leonard Woods, Mrs. Hugh Sullivan, Mrs. Lyman Barrows, Mrs. Alfred J. Cone and Mrs. Neal S. Wood.

Miss Dorothy Fairbank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Fairbank, 6512 Waterman boulevard, is entertaining at a 1 o'clock luncheon tomorrow at her home in honor of about 20 of her former John Burroughs' classmates. Most of these girls are away at school this winter, and Miss Fairbank has returned for the holidays from Yassar, where she is a freshman.

The tea, which Miss Blair Bunting daughter of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. John S. Bunting, planned for this afternoon has been postponed until tomorrow. Miss Blair is a student at Sweet Briar College.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Willard Klose Jr. have sent invitations for a cocktail party from 5 to 7 o'clock Dec. 30 at their home, 5602 Kingsbury court.

TWO parties, each with a completely different setting, are planned for the debut of Miss Mary Louise Nolker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Nolker this afternoon and tonight at Bellevue Country Club. A reception for several hundred friends of Miss Nolker and her mother at which all the debutantes will arrive, will be held from 3 to 5 o'clock this afternoon. At 10 o'clock the debutantes will be entertained at a ball. Two friends and classmates of the debutante will receive with Miss Nolker—Miss Julia Mason of Winnetka, Ill., and Miss Priscilla Hawley of Kenilworth, Ill., both students at Smith College. Miss Nolker, also a student at Smith, arrived home a week ago. She is the third debutante to be introduced to society during the holidays.

Two dinners will be given between reception and ball. Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark Street will give a dinner tonight at their home, 36 Kingsbury place, in honor of Miss Susan Thompson and Miss Mary Alice Collins, preceding Miss Nolker's debut ball. Thirty guests, including Miss Elizabeth Moore and Miss Kathryn Crowe, who are visiting Miss Thompson, and Miss Muriel Gross who is the guest of Mrs. Marjorie McCarthy, will be seated about one large table, which will be decorated with pink roses, the debutante flower, white carnations and Persian blue candles.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Earl Hulburd and their debutante daughter, Miss Betty, will entertain a group of the debutantes and their escorts at dinner at their home in honor of Miss Nolker and Miss Betty Lewis Frazier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian W. Frazier. Miss Frazier, a student at Sweet Briar College, will make her debut at a luncheon with Miss Florence Fleishel at the St. Louis Woman's Club Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Imboden Parrish, 262 Woodbourne drive, will give a cocktail party at their home tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock, for Mr. Parrish's parents, Dr. and Mrs. George Parrish and their daughter, Miss Etelka Parrish of Los Angeles, Cal., formerly of St. Louis. Dr. and Mrs. Parrish and Miss Parrish will arrive today to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Imboden Parrish.

Mrs. Hugh Sterling, Santa Monica, Cal., formerly of St. Louis, has announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Caroline, and Leslie Van Eghman. The ceremony was performed by Mrs. Connelly at St. Monica's Catholic Church, Thursday, Dec. 17.

Mrs. Julia Laughlin Boehmer, 4528 Maryland avenue, will entertain a hundred members of the school set at her home tonight at a dancing party. The crypt of her home has been converted into a night club scene for the evening. There will be a German band and other features of entertainment.

BAKED SCALLOPS

One pint scallops.
One pair sweetbreads, cooked.
Four tablespoonfuls fat.
Four large mushrooms, sliced.
Three tablespoonfuls flour.
Two cupfuls milk.
Salt and paprika.
One cupful dry bread crumbs.
Wash scallops in cold water.
drain, cover with cold water and bring to boiling point. Simmer for 15 minutes. Cut the cooked sweetbreads into cubes and the scallops, if large, into halves or quarters. Melt two tablespoonfuls of the fat and saute the mushrooms in it until golden brown. Combine with the scallops and sweetbreads.
Make cream sauce with remaining fat, flour, milk and seasonings and add to scallop mixture. Place in greased casserole, sprinkle with bread crumbs and bake in a hot oven for about 10 minutes.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS HELD

Manufacturers' Representatives Select Executives for Year.
At the annual election of the St. Louis Association of Manufacturers Representatives held at the Hotel Statler yesterday, H. G. Kline of the Associated Brokerage Co. was elected president. H. O. Weber of Weber Kraut Co. and Sid Wildberger of Colonial Salt Co. were elected vice-presidents. W. S. Gordon of Martin-Gillette was elected secretary and A. J. Danneker, General Food Sales Co., treasurer. Board members appointed to serve for the year 1937 are A. G. Baumhauer, G. J. Gay, R. Maurath, William Brown and C. Herbel.

Caramel Meringue Icing.
Two egg whites.
One cup brown sugar.
One-half cup chopped nuts.
One teaspoon vanilla.
Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry; fold in sugar gradually, and beat with flat beater until smooth. Add flavoring and nuts and spread on cake batter. Bake as above directed.

RECIPES FOR CHRISTMAS MENUS

Cranberry Frost.
Combine two cups canned cranberry juice and one tablespoon lemon juice. Beat one egg white until stiff. Add cranberry mixture and beat until foamy. Pour into individual glasses. Chill. Top each glass with a dash of nutmeg. Serves six.

Stuffed Oranges.
Six oranges
Six sweet potatoes
Orange slices for garnish
Butter
Salt
Pepper
Cut a slice off the top of each orange and scoop out the pulp. Pare and boil sweet potatoes. Mash and mix with some of the orange pulp, season with salt, pepper and butter. Fill the orange cups with this mixture and place in the oven to heat. Place orange cups around roast goose, pork or ham. Just before serving top each orange cup with slice of fresh Florida orange, and garnish with red cherry or cranberry.

Sherry Bisque Ice Cream.
One cup milk
Two eggs, separated
One teaspoon flour
Three tablespoon sugar
One-eighth teaspoon salt
One-half cup sherry
One cup whipped cream
One-half cup macaroon crumbs
Scald milk, add sugar, flour and salt. Pour a little of this mixture into the beaten egg yolks, stirring to keep smooth. Return to saucepan and cook, stirring constantly until it coats the spoon. Set aside to cool. Beat egg white until stiff. When custard is cool fold in beaten egg whites. Freeze in freezing tray until mushy. Then fold in whipped cream. Add sherry and macaroon crumbs last. Return to refrigerator, stir once after one hour's freezing and freeze for three or four hours.

Baked Ham.
One eight-pound ham.
Two teaspoons mustard.
Four tablespoons brown sugar.
Whole cloves.
Three cups white wine.
Boil the ham slowly for one hour. Remove from water and place in a baking pan. Remove tough skin and score the fat to form squares. Rub well with the mustard and sugar mixture which has been stirred together and place a whole clove in each square. Put in the oven and bake for one and one-half hours, basting liberally with the wine.

Pumpkin Ice Cream Tarts.
One tablespoon corn starch.
Three-fourths cup sugar.
One-half teaspoon cinnamon.
One-fourth teaspoon ginger.
One cup milk.
Two beaten egg yolks.
Three-fourths cup cooked sieved pumpkin.
One-fourth teaspoon salt.
One-half cup cream, whipped.
Two egg whites stiffly beaten.
One-third cup pecans.
Mix together the corn starch, sugar, cinnamon and ginger. Add milk and beaten egg yolks and cook over hot water until thick, stirring constantly. Add the pumpkin and salt and cool. Fold in whipped cream and egg whites. Pour into freezing tray and freeze, stirring twice during the first half hour. Add the pecan meats and finish freezing. Serve in tart shells garnished with whipped cream and chopped candied orange peel. This amount serves six.

FAMILY WILL NOT OBJECT TO THIS PUMPKIN PIE

The family will not object to a pumpkin pie with a high meringue like this.
Pumpkin Pie with Ginger Meringue.
One egg.
One and a half cups cooked pumpkin.
One-half teaspoon salt.
One-half teaspoon ginger.
Unbaked pie shell.
Two eggs, separated.
Two-thirds cup sugar.
One teaspoon cinnamon.
One and a half cups evaporated milk.
Beat eggs and two yolks. Add remaining ingredients. Pour into unbaked pie shell and bake. When done top with meringue made by beating egg whites until stiff and folding in one-fourth cup sugar and one tablespoon crushed candied ginger. Brown meringue as usual. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) for 10 minutes and then reduce the heat to moderate (350 degrees) and continue baking for 50 minutes. This amount makes one pie.

Prebuttered rolls for the holiday luncheon or buffet supper should be most welcome to the hostess who entertains a great deal. These look novel and taste delicious.

Butter Flakes Rolls.
Two cakes compressed yeast
One-quarter cup sugar
One and one-half cups warm buttermilk

One teaspoon salt
One-half cup soft butter
Five cups flour
One-half teaspoon soda
Crumble yeast into a bowl and add sugar. Pour over the buttermilk and let stand for 10 minutes. Add the salt and butter. Sift together the soda and flour and beat in until smooth. Brush top with butter. Place bowl over warm, not hot, water. When very light (about 35 minutes) turn out without stirring onto floured cloth. With floured, covered rolling pin, roll out as thin as possible. Brush dough very lightly with flour. Place flat on the dough a cooked sheet or large flat pan. Cut along edge of pan in strips two inches wide. Cut strips into squares. Brush with melted butter. Set in warm place. When very light (about 10 minutes) bake at 400 degrees 20 minutes. Rolls separate in layers easily and require no butter when eaten. Makes two dozen.

Foreign Christmas Cakes Add to Holiday Spirit

Traditional Cakes, Once Offerings to the God Yeol, Are Made in Many Homes.

Fragrant with honey and rose water, aromatic with spices and heavy with fruits, Christmas breads from far lands make their contribution to the gaiety of the holiday season. Because the ancient Yule feast was held in honor of the gods many breads and cakes were made in symbolic shapes and figures.

One of these breads is the Scandinavian Julekage or Yule Cake. Originally, slices of this sweet bread were toasted and soaked in spiced ale as a peace offering to the god Yeol who ruled over the winter solstice. Some of this cake was kept until New Year's day to insure good fortune throughout the year.

Saffron Used.
Saffron is commonly used as a coloring for Christmas cakes and breads. One kind of English Christmas bread consists of three saffron-colored biscuits of graduated size placed on top of each other and baked.

Christstollen are still seen in German bakeries but they have been replaced by the plain stollen which is a sweetened bread filled with fruit. Christstollen are so called because they are made up in the form of a child to represent the Christ child.

Another of the many excellent foreign Christmas breads is the Austrian Fruchtbrot or Fruit Bread. One kind, made by the Austrian peasants, is a sweet yeast bread made of yeast dough to which are added nuts and dried fruits, chiefly apples, apricots, peaches and pears. The dried fruits are soaked in water which is drained and used in making the sponge. The feast cake of Greece, made

English Yule Cake.
One cup lukewarm water.
One cake compressed yeast.
Four cups flour.
One teaspoon salt.
One cup sugar.
One cup butter.
Two eggs.
One teaspoon grated nutmeg.
Two cups currants.
One-half cup chopped candied fruit peel.
Soften yeast in the water to which one teaspoon sugar has been added. Add one cup flour. Beat thoroughly and set in a warm place to rise until light and bubbly. Cream butter and sugar together, add well-beaten eggs. Add to yeast mixture. Add chopped peel and currants and remaining flour. Beat thoroughly to make a smooth thick batter. Pour into greased loaf pans, filling them half full. Set in a warm place to rise and when light bake in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees) 40 or 45 minutes. Yields two medium-sized loaves.

Feast Cake of Greece.
One-half cup milk.
One-fourth cup butter.
One-fourth cup sugar.
Two cakes compressed yeast.
Two cups flour.
Two eggs.
Scald milk and add butter and sugar. When lukewarm add yeast and then half the flour. Beat to a smooth batter. Add well-beaten eggs and then the remaining flour. Turn dough out on floured board and knead until smooth. Place in a greased bowl, cover and let rise in a warm place until doubled in bulk. When light shape into three round loaves and place them on a greased baking sheet in form of a three-petaled flower. Cover and let rise again. Bake for 45 minutes in a moderate oven (375 degrees). When cooked glaze with uncooked icing and garnish with nuts and fruits.

Norwegian Julekage.
One-half cup butter.
Three tablespoons sugar.
Two cups milk.
One cake yeast.
Three tablespoons lukewarm water.
Three eggs, well beaten.
Six and one-half cups flour.
One cup raisins.
One cup currants.
One cup candied citron.
One-half teaspoon ground cardamom seeds.
Soften yeast in lukewarm water. Scald milk, add butter and sugar. When cool, add two cups flour and beat thoroughly. Add softened yeast and well beaten eggs and fruit. Stir in remaining flour to which cardamom seeds have been added. When too stiff to stir knead until dough is smooth and does not stick to board. Set in warm place to rise. When light, knead down slightly. Put into loaf pans, brush lightly with milk and sprinkle with sugar. Let rise until double in bulk and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) for one hour. Yields two large or three medium size loaves.

German Almond Bread.
Two eggs.
One cup brown sugar.
One square unsweetened chocolate.
One cup blanched chopped almonds.
Two cups flour.
Two teaspoons baking powder.
One-quarter teaspoon cinnamon.
One-half teaspoon salt.
One-half teaspoon vanilla.

Beat together the eggs and sugar. Grate chocolate and add it and almonds. Sift together the flour, salt, cinnamon and baking powder and add gradually. Add vanilla. Pat into greased cake pans and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) for 20 minutes. While still warm cut into strips. Yields two nine-inch cakes.

Feather White Cake.
Three cups cake flour.
Three teaspoons baking powder.
One-half teaspoon salt.
Two-thirds cup shortening.
One and one-fourth cups sugar.
One cup milk.
One teaspoon vanilla.
Sift flour, baking powder and salt together three times. Cream together shortening and sugar until fluffy. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk. Add vanilla. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into two greased nine-inch layer cake pans. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 35 minutes.

Chocolate Christmas Cake.
One-half cup shortening.
One and one-fourth cups sugar.
Two eggs.
Four ounces unsweetened chocolate.
One and three-fourths cups flour.
Few grains salt.
One cup milk.
One teaspoon soda.
One teaspoon vanilla.
Cream shortening, add sugar

THIS WELL-KNOWN COOKIE RECIPE INCLUDES BLACK WALNUTS

A GREAT many Christmas holidays are not complete without the well-known oatmeal cookie. This recipe includes black walnut:

Oatmeal Cookies.
Three-fourths cups of butter.
One cup sugar.
Six tablespoons milk.
Two cups flour.
One-half teaspoon baking powder.

Two teaspoons cinnamon.
One cup chopped raisins.
Two cups oatmeal.
One cup black walnuts.
Cream together the sugar and butter, add the eggs well beaten and the milk. Sift together the flour, baking powder and cinnamon. Mix in the oatmeal, the raisins and nuts and last of all the flour. Mix one-half teaspoon soda and dissolve in three tablespoons warm water and add last of all. Drop on a greased cookie sheet and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees for 12 or 15 minutes).

gradually, and cream together until fluffy. Add well-beaten eggs. Melt chocolate and add. Add salt to flour. Sift. Add soda and vanilla to milk. Add flour and mix mixture alternately to batter. Pour into two greased nine-inch square layer cake pans. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 30 minutes.

ROAST BEEF ENGLISH CHRISTMAS MEAT

Basted With Its Own Juices and Served With Yorkshire Pudding.

The Christmas dinner is, in most families, one of the most important meals of the year. Possibly it is second only to the Thanksgiving dinner, and perhaps it is an even more elaborate feast than that of the November holiday.

For the Christmas dinner a great many people in this country have borrowed an idea from England. A Christmas dinner in the British Isles is hardly complete without a roast of beef, browned to a turn, basted with its own juices, and complemented with tasty pieces of Yorkshire pudding. The roast of beef of Old England is never as popular as on Christmas day.

Roast Rib of Beef.
You can obtain a fine roast of beef at the usual retail meat store. The Institute of American Meat Packers recommends a rib roast as the best cut to buy for this purpose. Some housewives prefer to have the bones left in the roast, to make it a "standing rib roast," while others favor the rolled roast with the ribs removed. The attributes that make roast rib of beef so popular are found in equal amounts in either the standing or the rolled rib roast. Fortunately roast rib of beef is one of the easiest cuts of meat to prepare. Here is a recipe which has been tested:

Wipe the meat with a damp cloth, and rub salt and pepper on the roast, allowing three-quarters of a teaspoon of salt and one-eighth of a teaspoon of pepper for each pound of meat. Dredge the roast with flour and place it on a rack in a roasting pan. The oven should be hot—about 500 degrees F. Sear the meat for 20 to 30 minutes until it is lightly browned, then reduce the oven temperature to about 300 degrees. F, and continue the cooking until the meat has reached the desired state of doneness. If you want to serve a rare roast, it should be cooked about 18 minutes per pound; a medium roast should be cooked about 22 minutes to the pound, and a well done roast requires about 30 minutes to the pound. The roast should be basted carefully during cooking to prevent drying out.

Serve with Yorkshire Pudding.
One of the points about a roast rib of beef is that it can be served with almost any other food or foods. You do not have to worry about whether the roast will go well with other foods which you may have thought of for your Christmas dinner. One of the finest points in favor of serving a roast of beef is that if there is any left after the roast is originally served—a situation which prevails far less often than you might imagine—the roast beef which remains is utilisable in a number of delightful ways. For example, cold roast beef is a favorite food, and is equally as appreciated in the cold weather as it is when it joins other cold meats on the hot weather plate. Roast beef hash is a dish which appeals in a manner far greater than you might imagine from the name.

POP CORN IS PART OF THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT
POPCORN is as much a part of the Christmas spirit as is the tree and plum pudding. Corn that is too dry will not pop very successfully. For each pound of corn add two tablespoons water and put all together in a quart jar. Screw top on and shake. Allow to stand for two days.

A close covered utensil, such as a skillet or saucepan, is excellent for popping. Put two or three tablespoons lard into the container, add some salt and let it heat. Then add popcorn and shake well over the flame.

Corn right off the flame can be made even more delectable. Place freshly popped corn in a warm oven for 30 minutes and it will be found very tender at the end of that time.

When appetites need tweaking! serve Brooks Tomato Soup.

Chemists have given attention to by-products which might be salvaged from low-grade but wholesome fruit—for example, the maraschino, peach, cordials, and wines. They have studied problems incidental to the canned orange juice industry, working toward improvement of flavor, color and keeping quality.

When the housewife goes to buy oranges she has her choice of smaller or larger ones, running from 120 to 210 to the box. Those in the 120 to 150 range are boxed in good family sizes, but sometimes the small thin-skinned oranges contain plenty of juice and are good bargains. Oranges sold in colored tags are usually marked as to

PUDDINGS AND SAUCE GIVE FESTIVE TOUCH

Flaming Plum Pudding Served With Hot or Cold Sauce Is Proper Ending.

Each year there arises the question of what to have for dessert on the holiday dinner menu. Some families feel that the dinner is incomplete without mince or pumpkin pie, while others insist on the English plum pudding.

The interest in a pudding usually centers about the sauce. If you have always yearned for the flaming pudding that you have read about it is possible to have one without too much fuss and bother. Brandy or a fruit flavored cordial is poured over the pudding and then lighted. The liquor must be high in alcoholic content or the flame will not even last until you get your pudding on the table. The suggestion is that you light it just before you carry it in and let the guests have the pleasure of watching the blue flames.

Sauce is served separately and passed when the flames have subsided. There are numerous recipes for plum pudding and sauces and a few of these are given below.

Ingold's Pudding.
Mix one pound raisins, one pound currants, one pound sugar, one pound suet, one pound flour and bread crumbs. Add one tablespoon candied orange peel, one-half teaspoon allspice, a little nutmeg, rind of one lemon, and eight eggs, well beaten and two wineglasses of brandy or rum. Mix well and tie up into two floured pudding bags and boil for several hours. This amount makes two large puddings.

Steamed Christmas Pudding.
One-half cup margarine.
One-half cup molasses.
One-half cup sugar.
One egg, beaten.
One teaspoon baking soda.
One teaspoon cinnamon.
One-half teaspoon ginger.
One-half teaspoon clove.
One-fourth teaspoon nutmeg.
Three and one-half cups flour.
One-half cup chopped dates.
One cup chopped layer figs.
One cup chopped raisins.

Sift together the dry ingredients, except the sugar, and mix thoroughly with the fruits. Melt the margarine and combine with the milk, which should be slightly warm. Add the molasses and the egg, beaten light, and beat in the remaining ingredients. Transfer to a well-oiled and floured pudding mould, which should be two-thirds filled. Cover closely and steam steadily four hours. Serve with orange hard sauce.

Plum Pudding.
One-half pound bread crumbs.
One pound raisins.

STUFFING IMPORTANT TO CHRISTMAS MEAT

Even if You Do Not Choose Traditional Fowl, Meat Needs Dressing.

No matter what the main dish is about which you choose to build your Christmas dinner, stuffing is an important point. Most families choose goose for Christmas, while others have turkey or lamb or pork.

If your choice is goose you will want to see that it is young. A soft yellow bill and soft fat feet are the best signs of a young goose and most housekeepers depend on these. If the goose is fairly fat it is a good idea to remove as much of this as possible in order to prevent the greasy taste to which so many people object. Strips of fat salt pork laid across the breast during roasting will prevent the meat's drying out.

A fruit stuffing is considered best for the goose though many prefer the usual turkey dressing.

Apple Prune Dressing.
(For Goose.)
One good sized apple peeled, cored and sliced.
Two tablespoons cracker crumbs
One-half teaspoon salt
One-half pound prunes
Two tablespoons seeded raisins
One-quarter teaspoon sugar
One egg, well beaten
Four boiling water over prunes and raisins and let stand five minutes. Remove stones from prunes. Add cracker crumbs, seasoning and egg and then apples. If this dressing is too rich more cracker or bread crumbs may be added or the

LAST-MINUTE SWEETS FOR THE HOLIDAYS

May Be Made at Home With Little Trouble and Are Always Acceptable.

A great many home cooking experts delight in giving home-made candy as Christmas gifts. There are so many candies that may be made at home with very little trouble and the giving and receiving of these gaily wrapped sweets is always a pleasure.

While candy thermometers are not an absolute necessity they are more dependable than the usual cold water tests. An enamel saucepan and a spatula are part of the equipment necessary.

Chocolate Nut Roll.
Eight squares semi-sweet chocolate
One-half cup sifted confectioners sugar
Two tablespoons milk
One egg, well beaten
One cup broken nut meats

Heat chocolate over boiling water until partly melted; then remove and stir until entirely melted. Add sugar, milk and egg and beat only enough to blend. Add nuts and mix well. Shape into four rolls three-fourths of an inch in diameter. Let stand to harden. Then cut crosswise into half-inch slices. This amount makes about five dozen slices.

Grand Operas.
Two cups sugar
Two-thirds cup heavy cream
One cup milk
Four tablespoons light syrup
One-fourth teaspoon salt
One-half teaspoon vanilla
One cup broken nut meats

Four squares semi-sweet chocolate
Combine sugar, cream, milk, corn syrup and salt and heat until sugar is dissolved and the mixture boils. Stir constantly. When mixture boils stir occasionally and cook until a small amount of syrup dropped in cold water forms a soft ball that can be lifted out. (234 degrees.) Cool to lukewarm (110 degrees) and add vanilla. Beat until mixture begins to thicken; then add nut meats and continue beating until mixture loses its gloss. Turn at once into a greased pan. Heat chocolate over boiling water until partly melted. Remove and stir rapidly until completely melted. Pour over candy and cool until firm. Cut in squares. This amount makes 64 pieces.

Almond Butter Crunch.
One cup butter.
One-half cup chopped blanched almonds, lightly toasted.
Four squares semi-sweet chocolate.

Add butter to sugar in saucepan. Place over low flame and stir constantly until sugar is dissolved. Cook until a small amount of mixture becomes very brittle in cold water (310 degrees) stirring occasionally to prevent scorching. Add one-fourth cup of nuts. Pour into a lightly buttered 8 by 8 pan and cool. Heat chocolate over hot water until partly melted then stir until smooth. Spread one-half chocolate over the top and sprinkle with half the remaining nuts. Cool until chocolate is firm. Invert crunch and cover with remaining chocolate. Cool until chocolate is firm and break into pieces. Makes one and one-fourth pounds of crunch.

Raisin Toffee.
One cup sugar.
One-half cup water.
Three-fourths cup butter.
One teaspoon vanilla.
One cup seedless raisins.
One-half pound dipping chocolate.
One cup chopped walnut kernels.

Boil together sugar and water to dissolve the grain, then add butter slowly in small pieces, stirring constantly to keep it mixed. Cook until it will form a very hard crack (300 degrees) when tested in cold water. Remove from fire; add vanilla and raisins. Pour into a greased pan. When cold remove it to an oiled paper. Break chocolate into pieces and place in top of a double boiler. When water begins to steam (100 degrees) in the lower part remove from fire and allow chocolate to stand about 10 minutes. Stir until creamy and melted. Spread a thin layer on one side of the candy and sprinkle liberally with chopped nuts. Turn candy over and treat the other side the same way. After the chocolate sets the candy may be cut or broken into pieces. This improves on standing.

A hard crack means that the candy snaps when it touches the cold water.

Fruit Chews.
One cup chopped dried figs.
One cup chopped prunes.
One cup chopped raisins.
One cup granulated sugar.
Three-fourths cup corn syrup.
One-fourth cup water.
One-fourth teaspoon salt.
Three-fourths cup marshmallow creme.

Two tablespoons cocoa butter or nut margarine.
One teaspoon vanilla.
Dipping chocolate.

To prepare dried fruits, rinse in hot water, dry thoroughly and slice with scissors or chop with bowl and cutter. Boil sugar, corn syrup and water until it forms a brittle crack when tested in cold water (275 degrees F.). Remove from fire, add salt, and stir in the marshmallow creme and cocoa butter. Add vanilla and fruits, mix well, and pour into a greased pan. When cold, cut into small pieces, or into bars, and dip in chocolate.

For Fancy Sandwiches.
Cutting a loaf of bread lengthwise instead of crosswise saves about two-thirds of the waste if one is making sandwiches which are to be cut in fancy shapes.

STUFFING IMPORTANT TO CHRISTMAS MEAT

One cup sugar.
One-half cup water.
Three-fourths cup butter.
One teaspoon vanilla.
One cup seedless raisins.
One-half pound dipping chocolate.
One cup chopped walnut kernels.

Boil together sugar and water to dissolve the grain, then add butter slowly in small pieces, stirring constantly to keep it mixed. Cook until it will form a very hard crack (300 degrees) when tested in cold water. Remove from fire; add vanilla and raisins. Pour into a greased pan. When cold remove it to an oiled paper. Break chocolate into pieces and place in top of a double boiler. When water begins to steam (100 degrees) in the lower part remove from fire and allow chocolate to stand about 10 minutes. Stir until creamy and melted. Spread a thin layer on one side of the candy and sprinkle liberally with chopped nuts. Turn candy over and treat the other side the same way. After the chocolate sets the candy may be cut or broken into pieces. This improves on standing.

A hard crack means that the candy snaps when it touches the cold water.

Fruit Chews.
One cup chopped dried figs.
One cup chopped prunes.
One cup chopped raisins.
One cup granulated sugar.
Three-fourths cup corn syrup.
One-fourth cup water.
One-fourth teaspoon salt.
Three-fourths cup marshmallow creme.

Two tablespoons cocoa butter or nut margarine.
One teaspoon vanilla.
Dipping chocolate.

To prepare dried fruits, rinse in hot water, dry thoroughly and slice with scissors or chop with bowl and cutter. Boil sugar, corn syrup and water until it forms a brittle crack when tested in cold water (275 degrees F.). Remove from fire, add salt, and stir in the marshmallow creme and cocoa butter. Add vanilla and fruits, mix well, and pour into a greased pan. When cold, cut into small pieces, or into bars, and dip in chocolate.

For Fancy Sandwiches.
Cutting a loaf of bread lengthwise instead of crosswise saves about two-thirds of the waste if one is making sandwiches which are to be cut in fancy shapes.

FRUIT SOUP HAS ATTRACTION DURING HOLIDAY SEASON

Youngsters who go skating or coasting these winter evenings are sure to be clamoring for something good to eat when they return. A bowl of hot soup is always satisfying and conducive to a sound sleep afterward. Fruit soups, though somewhat of a novelty in this country, are commonly served in Scandinavian lands and are considered especially appropriate for the yuletide season. So give your youngsters, and oldsters, too, a treat by serving the following delicious soup some cold wintry evening during the holidays.

Oatmeal Prune Soup.
Two cups prunes.
One cup seedless raisins.
Six cups water.
Two slices lemon.
One-fourth cup sugar.
Two sticks cinnamon.
One cup rolled oats.
Three cups water.
One and one-half teaspoons salt.
One-half pint cream.
Rinse prunes and raisins; combine with lemon, water and cinnamon, and boil 45 minutes. Stir rolled oats into boiling salted water, set over hot water, and cook 45 minutes. Add sugar to fruit, then add cereal, either plain or run through a sieve. When well blended, combine with cream and serve hot with toast cubes.

Remember, Mother, plenty of Florida Tangerines for the Christmas stockings!

DROP a hint to Santa Claus. The youngsters will be heartbroken if he forgets to leave them tangerines. How they love this sweet, juicy fruit that is so easy for little fingers to peel—so easy on little digestions, too! Tangerines won't upset the stomach like rich, heavy sweets. So be wise, Mother. Have plenty on hand for Christmas.

Remember that grown folks like tangerines, too. Fill your fruit bowl with them. Their gay color gives Christmas cheer to the table. And how refreshing they taste after a hearty meal—a real aid to digestion, too!

Add tangerines to your fruit cups and salads for rich color and delightful new flavor. They taste like an exceptionally fine orange with a special added tang all their own. Serve tangerine desserts. (See recipe at right.) Let the children take some to school to eat at lunch time. Tangerines supply needed vitamins and mineral salts. Make every use of them the few short weeks they're in season.

Tangerine Shortcake
delicious and easy to make

Loaf sponge cake
Florida grapefruit sections
Florida tangerine sections
Marshmallow cherries
Powdered sugar
Shredded coconut
1/2 cup heavy cream

Use individual plates and arrange one slice of cake on each plate. Allow 2 grapefruit sections and 4 tangerine sections to each serving. Arrange fruits in each of the four corners of slice of cake. Sprinkle fruits with sugar and shredded coconut. Pile sweetened whipped cream in center and top with marshmallow cherry.

When Workers Are Needed Help Calls Are Printed in the Post-Dispatch Want Ad Columns . . . . .

During the month of November, for example, the Post-Dispatch Help Wanted Columns contained a total of 3,961 separate Help Wanted advertisements. This was a gain over the same month a year ago of 1,197 Help Wanted calls.

These Help advertisements included calls for workers in the various business and industrial establishments and homes, with offers from many national manufacturers for agents and salesmen. Employment vacancies are filled quickly through the Post-Dispatch Help Wanted Columns.

The Help Wanted calls printed in the Post-Dispatch during November included 2,183 for men and boys, 1,712 for women and girls, and 66 calls for both men and women.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—For the week ended Dec. 16 the Federal Reserve Board today reported a $250,000,000 increase in Government deposits with member banks in 101 leading cities.

A $119,000,000 climb in the banks' commercial loans also was listed. Deposits in time deposits reflected purchases

The banks' holdings of direct Government obligations increased by $118,000,000, or 13.2 per cent, over the same period last year. This indicated the institutions resold a considerable portion of bonds acquired in the fourth-quarter financing.

off $7,000,000 for the week to $1,239,000,000.

Loans to agriculture, industry and commerce rose to $4,519,000,000 from $4,399,000,000 over the previous week and $309,000,000 over the same week last year.

The upturn, greater than those of recent weeks, was attributable in part to holiday credit demands.

COTTON MARKET CLOSES 5 TO 9 POINTS LOWER

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—With pre-bid day influence restricting grain trading, cotton was quiet and prices slightly firmer. Commission house liquidation and foreign selling supplied contracts for the demand, limited principally to trade account. March eased from 12.18 to 12.14 and sold at 12.15 in midafternoon, when prices generally were 1 to 4 points net lower.

with normal price changes. March fluctuated between 12.15 and 12.17, and prices generally at the end of the first half hour were 2 to 4 points net lower. Cotton goods markets remained quiet but steady, and Southern sawmills and shingle mills and supply of current raw cotton requirements were low.

Liverpool reflected pre-holiday conditions with hedge selling and January liquidation supplying trade calling.

The market continued quiet but the undertone was fairly steady under modern pre-holiday conditions and selling in March appeared to be for trade account. There was

COPPERS ARE LEADERS IN STOCK LIST

(Treasury Department Announces Plan to 'Sterilize' Gold Purchases Which in Future Will Be Financed Through Sale of Treasury Bills.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Stocks moved over a recovery route to today's market and retrieved fractions to 2 or more points of their Monday's losses.

While copper was still shown over strikes in motor plants and other lines, less nervousness was displayed regarding the chance of serious difficulties in major automobile factories and steel centers.

With the exception of occasional flurries, which stressed the ticker tape, dealings were comparatively light. Transfers were around 1,750,000 shares.

A sharp upturn of copper issues coincided with briskly advancing prices for the staple.

Wheat weakened at Chicago on Federal predictions of larger than expected winter crop. This cereal finished off 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents a bushel and corn was down 1/4 to 1 1/4.

Corporate bonds improved. The principal foreign currencies were up in terms of the dollar.

Steel stocks were well out in front, as were favored oils, rails, utilities and staples.

Brokers said the recent substantial declines helped to veer trading sentiment toward the purchasing side for "quick-turn" profits.

Prominent share gainers included Anaconda, Kennecott, Phelps Dodge, American Smelting, International Nickel, Inspiration, Calumet & Hecla, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic, Youngtown Sheet & Tube, Vanadium, Sears Roebuck, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Northern Pacific, American Telephone, Western Union, Deere, International Harvester, Texas Corp., Barnsdall, Seaboard Oil, Standard Oil of Indiana, American Petroleum, Westinghouse, Virginia-Carolina Chemical, Commercial Solvents, Canada Dry, Wesson Oil & Snowdrift, Yellow Truck, Tennessee Corp., American Shipbuilding, New Haven preferred and U. S. Industrial Alcohol.

Offering reduced or canceled gains in some instances, as before the close. Lower were Macy, Douglas Aircraft and Philip Morris. On the upside were Andes Copper, Miami Copper, Howe Sound, Union Carbide and Safeway Stores.

At mid-afternoon sterling was up 3-16 of a cent to 49 1/16 and the French franc was ahead 1/16 of a cent at 46 1/16.

Cotton yielded 25 to 45 cents a bale. News of the Day.

With export copper being boosted almost daily to new highs for the past six years, the domestic price of the red metal was lifted today to 1 1/2 cents a pound, a peak since June, 1930. A rate of 11 cents, from 10 1/2 cents, was established on Dec. 14.

Bolstering the steels was the optimistic statement of President

Purnell of Youngtown Sheet and Tube that the mill operation in 1937 should be 10 to 15 per cent greater than in 1936, providing prices are not shoved up too rapidly and there are not unreasonable demands for shorter working hours.

Some buying was thought to have been inspired by the Government's move inasmuch as the step called attention to the possibility of a "boom" getting out of hand unless strong control measures are adopted.

On the favorable side of the market picture commentators advanced such argument as the continued presence of the "inflation" urge, the plethora of money, low interest rates, good consumers' purchases and expansion in heavy industry.

To "Sterilize" Gold Imports.

The Treasury's plan to "sterilize" future gold imports as a "boom control" measure was the principal topic of discussion in the financial news section of the press and in the light of market trends.

Revised estimates of the Christmas holiday spending were a bit more cheerful than earlier forecasts. Some quarters now believe dollar volume covered the French same period last year will run at least 10 per cent despite the rather disappointing showing during the early part of the month.

Holders of the rails, although still depressed over the refusal of the Interstate Commerce Commission to extend emergency surcharges, noted with satisfaction advance figures on last week's freight loadings indicating another less than seasonal decline.

Sterling in initial foreign exchange transactions, was up 1/4 of a cent at 49 1/16, the French franc was 1/16 of a cent higher at 46 1/16.

U. S. AUDIT REPORTS ON M'GAUGH BOOKS FILED

Results of Federal Health Service and Children's Bureau Inquiries Handed to Gov. Park.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Dec. 22.—Copies of reports of two Federal audits of accounts of Dr. E. T. McGaugh of Richmond, former State Health Commissioner, who resigned from that post last month while under fire in an investigation by Attorney-General McKittick of Dr. McGaugh's handling of two Federal funds allotted to Missouri for public health work, have been filed with Gov. Park.

The two reports, which were brief, were made by auditors for the United States Public Health Service and the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor, which provided the Federal funds involved. The two reports dealt with matters already disclosed in a State audit of the handling of the two accounts, or in the course of the inquiry by the Attorney-General, which culminated in Dr. McGaugh's resignation last Nov. 25, shortly after the State audit report was filed.

Children's Bureau Audit.

The Children's Bureau audit report states all of the funds involved in that audit had been accounted for, after some adjustments by Dr. McGaugh. This department, in a previous audit of Dr. McGaugh's handling of the Children's Bureau fund last August, sharply criticized the bookkeeping methods, travel expense allowances, and other items, and declared the handling of the fund was "very haphazard, irregular and entirely unsatisfactory." The report filed with the Governor, on the more recent audit, stated the matters complained of had been or are being corrected.

The report of the auditor of the United States Public Health Service reviewed briefly the history of McKittick's investigation, and criticized the handling of expense accounts and payroll transactions which were disclosed by McKittick. The report pointed out that as a result of the inquiry, control of disbursements of the Federal funds had been transferred, at McKittick's request, from the State Health Commissioner to the State Auditor.

Results of State Audit.
The State audit, filed last month by State Auditor Forrest Smith, charged violation of the State law governing official expense accounts, lax accounting methods, failure to show proper receipts for some disbursements, and some du-lications of salary payments and expense account charges.

During the inquiry Dr. McGaugh paid into the State Treasury $8556, representing fees and other items retained by him, which the Attorney-General ruled must be paid over to the State. He also returned $150 to the Public Health Service fund, "to balance the books" on a payroll transaction disapproved by Federal auditors.

Dr. H. S. Gove of Linn was appointed Health Commissioner after Dr. McGaugh's resignation became effective last Nov. 30.

FAMILY SEPARATED 60 YEARS TO HOLD CHRISTMAS REUNION

Man Left in Orphanage as Boy Locates Sister in Arkansas; Finds He Has Four Others.

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark., Dec. 22.—A family reunion is being planned here for Christmas day with the participants, who had not seen each other in more than 60 years, coming from scattered sections of the United States.

Mrs. J. A. Ditty, 76 years old, Russellville, today said she will be hostess to the gathering. Her long-lost brother, Frank Todd, 61, Los Angeles, "dropped in" this week-end after 60 years of separation. The brother, who was separated from the family at Greencastle, Ind., when he was left an orphan, was long ago given up for dead.

Through correspondence with the Postmaster at Coatsville, Ind., he found out about his sister in Arkansas. Then from her Todd learned that he has four other sisters, one in Kansas City, another in Illinois, a third in South Dakota, and a fourth in Cass, Ark. Todd and Mrs. Ditty have wired the four to come here for a reunion Christmas day.

Dentists Install Officers.

Dr. Russell C. Wheeler, 7222 Forsythe boulevard, University City, was installed as president of the St. Louis Society of Dental Science at a meeting of the society last night at the Kings-Way Hotel. He succeeded Dr. F. W. Fender. Others who took office at the meeting were: Dr. Abraham Romansky, vice-president; Dr. Leo M. Shanley, secretary-treasurer, and Dr. Leo F. Marre, librarian.

"FOLKS'LL LISTEN TO YOUR CHRISTMAS SINGIN'

IF YOU'LL GIVE 'EM A DRINK O' SILVER DOLLAR FIRST!"

"SOMETIMES it takes even more strength to listen to a tune than it does to carry one. But Silver Dollar's as popular with most folks as 'Sweet Adeline.' It seems to suit everybody!"

"Pardners, Silver Dollar's fine, honest Bourbon clear through—mild an' mellow an' rich—lively, yet gentle-actin'. It was made from choice grain, jest like the most expensive whiskies—then aged in oak kegs for 18 months. There's 79 years o' distillin' experience back o' that special sunshiny taste!"

"Silver Dollar don't cost much, either. Ask for it by the bottle or the drink, folks—wherever good liquor is sold."

CITY people jest kinda take the modern speed for granted; but I'm still country boy enough to git a kick out of people flittin' from coast to coast in 14 hours when it took our ancestors months and months to make the same trip. Even the food we eat now is dated and sometimes a fella will be eatin' an egg in a hotel before the hen stops cacklin'. It was sure different in the old days. I remember Mama used to hold an egg at arm's length when she cracked it. I had an uncle that ordered a soft boiled egg in a restaurant one time and he noticed that there was some writin' on it. Well, he read it and it said, "If the man who gits this egg is lonesome and wants a wife, please write to me. I am a lonely little country girl, 16 years of age." And it gave her name and address. Well, sir, my uncle sat right down and wrote a letter proposin' to her. In a few days, he got an answer from her and she says, "I am sorry your proposal came too late. I have been married for years and have four grown children."

IF YOU ASK MY OPINION

By Martha Carr

Dear Martha Carr:
I HAVE not the big broad shoulders I need so much to cry out my "blues" on, so I'll do something to you and your column.
Maybe the coming holiday season will give me the feeling, but I do not think so; it seems to be a chronic illness. Until a few years ago we were a happy home, with two children and a dog. Then came sickness and death—Daddy was taken and our circumstances reduced. I was fortunate in one respect, as I was posted in one line whereby I could earn the necessities and keep my children in school.
This work has taken me away from the children, and what boy or girl does not need to be under the guidance of their mother all the time?
One thing has helped me over the dark places; that is, a dream of some day having a little home, modest, where we may live and be together, where I can mend, cook, sew—that is as much as I would ask of life.

I wonder if other young widows feel that way; wish for a home for later in life, or if I am trying to picture something bright at the end of the road? It would be heaven on earth to be again just a housekeeper and a HOME BODY.

Women, naturally domestic in their tastes, seem to look to a "home" (which they describe as a place to mend, cook and sew) as the goal of happiness. All of us have, perhaps, envisioned a certain kind of life in which we believe we can curl up safely and stay to the end in perfect happiness. How many of us end our days in what we think at the time is Paradise?
But, surely, the great mistake many of us make is in becoming a slave to "THINGS." One woman will moan and groan all through her life, thinking little of the discomforts she is making for those around her and realizing nothing of her narrow point of view, for her last home. She wants the house and the furniture and the doodads and her "lovely little cups and saucers" and the old scraps with her husband and children; they are fine in the retrospect. But while she had them, they were "hard to bear."

These cases should prove to wives and mothers that while they have all these material "things," it is essential that they place more emphasis upon the spirit in which they live and learn to enjoy the real life which cannot take material form; this they should know, they will have always with them;
and through this she could build for the future of her children so that they, too, may know that life's happiness cannot be measured by four walls and the holes in the children's stockings.

You have not the whole time now for your children; were you to cook and sew for them again, perhaps their spirits and mental development might be farther away from you and you might make yourself and them unhappy by crying over their "neglect" and lack of companionship. If you care to do so, resolve to give them the freshness of new mental interests;
have the versatility to make home
of any room you happen to occupy,
and have the courage to show them how to face disappointment—life is it.

To put it in the vernacular of the youngsters, "Oh, mother is good to me. But, oh heck! I wish she would stop crabbing and act like a human being. Let's go over to the Brown's and forget it!"

Dear Mrs. Carr: COULD you please tell me if orange and lemon trees grown from seed will bear fruit? I have some nice trees grown this way and have been told they will not bear.

MRS. C. R.
According to an established horticulturist, these trees will bear the fruit, but the fruit will be small.

My Dear Mrs. Carr:
I SEE a boy every day, but he hesitates when it comes to speaking to me. We've been seeing each other for a long time now and I would like to meet him very much and I think he would like to meet me also; because when I am in the same group, I am one of his listeners and when I am speaking he is very attentive; but he will never speak to me alone. I would appreciate it very much if you will tell him how to go about meeting this boy. Is it a girl's duty to say
"Hello" to a boy first?

ANSWER:
And will you tell me why, if you are in a group of people whom he knows and speaks to, you can't ask some girl or boy to introduce you? Yes, it is a girl's prerogative to speak first to a boy AFTER she has been introduced to him and seen him again (I wouldn't call it a "duty"). You would not be formal enough, after you have met him in the right way, however, to wait to question this.

Letters intended for this column should be addressed to Martha Carr at the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Mrs. Carr will answer all questions of general interest but, of course, cannot give advice on matters of a purely legal or medical nature.
Those who do not care to have their letters published may enclose an addressed and stamped envelope for personal reply.

Most popular among current children's styles are "whimsy" frocks, of fabrics designed by children for children. These are shown in bright printed cottons, highlighting such amusing motifs as the "bacon-and-eggs" print, the "paper doll" print, the "vegetable shop" print, and so on.

Bridge Errors Sometimes Are Quite Costly

There Is Not Always a Chance to Redeem Them With Brilliant Play.

By Ely Culbertson

CARDS have moods. At times they are generous; if a player abuses them, they forgive and grant "another chance." More often, however, they are surly, even relentless. Then mistakes are apt to be costly. There will not be an opportunity to redeem the error through subsequent brilliance.

The East defender, in the hand shown below, made what a great many players would term
only a "slight slip," but, considering that it was directly responsible for the fulfillment of a game contract, that description would appear somewhat adequate.

The bidding:
North East South West
1♠ Pass 2NT Pass
3NT Pass Pass Pass

West opened the deuce of hearts, dummy's king won, and East followed with the nine spot. This was an excellent play by East, although he probably was unaware of it and had intended merely to signal
"come on." The actual value of the play of the nine could have been materially greater than that of a signal if East had later capitalized it.

A LOW club was led from dummy,
East ducked, and dummy's king
won. The queen of spades followed, the finesse was taken, and East gobbled up the king. Now was the time when he could have fructi-fied his former play of the nine of hearts. He should have returned the heart jack, but, probably appalled at such a "needless waste," he actually led back the heart three. Dummy's ace won, and a low diamond was played to the ace.
(Declarer could not afford to cash dummy's spades at this stage because he could not discard on them too comfortably.) A diamond was returned toward dummy, and the queen felled West's jack. East was in again with the king of diamonds, and now, but he had only succeeded in blocking his partner's long card in the suit. West could not overtake except at the expense of establishing the declarer's 10 spot, so East had to be content with the three tricks he already had taken, and the club ace which was later conceded to him.

The play of the nine of hearts at the first trick had been proper for two reasons, one much more important than the other. It was correct as a signal card, but much more correct as the start of an unblock.
East could see from his own scattering of high honors that West must be almost trickless. The outstanding hope of the defense, therefore, should have rested on West's ability to take a couple of heart tricks through East's co-operation. If the declarer held the heart queen, East's jack certainly would be worthless, but if West held that valuable card
it might be (and actually was) vital for East to put himself in a position in which he could lead through a low heart to a possible tenace in West's hand. Obviously, the unblock of the jack of hearts on the second heart trick would have done just this thing. East still would have won his three tricks and West's two heart tricks would have accounted for the defeat of the contract.

TODAY'S QUESTION.
Question: Partner opened the bidding with two diamonds. Next hand passed. What was proper response with ♠ J 8 5 4 ♣ Q J 8 7 5 6 5?

Answer: Four diamonds. This shows powerful support in the trump suit but no king, void or singleton.

Tomato Cup Appetizers
Nowadays when tomatoes and cucumbers can be procured all winter the delicious little appetizers that go so well with cold weather dinners may be prepared. Remove skins and scoop out centers of small, hard tomatoes. Fill with a mixture of chopped cucumber, onion and celery, using three times the amount of cucumber as the other two vegetables. Before packing in to the tomato cups brush the insides with mayonnaise dressing.
Serve on one leaf of lettuce garnish-

a dash of paprika.

WHAT'S WRONG in DOMESTIC SERVICE?

Housemaids and Housewives Seek to Establish Mutual Standards of Employment

By Marguerite Martyn.

HOUSEMAIDS and housewives met at the Young Women's Christian Association the other afternoon to tell what they thought of each other. Self-respecting house-workers don't think very well of the general run of household employers. Employers, conscious that there is something wrong in a situation where the demand for trained houseworkers exceeds the supply, also were inclined to put much of the blame on their own class. Employers not conscious that they are in any way at fault were conspicuously absent from this conference. Some of their ears must have burned as abuses they are accused of were discussed in their absence. Maids themselves remained timidly inarticulate, but bestowed grateful acquiescent glances on domestic employment and placement agents who volunteered as spokesmen and took up the cudgels for their side.

Said a representative of the Board of Children's Guardians who finds places for girls matriculating from foster homes: "One employer taking one of our girls, offering training, a home and protection in lieu of wages, promised and indeed rewarded her with numerous presents of clothing, even jewelry. But when, at last, there was some disagreement and the girl was dismissed, the mistress demanded all her presents back."

"One employer valued the appearance of having a maid more than her actual services. She would call the maid from the laundry to answer the phone, which was within her own arm's reach, so the caller would know she could afford a maid."

"All our foster home girls have been accustomed to being treated as one of the family, eating with them, having the run of the house. Our more intelligent girls, when they go into service, are ready to accept a new condition of isolation, but employers are not always humane in the strictness with which they relegate a girl to the back of the house."

"We realize there is much to be desired in the training of house-workers. We sympathize with the employer whose maid serves the wrong end of the asparagus and throws away the tips, but not with the employer who takes a young untrained girl as an assistant, then leaves her in entire charge of the house and complains of her stupidity."

A representative of the Phyllis Wheatley branch of the Y. W. and in charge of the Urban League's domestic employment agency for colored women, said, "During the

Big Town Rogues' Gallery.

The Torch Carrier: This weepy lover feels everybody wants to know his girl trouble, and he pours it like a faucet. He's never happier than when telling how some dame swept him out, and what what her cruelty has done to him. He gets more fun out of losing a girl than the rest of us do out of winning one.

The Self-Confessed Failure: He glories in his flop, and claims that only mediocrities get into the coin. Anybody who can get rich pleasing the masses, he argues, has a lame brain, and he is tickled that nobody wants his music or stories or whatever he's flopping at.

The Celebrity's Wife: She is usually empty-headed and beginning to wither, for hubby was a long time getting into the chips. He is busy with younger company himself, so he lets her play. She surrounds herself with juveniles and beaux who haven't a red corpse among them, and pays off their flattery in drinks and rent money. She thinks she is running a salon full of wits and bon vivants.

The First Night Wit: He always prepares three puns on the play's title, the first if it hits, the second if it dies and the third if it's so-so. He releases the gag to the press during the second act intermission and often gets mentioned in the papers.

The Final Authority: This bird, or doll, isn't much on logic or good sense, but he always comes up with a quote from the head of a corporation. If the argument's on money, he hears a confidence J. P. Morgan made to him, but he's at his best when the gab is about the value of the dollar. He comes up with a quote from Darryl Zanuck or Pan Berman or any other biggie 3000 miles away from his fib.

The Old Timer: This guy resents the present crop of flippers and latelays, and gets bitter about the Old Days. He has been used to the old since Churchill's and Shanley's and Jack's put the blinds, and Maude Adams quit the stage. He curses the movies and the present crop of girls. The world changed, he hints, just to play a mean trick on him.

The Retired Historian: This fellow was once the fountain for reporters and columnists, but as the town changed his fund of phone numbers and hot leads played out—and now he's on the side-lines. He's resentful about it, too, but although he's been on the street longer than most of us, he has yet to learn that even the people who use you must find you worth using.

The Overseas Sweetheart: She comes back every once in a while from London, where she is liked in whatever she's doing—pictures, stage, what-not. She's a little dazed when the natives don't understand she's a biggie. She cracks about Ameddikan barbarians and the vulgarity of The States and gets so peevish she punishes her home town by refusing to go back and show the neighbors her new broad "A."

The Victorian Bore: He hasn't had a tingling adventure for two decades, consequently his yarns are moulder than the library of a radio comic writer. He will capture you for two hours to spin what he regards as a steaming anecdote—al about the time Mark Twain walked off wearing Grover Cleveland's hat and how President Cleveland laid his hands in the aisles by remarking with a twinkle in his eye: "That Twain! What a chap!"

The Caggy Intellectual: He is the loudest nuisance at all the cocktail round-ups, and usually putting the blast on the latest big success. He jeers at the weaklings who forfeit their honest beliefs for a few filthy dollars, and he considers it a badge of honor to starve. He never mentions that he is employed by a capitalistic outfit, editing a trade paper that keeps him in the best knackwurst and lentils.

The Apologetic Lecturer: Until he hit upon telling the small-towners all about culture he was pretty steadily in danger of the headline. Now he hates the sight of his audiences and on his rare returns to the big burg he boasts about the book he's working up, exposing the sticks as more backward than Ethiopia. In some of those outposts, he will tell you in horror, they don't know how to sizzle up a good dish of crepes suzettes. All he can get out of the savages is money.

Mr. Almost: Everybody but himself is to blame for his string of flops. When his novel appeared, ready to rock the world, The Trend, he explains, changed. His critical pieces were just taking hold when the world went nuts over Woolcott's radio gabblings and left him without an audience. Sheehan's auto-biog ruined the sale of his bold diaries. He always forgets to mention the other guys beat him to the idea first and squeezed it dry before he got around to it.

Use a large pitcher in which to mix waffle and hot cake batters. They can be beaten easily in the pitcher and poured into the gridle without mishap.

SKYWAY LOVERS

Alison Feels Unable to Combat Larry Weston's Insistence on Helping Her—A Long Wait, and Hopeful Word.

CHAPTER TWO.

LIKE a small child Alison obeyed. She listened to Weston's amusing chatter in silence. And he talked on until she had consumed the last bit of toast. Her eyes were less frozen, and she smiled at one of his jokes.

"Now, young woman, we will talk business," He smiled at her. "Tell me about yourself."

"There's nothing to tell. I work, or worked at the flower shop. I live with my mother, and that's all."

"Of course, it isn't all! Come now, begin at the beginning." His smile was irresistible. Alison did not know that he had seen the $24 pushed over the counter to her by her former employer, that he was appalled that anybody should be living on $12 a week in New York City.

"Well, I've worked since Dad died two years ago. I studied to be a nurse. I graduated just after he died." She shrugged her shoulders. "There aren't any jobs. So I just gave up trying to be a nurse. I got this job a year ago. That's all."

"A nurse. Well, we'll see. You should be nice in a uniform." His eyes held a glint of admiration. Alison stiffened. "I wish you'd not make fun of me."

"Lord, child, I'm not." He did not add that he could never resist a little flirtation, no matter who the woman. It was Larry's nature. "You have nice eyes, you know."

"You seem to have a flair for saying nice things to the ladies," Alison's voice was sharp.

"Yes, and sometimes it costs me diamond bracelets!" Larry's tone was more serious now. "You got me out of a bad scrape just now. I don't think Roerden will forget himself again."

Sheer contempt showed on Alison's face. "How can you men be like that?" she demanded in disgust. "Us men? My dear child! It is the ladies. Can we help it if they are attractive, and if they want attention? I am to please, that's all!"

Alison regarded him gravely. "You seem so nice. I don't understand it."

Larry threw back his head and laughed. "You're priceless. I didn't suppose there were any girls like you left!"

"It isn't funny!" Alison's green eyes blazed. "Probably this will break up their home."

"Darling, nothing I could do would break up Adele and her husband. That was done years ago, really. She plays around and I just happened to be around, that's all. You see, life is like that."

"It isn't, it can't be! If it were I'd want to die right now!" Alison said fiercely.

"Oh, no, you won't. You'll enjoy it very much."

Alison pushed back her plate determinedly. "Thank you for the food. I needed it to face Mother."

She started to get up and Larry put his hand on her arm.

"Not so fast. I'm not through."

He held on to her resisting arm. "I'm not ungrateful for what you did for me. I might right now have a neat little bullet hole right through this new coat." He laughed a little. "It's been prophesied often enough."

He watched Alison's downcast face. "By the way, what's your name?"

"Alison, Alison Thayer."

"Alison, nice name. You should be called Sonny, I think. You need coaching. I'm a good teacher. Yes, Sonny suit you. A nice name."

"Mr. Weston, I must be going!"

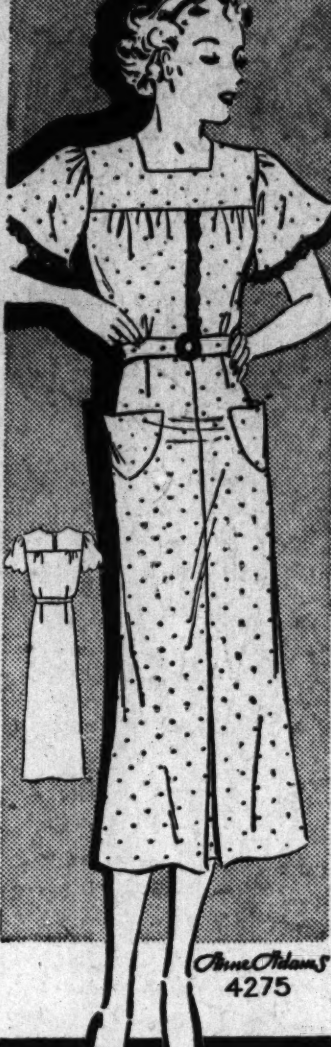

"All right, we'll be on our way. I'll give you a lift home, Sonny, and we can talk on the way."

"You'll do nothing of the sort."

"Yes, I shall. You're going to like me once you get to know me."

TODAY'S PATTERN

Wash Frock

A TRIUMPH for femininity—this perky frock of cotton! Just see its flattering lines, and delightful sleeves that may flare gracefully outward or be caught into demure puffs. Anne Adams gives your neckline a "square deal" in Pattern 4275, and places handy triangular patch pockets on the neat 'n' trim skirt! For a final treat, edge the sleeves and bodice-front with a bit of dainty ruffing—organdy, or inexpensive net would be ideal. A delightful style, this, to "slip into" of a morning—and one that will keep you spruce all day long! It's easily made, too, for the simple seams may be whipped together in no time! Try a spaced, polka dot print.

Pattern 4275 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 36-inch fabric and 1 1/2 yards ruffing. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

and when he passed without stopping for their poor house, or dropped off a notice to somebody for furniture payments, or a gas bill, she'd run up stairs and try to keep back the tears.

Until yesterday she had felt sure that Lawrence Weston would keep his promise. He had seemed so kind. Then yesterday she'd been up in the square resting and somebody had left a newspaper beside her. She looked at it idly. On the ninth page she saw a photograph of a smiling young man, sitting on a polo horse. It was Larry Weston. And he was playing polo in Hot Springs, Va., with a winning Eastern team.

The girl Larry had named Sonny sat there and cried quietly for a long time. Of course, he would not remember! She had been foolish to expect that! And so Alison had given up hope. But she had not told her mother. Unhappy and find a job within the next few days or there would be nothing to eat.

Now this morning, the last of the coffee was gone. Alison had $4 left. It must last—how long? She shivered. Her mother looked so tired and worn. The girl could remember that she had been pretty and laughed all the time. And she'd had such pretty hats. But those days were far away, so far Alison could remember only faintly how her mother had looked then. Today she was a fragile old woman, too ill to work. Unhappy and find a job within the next few days or there would be nothing to eat.

Then she went slowly upstairs to face her mother.

MRS. THAYER measured the coffee into the coffee pot carefully and put it on the two-burner gas plate in the corner of their living room-bedroom.

"It's the last of it, Alison," she said in a low tone.

It had been two weeks since Alison had lost her job. She had paid the rent for a month. They'd at least have a roof over their heads. But when she was hunting for work the money seemed to go so fast. Carfare, subway fare, lunch, when she was too hungry to go on further without something to eat. And she had to buy a new pair of shoes.

Every day for 14 days she had looked for Lawrence Weston's letter. Mornings when it was time for the postman she'd wait on the steps

Four Kinds of Body Wisdom For Mankind

By The Rev. J. F. Newton

D. R. CANNON, of Harvard, has been telling us about the wisdom of the human body. After reading his book, one feels that the body has more wisdom in its little finger than we have in our heads.

Four kinds of body wisdom are described, all of them in a sense defense against attack. The first is the amazing powers of reserve, in case of emergency, like so much money laid aside in the bank.

If tuberculosis destroys part of the lung, we have more than is needed. Two-fifths of the liver can be taken out, and the other three-fifths will carry on just as well as before, so far as we can see.

Each of us has about 22 feet of intestine. If it is necessary to take out four or five feet we hardly miss it. The same is true of our blood vessels—we have many more than we need.

In the matter of keeping its balance, the body is an expert. If it did not keep an even temperature, not one of us would like a day. Yet in cold weather it keeps warm, and in hot weather it keeps cool. It also keeps a balance of moisture, and between acid and alkaline.

If we get hurt, the body is on the job of repair long before the doctor arrives. Its strategy of defense is perfect—the leucocytes get busy walling off the injured part, and fighting infection.

If toxins invade the body, it sets its laboratories to work making antitoxins. It is a kind of automatic chemistry; the mind has nothing to do with it whatsoever—does not even know it is going on.

The body knows what it wants and what it likes—it throws the rest out in all sorts of ways. If it cannot throw out an enemy it interns him, seals him up, where he can no longer do any harm.

Even an incurable ill often "cures itself," as we say, because the body is such a good doctor. The wise old Bible was right when it said that we are fearfully and wonderfully made—how did it happen?

It did not just happen—each of us has in his own body proof of a wisdom and skill and kindness far more than human!

Alison stood in the doorway blinking from the light. Her mother looked at her. "Open it, quick. Maybe this is it!"

It was a business looking document which Mrs. Thayer put into her daughter's hands. In one corner it read:

"Continental Air Lines, Empire State Building, General Offices."

Alison opened it with trembling fingers.

"You are asked to report here at 9 a. m., Thursday, May 10, for an interview with James White, head of our traffic department."

That was all. Alison did not understand what it meant, but she danced about the room, wild with joy. At least it was a prospect.

"Now get off your hat and your shoes, dear. I want to get your hat dried out and see if I can press your black skirt and make it look respectable. Tomorrow's May 10."

That night the mother and daughter worked far into the night in an effort to make Alison's clothes presentable. Mrs. Thayer darned the girl's one fairly respectable pair of hose. Alison shined her shoes, mended her gloves. They pressed and scrubbed and darned and when they finally opened up the sanitary cot and got ready for bed, they were both so tired they could not sleep.

"I knew Mr. Weston would keep his promise," Alison whispered. "I knew he would, mother. But I was so afraid for I saw the paper yesterday and it said he was away playing polo."

"Polo? He must be very wealthy."

"Oh, he is!" Alison said with conviction, remembering that beautiful automobile and the diamond bracelet. "He must have all the money in the world."

"What kind of a job do you suppose it is?"

"I don't care. I'll scrub floors for the Continental Airlines. I'll do anything, just to get a job again, mother. I'm so happy." Her voice dropped. "But suppose they don't want me when they see me?" There wasn't much sleep for either of them that night.

But the next morning the sun was shining. There was fresh coffee. And when Mrs. Thayer saw her daughter in her simple black skirt and fresh white blouse, she was satisfied.

Alison went off, walking briskly down Fifth avenue toward the Empire State Building. It was a long walk, but she wanted to save bus fare.

Promptly at the stroke of 9 she walked into the office on the thirty-second floor. She had waited outside for a few minutes to make her appearance. An impersonal and decidedly attractive secretary took her name, motioned her to a seat. Alison sat down with folded hands to wait. Nine-thirty. The office was rushing with business. Every now and then a good-looking chap in blue uniform came into the office and hailed the secretary as "Ruth."

They talked together, whispering and laughing, and went on in to Ornamental Jeweled flowers may be worn pinned to the lapel, clipped to the neckline of your frock, or worn in the hair after dark. And it's a nice frivolous fashion to wear a jeweled flower on the lapel of the most austere tailored tweed suit.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

MILLIONS OF WOMEN EVERYWHERE HAVE SIGHED IN ADMIRATION OF THE BEAUTIFUL FACE AND NECK CONTOUR OF KAY FRANCES. MRS. LOWMAN CITES HER AS ONE OF THE PERFECT EXAMPLES OF BEAUTY.

NOTHING grows old faster than carrying armfuls of Christmas bundles through crowded stores. When your shoulders are full of knits from shopping, do this: (Incidentally, it will also take that lump of fat off of the back of your neck.)

Stand erect with your arms down at your sides. Bend the trunk one half way toward the floor and pull the shoulders forward hard. At the same time bring the head forward. Straighten the trunk and shoulders, bringing the arms sideward, shoulder height. At the same time, raise the head and then lower it backward. Continue.

dated a long time whether or not she should speak again to the lofty secretary with the pretty brown bobbed head. She must have forgotten all about her appointment.

Finally, after 11 o'clock, the secretary condescended to speak: "Mr. White is ready now!"

Stiff, and so nervous her hands were cold, Alison followed the young woman into an inner office. Behind the desk sat a man whose eyes were hidden behind glasses. He looked at Alison impersonally. "Now, let me see," he said, reaching for a file. "You're a registered nurse?"

"I graduated two years ago from Bellevue. But I've seen unable to get work. Since then I've been working in a flower shop."

Continued Tomorrow.

Elsie Robinson's Talk
Petty People Who Nag

DAILY MAGAZINE

Salmon Loaf.
One cup canned or fresh salmon.
One cup crumbs.
One tablespoon minced parsley.
Two tablespoons minced celery.
Two tablespoons butter, melted.
One-half cup milk.
One egg or two yolks.
One-fourth teaspoon salt.
One-fourth teaspoon pepper.
Mix ingredients. Fill buttered loaf or round mold and bake 30 minutes in moderate oven. Unmold carefully and surround with a creamy sauce.

Christmas Cookies
Christmas cookies can be worked out in amusing designs. An outline of Santa with a pack on his back may be traced on dough. After baking, the pack may be "filled" with toys fashioned of bits of candy gumdrops held in place by a tiny bit of icing. Features on Santa's face may be traced on the baked cookies by the use of a small wood pick on which frostings of various colors are applied. Rainbows and stars also may be utilized.

Pansy Patches

PANSY APPLIQUE QUILT PATTERN 1396

SIMPLICITY—Beauty—charm, all are combined in this brightly appliqued quilt. Know the jolly fun of stitching these demure pansy patches, cut from the gayest cotton scraps. A bit of those "brings out" their markings. Treat scarf or pillow to pansies, too, and have bedroom accessories matching! Pattern 1396 contains complete, simple instructions for cutting, sewing and finishing, together with yardage chart, diagram of quilt to help arrange the blocks for single and double bed size, and a diagram of block which serves as a guide for placing the patches and suggests contrasting materials.

Send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for this pattern to St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Needlecraft, Dept., 82 Eighth Avenue, New York, N. Y. Write plainly PATTERN NUMBER, your NAME and ADDRESS.

Date Orange Gums
Two cups pastry flour.
Four tablespoons baking powder.
One-third cup sugar.
One-fourth teaspoon salt.
One egg.
One-half cup chopped dates.
One tablespoon grated orange rind.
One-half cup orange juice.
One-half cup milk.
Three tablespoons fat, melted.
Mix ingredients and beat for one minute. Half fill small greased pans and bake 10 minutes in moderate oven.

To save wear on brooms, hang them up.

Facial Blotches
To ease the stinging soreness and aid healing, bathe with Resinol Soap—then apply

Resinol

Strong People Who Tolerate Petty Nagging

"Nothing Flatters a Wise Man So Much as a Fool."

By Elsie Robinson

(Copyright, 1936.)

THAT queer, neurotic woman Bill has married—strange that a wholesome, kindly, big fellow like that should tie up with such a peevish whiner!

That rude boor Ellen's engaged to—what possesses a lovely, cultured person like Ellen to waste her life on an ill-natured loafer?

Tragic instances like these—you've seen them scores of times. Fine, friendly people throwing their lives away on sour weaklings. Gallant gentlemen and ladies dragged into the gutter by jealous niggers, vulgar bullies. Great intellectuals beguiled by brazen cheats.

But why? Why should any big person permit such degradation? Or submit to such trickery? Ask Bill and Ellen and they'll have an answer ready. It's because they're "so sorry for them." Because "they alone understand them." And—raising martyred eyes, they'll quote the old motto—"noblesse oblige."

But that isn't the real reason why big, fine people endure little, worthless ones. The real reason is that which underlies so much of our mortal tragedy—EGOTISM. Big, fine people endure little, weak, silly, cheap people because it flatters their conceit.

An equal or a superior person is always a challenge. It takes some hustling to live up to the standards of a great spirit. And frequently a fine friend, quite unconsciously, make us feel like 30 cents, by his very fineness.

But we can always feel larger by comparison with a smaller nature. Nothing flatters a brave man like a coward—or a wise man like a fool. And the wise man is always so sure that the fool can't get the best of him! Consciously he listens to the fool's idle prattlings, petty tantrums or two-by-four tantrums... thanking heaven, meanwhile, for his own superior brain and backbone. And all the time the despised fool is taking him for a ride!

STRANGE that even in the strongest natures, vanity should work such havoc—yet it does. Study the life of almost any great man or woman, and you'll find a circle of flattering parasites, scheming "yes men," who slowly, but surely, pull him down to their own level.

Egotism—that's one reason why big people are undone by little ones. Cowardice—that's another. Jim comes down to the office party-faced, after a sleepless night. The wife's been on another tantrum. Jealous again! Alice crouches in a darkened room—a sobbing, shuddering wreck. Fred's been on another bender. Raised Cain as usual.

But why do they stand it? Jim's a brainy chap—one of the city's leading attorneys, and a stubborn battler. Alice has made a great record in her own business for years, and carried her worthless husband along. Then why do they endure such outrages—allow their lives to be wasted by such worthless weaklings?

Again they have an answer—but the wrong one. "Pity," say Jim and Alice, thinking with disgusted contempt of the creatures to whom they are shackled. By any mental test, Jim's jealous wife and Alice's drunken husband would make a low rating.

But often the single-track mind, with its malicious notions, has more driving power than the big, tolerant brain and generous spirit. Jim and Alice are actually afraid of these small, distorted people to whom they're bound—afraid of their vicious, ruthless determination.

Some day Bill and Ellen, Jim and Alice, are going to face and rebel against the inevitable "final straw." When that day comes, they'll be filled with indignant recrimination and recount all the humiliations they've suffered, the indignities and brutalities they've endured. And they'll honestly believe that it was all the Other Fellow's fault.

But they'll be all wrong. We, alone, are to blame if we're cheapened, tricked, insulted and abused by those whom we know to be inferiors.

Petty minds and poisonous natures are as obvious as mad dogs. If, to flatter our vanity or serve our cowardice, we endure their attack, then we have only ourselves to thank. And we deserve the beating we inevitably get!

Potato Pancakes
Add to one cup of cold mashed potatoes one beaten egg, one-half cup cream, one-half cup flour, one teaspoon baking powder. Pour into a greased griddle and cook as you would hot cakes. Spread with butter or jelly, roll and fasten with a toothpick.

Dog Population Of This Country

By Albert Payson Terhune

HOW many million dogs do you suppose there are in America? I don't know. Nobody knows. There have been dozens of computations by so-called experts. Few sets of figures come anywhere near agreeing.

In the first place, the American Kennel Club long ago passed the 1,000,000 mark in the number of its registrations. It is now well along into its second million. No dog can also be registered. That means there are hundreds of unregistered dogs to very dog that is registered.

Another way of guessing at the nation's dog population would be to collect and add the dog-license figures of all the counties of all the States. But even then the answer wouldn't be anywhere near correct. Because there are countless thousands of unlicensed dogs—as the grim records of every community's dog pound attests.

There are said to be more than

Spiced Salad Delight
One package lemon flavored gelatin mixture.
One and two-thirds cups boiling water.
One-third cup spiced peach juice.
One-half cup diced pineapple.
One-half cup diced spiced peaches.
One-eighth teaspoon salt.
Four water over gelatin mixture and stir until dissolved. Cool, allow to thicken slightly and add rest of ingredients. Pour into shallow mold. Chill until firm and serve on lettuce. Top with mayonnaise.

30,000,000 human families in the United States. Some few of these families never owned a dog. But many another family has owned at least a dozen dogs during the past 20 years. Perhaps enough to have averaged one dog to every American family.

It is all a matter of guesswork and fruitless speculation. But I think the guesswork and speculation are mighty interesting. Don't you?

Tales of Vagabondia Lessing in London

HIGHBROW VAGABOND

By Bruno Lessing

LONDON.
MADE the grade at last and visited Hampton Court Palace. One of the biggest and, in the simplicity of its exterior, one of the most beautiful dwellings in the world. Built all of red brick now mellowed with age. A perfect specimen of Tudor architecture.

Its many buildings and wings and gardens straggle along the shore of the Thames for more than half a mile. There are nearly 1000 rooms. To give the place a thorough inspection would take about a year. Many of the rooms are occupied by elderly pensioners of the crown. The state apartments still contain many beautiful paintings and furniture and decorations belonging to the days when English kings lived here.

Hundreds of years ago this palace was the scene of many a revelry. Tournaments of knights in armor, great banquets, beautiful women, music and dancing. Now everything is quiet. You only hear birds chirping in the gardens. But everywhere there are memories and ghosts.

Much has been written about Cardinal Wolsey, who planned and built this palace nearly 400 years ago. In the span of his 55 years he shot up like a rocket and tumbled down a stick. In my student days his career fascinated me. I'm afraid I devoted more attention to it than to the more profitable subjects that I was supposed to study. But I never quite grasped the spirit and the ambition of the man until, years ago, I came to this spot and saw the house that he built for himself. It is more clarifying and more eloquent than all that has been written about him. It is a grandiose edifice reflecting a grandiose mind. It is a biography written with bricks.

YOU will find this palace described in all guidebooks of London (with the injunction that you must not miss it) and in many volumes on architecture and history. So that there is no need of my conducting the reader through the vast courtyard, the King's gallery and the Queen's gallery, the audience chambers, the drawing rooms and the bedrooms. In themselves they are no more beautiful than those of many other European palaces. It is their size and number that impress you. And, while Kings and Queens lived and died here, it is the spirit of Thomas Wolsey which pervades the place.

Giustini, Ambassador of Venice to the English Court, wrote of Wolsey, at the time, "He is very handsome, learned, extremely eloquent, of vast ability and indefatigable. He alone transacts the business which occupies all the magistrates and councils of Venice, both civil and criminal; and all state affairs are managed by him, let their nature be what it may. He is grave, and has the reputation of being extremely just; he favors the people exceedingly, and especially the poor, hearing their suits and seeking to despatch them instantly."

A splendid characterization. But it does not explain the Cardinal's tremendous pride and ambition and arrogance, which led to his downfall, as well as does this stupendous building. Wolsey, for a while, dominated Church and State in England and had tremendous influence in the Roman Catholic Continent. His monarch, Henry VIII, gave him a free hand.

THROUGH the King's generosity the Cardinal had a number of magnificent residences in various parts of the country. But Wolsey wanted to build one for himself, which would be the finest, greatest, most magnificent residence in the whole world. By the time it was completed and furnished his luck changed. The Church, the Parliament and the people turned against him. King Henry decided that Hampton Court Palace would be a nice place to live in. I have never been able to determine whether he took it from his minister, whether Wolsey gave it to him for a present or whether he paid $10 for it. All I know is that he got it and that he and his descendants made it their home, while the Cardinal fell back on his job as Archbishop of York. And, before his death, according to Shakespeare, uttered those wonderful lines, "Had I but served my God with half the zeal I served my king, He would not in mine age Have left me naked to mine enemies."

There is a haunted gallery in the palace where the ghosts of some of the wives of Henry VIII are said to appear from time to time. I whispered, "Yoo-hoo!" Either they didn't hear me or weren't interested. (I've never had any luck with ghosts.)

Then, in the gardens, there is the famous maze. On my first visit I got lost among those high hedges. Since then, however, I have studied the plan and find it is very simple if you just keep turning to the left. Today I paid my entrance fee, trod the path boldly and, like a fine Smart Aleck, got lost again.

Don't Annoy by Needless Apologizing

MADGE is crazy about Hugh but she embarrasses him by her continual apologies—"My hair looks awful," or "this rag of a dress," until he asks, "Fishing again?"

That's exactly what she's doing. As a child she was teased about being homesick, developed an inferiority complex and can't feel satisfied unless some one's saying how grand she looks.

What a pity she can't get her mind off herself. Hugh would date her again if she chuckled at his jokes and noticed how well his form fits.

Thinking of other is a sure way of banishing that craving for attention. So are hobbies, interest in the news of the day—anything that enriches your life.

Let our 32-page booklet give you a psychologist's tips on understanding and conquering jealousy, stubbornness, false pride, shyness resulting from childhood's misunderstandings.

Sweet and Sour String Beans
One quart string beans, two tablespoons butter, one tablespoon sugar, one-half teaspoon lemon juice, two tablespoons vinegar, one-fourth cup stock, salt and pepper. String and break beans into small pieces and cook for 30 minutes in salted water. Drain, add butter, salt and pepper until the butter is absorbed. Then add other ingredients and simmer until the beans are very tender.

Resolutions for Home Interiors

By Elizabeth Boykin

WE take our New Year's resolutions with a grain of salt. That is, unless we make resolutions to do things we'd like to do anyway. Then it's easy to mend our ways with all the proper pomp and ceremony. And yet we thoroughly approve of New Year's resolutions because the gesture is an impressive final fling and farewell to the old year. Here's a list of resolutions that we're making... maybe they'll give you some tips, too.

(1) To change at least one room in the home as completely as furniture and the budget will allow. We hope it will be our guest room, which is mostly tag ends right now, but wouldn't it be sweet with French furniture, pink-beige walls, the old soft blue rug that's there now, bedspreads of faded rose chintz with flowers in the design and draperies in pink-beige just the color of the walls?

(2) To live a more orderly life. Budget our time so that we don't do too much fluttering and too little accomplishing. Home-making can be a fine art or a dreary drudgery—we'd like to be an artist at it, so we're going to try to have a poised and gracious home and be that way ourselves.

(3) To replace at least one piece of furniture that we've been glaring at for years. Maybe we'll get rid of that old chest of drawers in the hall—it started life as a dresser, but we detached the mirror and replaced the knobs and refinished it so that it would "do." But it's basically ungraceful and we'd love a fine and simple highboy in its place.

(4) To improve domestic relations by eliminating some of the snags that our husband has complained about. Our pet antique chair that's always falling apart... the gadgets we never use anyway... the little rug he invariably trips over. This resolution will pay dividends, for we have a private notion that a little giving in here will make him fall hard for some of the "big" changes in the house we've got our heart set on, such as the French furniture or the highboy.

Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for Miss Boykin's bulletin, "Home-Furnishing Budgets for Different Incomes."

RETURN

By FRANK KERN LEVIN

The Daily Short Short Story

THERE were many people in the room, making it seem smaller than it was. The radio was turned to the fullest capacity of its volume, and there was too much light from the three large chandeliers. Martin was alert among them, nodding with one and another and said hello, and moved across the room as one of their kind at last, and greeted the hostess.

She said, "We're so glad to see you. Mr. Wontrow spoke of you at breakfast. He's so pleased that you're doing so well."

"Thank you, Mrs. Wontrow. A fellow can't help doing well working for a man like your husband," Martin said.

"Have you met my niece, Marilyn? You know I really shouldn't be telling, should I, but this really is a party celebrating her engagement. The girl turned, and when she faced Martin, exclaimed: "But we've met. Just last week at uncle's office. I want to thank you again for running me over to the hairdresser's. It was so helpful."

The people were moving about and around. Some in the center of the floor were dancing. A few of them, the stout men with large cigars in their mouths and wearing colored shirts, were standing in one place. They spoke rapidly and looked wisely at one another as prominent business men sometimes are given to do.

"Your aunt was telling me—" Martin began.

"That I'm engaged? It's supposed to be a secret, but auntie's telling everybody. She's so proud—" Marilyn was saying.

"A Count," Mrs. Wontrow broke in. "It's quite in order, don't you know. We want Marilyn to have every advantage we'd have given our daughter if we had one. She really is a daughter to us."

The light from the chandeliers was so very brilliant. It seemed a very substance around one, one moved through it, as though he were in a more ethereal atmosphere than ordinarily he encounters on earth. The music required all of one's sufficiency, one's very thoughts beat to its snappy, fast rhythm. The glittering light and loud music combined to establish the absence of one's personality. There was nothing else.

In the center of the floor they were laughing and dancing in haste and looking at one another with sophisticated faces; at the edges of the floor older people walked about, except fat men, lifting one eyebrow or knitting both. They were the most important people on earth and Martin at last was one of them and not yet 30. One big order had done the trick, though behind it was 10 years of relentless drive, since the time of his earliest manhood when he had determined that he would be a success.

One big order—and Mr. Wontrow had invited him to come to the gathering at his home. He mingled with all these people and nodded to the girl they called Marilyn, whom he had driven from the office to a hairdresser's. She had talked very brightly during the short drive and very distinctly. She was one of them.

"I say there, m'dear, you wouldn't mind dancing, now would you," a man with a monocle asked, and Martin knew without being told that it was Count Runlitz. His hair came to a peak in the center of his forehead, his forehead was narrow and his face wide at the center; he was not more than twice Marilyn's age.

Marilyn glanced up at Martin and for a moment or so it seemed to him a look of embarrassment, even of shame, came into her eyes. But she nodded and turned to her Count and he winked her off as well as a middle-aged count can whisk.

"Marilyn had so difficult a time when she was young, you know," Mrs. Wontrow said to Martin. "My brother ran off with some cheap little dance girl. It was hard to forgive him, though we might have after his wife died, but he was so insulting that you couldn't do a thing with him."

"Marilyn always was a dear, and when her father died, too, of course we took her in. Though if her father had had his way she'd never have come to us. Imagine he had her learning typing and things like that and actually had her a job all ready just before he died. I talked to her then. Marilyn is a sensible girl."

Martin nodded. It was difficult to refrain from asking Mrs. Wontrow to repeat what she was saying, for though he heard her words, he seemed unable to understand them as they came to him—seemingly confused and contorted not only by the blasts from the radio but by the lights as well.

Marilyn and the count were among them again, and as it turned out, Martin asked the girl if she cared to dance; she glanced up for her aunt's approval, and though the count was there, she gave it.

"How well you dance," he smiled, and she did move as though to the very rhythm not only of the music but of the light from the chandeliers.

She nodded a sophisticated nod of thanks for the compliment and said, "It's really quite an exciting party. Perhaps that's because I've so looked forward to it. That gentleman there, the one in the colored shirt, was just telling me about Monte Carlo. We plan to stop there on our honeymoon. I imagine it's quite an exciting and enjoyable place."

"I want to go to Monte Carlo some day," he said as they danced, and felt the vibrant driving surge of his ambition charge through his body, but he did not look at her, did not look into her eyes.

Suddenly the music stopped. The lights went out. Darkness and silence where before had been the dancing light and the screaming music. Still Martin held his arm around Marilyn as they stood where they had suddenly stopped. Then in the darkness and silence they clung to one another, he felt her body tremble as though with a sob, and his arm tightened around her. She relied, and he comforted her. With the quality of an explosion, the lights were on again, the music in full force; she stiffened in his arms, the others were dancing, and they were too.

"Nothing, nothing at all," Mrs. Wontrow was explaining. "Just something went wrong with the electricity for a moment."

The dance ended. They walked quickly from the center of the floor, they did not look at one another. They seemed not to dare. He wanted to get away, but it was in bad taste to leave, and so he remained speaking and smiling through the din of light and music to all the people Mrs. Wontrow introduced him to people he had wanted to meet because they could mean so much to his future.

But during all the rest of that long evening he and Marilyn carefully avoided one another.

Candied Fruit Peel

Four cups orange strips.
Two cups water.
Sugar.

Cut orange skins into thin strips. Add water and simmer 15 minutes. Cool slightly. Using spoon, discard the white part next to the skin. Cover by four inches wide cold water and slowly bring to a boil. Boil 15 minutes or until skin is very tender when tested with a fork. Drain and measure. Add equal portions of sugar and one-half cup boiling water. Simmer until liquid has been absorbed. Stir with a fork. Sprinkle cooked peel onto plate spread with sugar. Straighten out each piece of peel on waxed paper to dry.

Grapefruit can be prepared the same way except that it will require three cookings in place of the two. A dash of salt (one-eighth teaspoon) added to the last water will improve the flavor.

Brown Sugar Syrup

Handy to know how to make when you find you haven't enough syrup for the morning griddle cakes. Add one cup water to two pounds brown sugar and melt over the fire. Cook until slightly thickened. Flavor with a little vanilla and pour into the 'lasses jug.
